TAX PROGRAM WILL BE PUSHED AT THIS SESSION

Congress Leaders Alter Their Plan.

(Picture on back page.)

Washington, D. C., July 16.—[Special.]—Congressional leaders who seemed jubilant yesterday at the idea of formulating a "soak the rich" tax program, and then adjourning until winter when the tax bill would be enacted, changed their minds today.

The leaders of congress were of the opinion today that the suggestion of letting the tax measure go over to a winter session was at least premature.

The White House was under obligation to Senator La Follette to press the tax bill to passage at this session and so they felt they could not suggest a change in the program.

Postmaster General Farley went to the capitol and conferred with Vice President Garner, Senator Joseph T. Robinson [Dem., Ark.], the majority leader, and Senator Harrison on the proposed change in program, which grew out of the confab the President had with Democratic leaders at Jefferson Island last week-end. The President was understood to be agreeable to delay in the tax program if that was agreeable to the left wingers.

Harrison Tells of Pledge.

Senator Harrison today admitted he gave his word to Senator La Follette in the open senate that if the latter would withhold his proposed amendments to the resolution extending the nuisance taxes, the administration would immediately initiate the President's tax bill in the house and press it to passage at this session.

Unless Senator La Follette should volunteer to release him from this pledge he could not assent to any change in the program. Senator La Follette appeared disposed to hold the Democratic leaders to their bargain.

After the conference broke up Senator Harrison announced the decision to go ahead with the original plan. He said if congress buckled down to the task it would be possible to pass the bill and adjourn by Aug. 10 or 15.

Move to Adjourn Squelched.

The resolution of Representative Braswell Deen [Dem., Ga.] calling for the house to adjourn was met with swift parliamentarian moves by administration leaders.

Hardly had Deen offered the resolution when Representative John J. O'Connor [Dem., N. Y.] moved to lay it on the table. This blocked a move by Deen to have the resolution referred to a committee from which it could have been reported out by a petition signed by a majority of the members.

After the motion had been carried by a rising vote, 111 to 48, a roll call was demanded. The motion to table was carried overwhelmingly, 259 to 86. Members who had yelled the loudest yesterday in approval of Deen's suggestion of an early adjournment lined up with the administration when a record vote loomed. The total against adjournment was swelled by a few Republicans who have pet measures they hoped to put over at this session.

Faced Delays Under Rules.

Veterans pointed out that Deen's resolution never had a chance, anyway. Even if referred to a committee and the committee later discharged by popular petition, delays under the complicated house rules would have postponed any possible action until Sept. 9, it was calculated. Even the most pessimistic congressman is hopeful of adjournment before that date.

The vote was preceded by an appeal to the members from Representative Clifton A. Woodrum, Virginia Democrat.

"I agree 100 per cent with the gentleman from Georgia that congress ought speedily to adjourn," he said. "But if I interpret the applause correctly it is an expression of sympathy with the sentiment rather than an expression of your intentions."

Begins to "Raise Hell."

After the house decided not to adjourn after all, it suddenly yielded to an impulse to indulge in what one member described as "old-fashioned hell raising."

The impression given fascinated observers in the galleries was that they were watching a gang of unruly boys, kept "after school," who decided to wreck the schoolhouse in revenge against authority.

The audience was able to give full credit to the oft repeated assertion that congress is nervous, weary, and supremely anxious to get away from the tedious business of law making after six and one-half months of steady legislating.

For a few minutes after a proposal to adjourn next week had been defeated, the members relaxed sullenly

COURT ANNULS RYAN MARRIAGE AS TITLE SALE

Calls Countess Pawn in Wealth Plot.

New York, July 16.—[Special.]—In granting an annulment of Clendenin J. Ryan Jr.'s marriage to the Countess Marie Ann von Wurmbrand-Stuppach of Austria, Supreme Court Justice Salvatore A. Cotillo today pictured the bride as the willing "pawn" of a group of crafty European gold-diggers. Incidentally the hearing produced burning messages between the countess and her European suitor.

The justice condemned marriages of rich Americans with titled foreigners. He referred, without use of names, to the marriages of Barbara Hutton, five-and-ten-cent store heiress, to a European prince and a count.

Calls Such Weddings Mistake.

"The records of our courts and the public press," Justice Cotillo said, "afford ample proof that alliances between Americans of either sex with titled foreigners are fraught with peril and almost invariably end in disaster.

"Great publicity has recently been given to the affairs of one of our American heiresses who contracted a marriage with one member of the 'foreign nobility' [a prince] and within a short time applied to the divorce courts of Reno to dissolve that alliance in order that she might immediately contract a second of the same kind.

"She did not permit the ink to become dry on the divorce papers before her second foreign entanglement arrived on board ship and a second marriage was immediately entered into."

Opposes Title Buying Custom.

The judge opposed a situation that made "our marriage institutions and our courts mere incidents to the purchase and sale of foreign titles."

The judge added:

"While it is not the province of the courts to attempt to regulate the affairs of the rich or the poor, save in specific cases brought before them, the increasing number of cases of this character which are being brought emphasizes the fact that international alliances based on nothing more than the possession of wealth by one party and of title or claim to noble lineage on the other, are doomed to failure and invariably end in litigation of a character that does not add to the prestige of our American culture or civilization.

Would Curb Gold Digging.

"The American courts are eager and solicitous to uphold the contracts of marriages, but foreign adventurers and adventuresses should be discouraged by our courts from seeking to make the sacred contract of marriage a mere contract of purchase and sale of decadent titles of nobility and making a mockery of the sanctity of the marriage vow."

In his finding of facts behind the marriage of the Countess von Wurmbrand-Stuppach and Mayor La Guardia's $3,600 a year secretary, who has a contingent interest in a $9,000,000 trust from his father, Thomas Fortune Ryan, Justice Cotillo remarked:

"It is undoubtedly true that the defendant [the countess was only 19 when she married Mr. Ryan on Feb. 20, 1934] was young in years at least and was used as a pawn in a game which originated in the minds of older and craftier schemers."

Among these schemers Justice Cotillo enumerated the bride's mother, the Countess May von Wurmbrand-Stuppach, and a former suitor, Count Wladmir Mittrowsky, for whom Mr. Ryan's bride was pictured as having "an infatuation which rendered impossible any real or honest affection for a husband."

Marriage as Financial Deal.

In the case cablegrams were cited as having been sent by the countess to Mittrowsky, deploring her marriage as a means to refinance her family. The judge said the countess had told Ryan he was free to go to other women, she to other men. The court said this of the marriage:

"She was successful so far as the desired marriage was concerned, but like most attempts to produce the 'perfect crime,' the scheme failed of success in the very particular for which it was designed."

Returns Wedding Gifts.

The countess bride, according to the evidence, returned to Tiffany's the gorgeous wedding presents sent by Ryan's socially prominent friends and bought in exchange a wrist watch for her European lover, Wladimir.

On the very day of her marriage, when she cabled Mittrowsky of her love and walked down the aile of St. Patrick's "blinded by tears," she had the 5th avenue jewelers inscribe on her gift to Mittrowsky, in German, the words, "I'm with you every hour."

And in the background, writing al-

MAYOR TO URGE BICYCLE PATHS IN PARKS TODAY

Mayor Kelly will appear before the Chicago park board at 11 o'clock this morning to present a petition with 156,000 signatures asking for bicycle paths in the city parks. The mayor will head a committee of 100, including the Rt. Rev. Bernard J. Sheil, auxiliary bishop of Chicago, and H. P. John Hansen, Chicago secretary of the League of American Wheelmen.

Hansen estimates there are more than 250,000 cyclists in Chicago and asserts that 100 miles of cycle paths could be made available in the park district at nominal expense.

According to Hansen, representatives of 10 cycling clubs will meet at Congress street and Michigan avenue at 10 o'clock this morning and parade to the park administration building in Burnham park.

Refuses Seat to Woman; Citizenship Papers Held Up

New York, July 16.—(AP)—Victor Levy, 38, who came to this country from Russia in 1930, was waiting in Federal court here today for a hearing on his citizenship papers. A bailif asked him to give his seat to a woman unable to find a place to sit. Levy refused, became abusive and was removed from the room. So Judge Clarence C. Galston held up approval of Levy's papers for six months.

Lie Detector Fails to Shake Murder Story

Two hours of questioning under the lie detector yesterday failed to shake the story of Mrs. Blanche Dunkel that she was not present at the murder of her son-in-law, Ervin Lang, for whose slaying she has confessed having paid $100 of an agreed price of $500.

Mrs. Dunkel was questioned in the crime detection laboratory of Northwestern university under the supervision of F. E. Inbau, assistant director. Among the 70 questions she was asked pertaining to the crime were several as to whether she had been intimate with her son-in-law, and whether she was present when the murder was committed or when the body was dismembered.

Stands by Her First Story.

Mrs. Dunkel under the lie detector insisted that she was not a witness to the murder, repeating her original statement that the killing was accomplished by Mrs. Evelyn Smith in her flat at 731 Barry avenue. The Smith woman then cut off the legs and disposed of them and the body with the help of her Chinese husband, Harry Jung, according to Mrs. Dunkel. Mrs. Smith and Jung are being hunted.

The mother in law stuck to her often told story that she was not in love with Lang, but ordered him killed because he was unfaithful to the memory of his wife, Mrs. Dunkel's daughter, who died last December.

Inbau said that the lie detector indicated that Mrs. Dunkel was telling the truth, but he added that "she might have been holding something back."

Version of Taxi Driver.

Further corroboration of Mrs. Dunkel's story that she was not with Mrs. Smith and Jung at the time of the murder was supplied by Harry Lernar, a Checker cab driver. Lernar said he picked up Mrs. Dunkel at Clark and Center streets at 2:30 a. m. on July 6, the day of the killing, and drove her to Jung's laundry at 3251 Armitage avenue.

"Jung came out and got in the cab and I then drove them to Clark street and Barry avenue," Lernar said. "There the Chinese got out and I then took Mrs. Dunkel to her home at 1212 Waveland avenue. She did not once get out of the cab."

This apparently places Mrs. Dunkel away from the scene of the crime, according to Lieut. Otto Erlanson of the police homicide squad.

Hunt for Smith Woman.

The search for Mrs. Smith and her husband was spurred yesterday by the report of Joseph Achilles, 629 Prairie avenue, Glen Ellyn, a salesman for Lyon & Healy, that he had seen a man and woman corresponding to their description at Fifth avenue and Washington boulevard in Maywood.

Achilles said he pursued the couple's automobile—a 1929 Ford coupe—for two miles, but was outdistanced, then reported the matter to Chief of Police Arthur Leeseberg of Melrose Park.

Police Learn of Daughter.

Investigators learned that Mrs. Smith may be the mother of a blond girl whose age was estimated at 10 years and they sought trace of the child in the hope that this trail might lead them to the mother.

The information about the supposed daughter came from Louis Frank, 63 years old, a tailor at 112 West Goethe street. He told Chief of Detectives John L. Sullivan that in 1932 and 1933 Jung operated a laundry at 110 West Goethe street and lived in the rear of the place with Mrs. Smith.

Once a week, Frank said, Mrs. Smith brought the girl, supposed to be a child by a previous marriage, to the laundry for a visit. The city board of health closed the place in 1933, Frank declared.

HITLER'S ASPARAGUS EATING SENDS SIX TO CONCENTRATION CAMP

BERLIN, July 16.—(AP)—Six Heidelberg students, allegedly guilty of lese majesty in its modern German form, are expiating their frivolous behavior in a concentration camp, the Nazi weekly Landpost reported today.

Instead of listening reverently to the broadcast of a speech by Adolf Hitler, the six sons of aristocratic families made unseemly noises, it was charged, and started a farcical discussion of how der fuehrer ate asparagus.

Their antics caused a two year suspension of the famous Saxoborussian fraternity, but the Nazi press started a clamor for more drastic punishment. The Landpost reported: "These young sprigs of aristocracy have been transferred to another educational establishment where black shirted warders are teaching them both manners and manual labor."

Child Falls Out, Auto Smashes Store; None Hurt

Louis Mowen, 30 years old, 580 27th street, Zion, made a sudden left turn with his automobile last night at Genesee and Water streets in Waukegan. The rear door swung open and his niece, Jane Larkin, 6 years old, of Detroit, was flung onto the pavement. Mowen leaped from the machine to pick up the child and the car continued on through the plate glass window of a drug store. Neither the girl nor any one in the store was injured.

Police Boat for Sale, but Nobody Wants a Police Boat

The city of Joliet tried yesterday to sell its police boat, for which $1,200 was paid in 1933, to buy a new squad car, but there were no customers. No one has answered advertisements for bids on the craft. Pollution of the Des Plaines river and of the waterway have caused a sharp drop in pleasure navigation, thus removing the need of a police water patrol, it was explained.

Mayor Picks Maj. Lohr to Manage Fair

Maj. Lenox R. Lohr, general manager of A Century of Progress, today will be offered the position of manager of the proposed permanent Chicago fair to be built and maintained on Northerly Island in Burnham park. This announcement was made yesterday by Mayor Kelly, who hopes to obtain $13,000,000 in federal funds to launch the exposition.

At the same time the Chicago park board adopted a resolution which brought the fair a step closer to reality. The commissioners voted to petition Edward J. Hughes, secretary of state, for authority to transfer 180 acres of Burnham park to the exposition authority as provided in the law passed by the legislature.

Shows "We Mean Business."

Mayor Kelly said yesterday that he would confer with Maj. Lohr later on matters of salary and policy if the latter is to accept the post.

"I want to get such a man as Maj. Lohr for the position," the mayor said. "If he accepts it will show the people that we mean business and will insure a good exposition."

The mayor has expressed confidence that he will be able to obtain the loan of $13,000,000 either from the Works Progress administration or the Public Works administration. Under the enabling legislation passed at Springfield, the fair commission is given authority to vote bonds to defray expenses for opening the exposition. This money is to be paid back out of proceeds of the fair.

Will Name Commission of Ten.

Before the deal under which the fair site is to be obtained can be completed, the fair commission of 10 members must be appointed by the mayor. This commission and the newly chosen manager will then confer with the park board on details of the lease to be drawn.

Mayor Kelly reiterated yesterday his ideas of what the fair should offer to Chicagoans and visitors. The proposed exposition is to combine educational exhibitions with recreation facilities. The industries and arts are to be represented, and there are to be theaters, cafés, beaches, and boating.

Lohr Withholds His Decision.

Maj. Lohr said yesterday that he was "flattered" by the mayor's announcement. He said, however, that he would withhold his decision on accepting the position until he confers with the mayor today.

At a meeting of the executive committee of A Century of Progress in the Blackstone hotel yesterday, Maj. Lohr announced that all but $24,000 has been paid of $15,000,000 due the corporation from private concessionaires during the two years the fair operated. State and municipal governments, however, still owe $60,000 of $493,000 originally due, he said.

SUES TO RECOVER $4,300 STOLEN IN FLAT BURGLARY

Mrs. Carl Hillman, 1730 North La Salle street, filed suits yesterday in the Circuit and Municipal courts to recover $4,300 taken from her apartment in a burglary on July 9. The alleged burglars [Joseph Rosen, 25 years old, and his wife, Jean, 21] are in the county jail awaiting trial.

The Circuit court suit asks judgment of $1,250 against the Western Union Telegraph company. The bill charges that the Rosens deposited this sum with the telegraph company to be sent to Polly Adler, described as the operator of vice resorts in New York City.

The Adler woman was arrested when she called for the money. Mrs. Hillman has notified the company that the money is hers, the suit charges, but it has not been returned to her.

A replevin suit was filed in the Municipal court to recover "a certain sum" of money in Rosen's possession at the time he was arrested. The money is now in the hands of police, and Mrs. Hillman holds that it belongs to her.

PROCESS TAXES OUTLAWED; TWO BLOWS IN 2 DAYS

But Senate Sticks to Price Fixing.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., July 16.—[Special.]—The New Deal rocked today under a bombardment of court decisions holding the devices and practices of two more of its principal institutions unconstitutional.

New Dealers in the administration and in congress struggled to cope with the decision of the federal Circuit Court of Appeals at Boston today, holding the AAA an unconstitutional use of the taxing power, and the Cincinnati federal Circuit Court of Appeals decision yesterday holding unconstitutional the condemnation of land by the PWA in Louisville for slum clearance.

The Boston decision outlawing the AAA was no less sweeping than the Supreme court decision that destroyed the NRA, the other twin in the New Deal family.

Confusion for New Deal.

With injunctions raining upon the AAA in all parts of the country, great confusion prevails in the inner circles of the New Deal.

The Boston decision furnished new ammunition to the anti-New Dealers in the senate, who are fighting the amendments to put new teeth in the AAA and circumvent constitutional weaknesses. By a margin of only 2 votes were the administration forces able to put over the committee amendment authorizing the secretary of agriculture to fix the resale prices of the commodities involved, chiefly fruits, vegetables and milk. The vote was 40 to 38. The question will recur again on motion by Senator Harry F. Byrd [Dem., Va.], leading anti-New Dealer.

The White House was silent on the adverse developments. The department of justice announced that it would appeal to the Supreme court at once from the Boston decision and that the case would be argued before Christmas.

Expect Supreme Court Defeat.

An adverse decision by the Supreme court is generally expected, despite efforts in the pending amendments to plug up the loopholes. President Roosevelt himself volunteered the opinion that the Supreme court decision in the NRA case renders questionable the constitutionality of the AAA.

AAA officials went into a huddle upon hearing the bad news from Boston and came out of it saying that the AAA program would be continued pending the Supreme court decision. Chester Davis, agricultural adjustment administrator, said he had expected the Boston decision to be adverse.

"That section around Boston is a hotbed of resistance to the processing taxes," he said. "Why, it's right up there among all those cotton manufacturers."

The federal Circuit Court of Appeals at Cincinnati tomorrow will hear appeals from three Cleveland injunction suits against the AAA. More than 200 suits to enjoin collection of the AAA processing taxes have been instituted. Processors generally are seeking injunctions against collection of the taxes. If they pay the taxes and the act is held unconstitutional they will not be able to recover under a provision of the pending amendments prohibiting recovery suits.

Collections Off 50 Per Cent.

The collection of processing taxes has fallen off more than 50 per cent. Only 4 million dollars has been collected since the institution of the injunction suits.

At his press conference Secretary Ickes said the housing division of the PWA is fully prepared to develop a new type of slum clearance and low rent housing to meet the restrictions by the Louisville decision. He asserted there will be no halting of the program, although it may be curtailed seriously in some sections.

He pointed out that there are two methods of procedure which can be followed to keep within the court decision. One is coöperation with state or municipal authorities to permit local condemnation proceedings and the other is direct purchase of land by the federal government without condemnation proceedings.

"Whether the decision will be appealed has not yet been decided," Ickes said.

Senate Votes Price Fixing.

Meantime the senate voted, 40 to 33, today to retain price fixing in the AAA amendment bill.

The senate's approval of the committee's price fixing amendment followed another afternoon of violent debate in which not only price fixing schemes but the moral implications of the bill, in view of the Boston Appellate court decision, were denounced. Senator Millard E. Tydings [Dem., Md.] led the onslaught with a declaration that the power to fix minimum prices would entail the power to fix maximum prices.

"I venture to say that there is not one agriculturist on the floor who will rise and say that he is in favor of fixing maximum prices on the products of the soil," the Maryland senator declared. "There is no agricultural representative here who will advocate that farm products should have a maximum price. Ah, no, they are embracing this particular sophism upon the theory that always the price is going to be the minimum price; and if it is carried out and the courts hold it to be constitutional, which I have no doubt they will not, we shall live to see the day when the price fixing bill will not be the kind of price fixing which they think is going to apply.

May Return to Damn Farmers.

"We are passing upon this bill as if it were emergency legislation. If we start this business of price fixing and the courts hold it to be constitutional, aside from any legal arguments that may be made against it now, its very philosophy will come down to damn you a thousand times over in the course of five, ten, or fifteen years.

"Once the government enters upon fixing prices for everything its people produce, we have all the labor troubles and all the class troubles laid right here on the doorstep of congress."

Senator Louis Murphy [Dem., Ia.] said there was something damning the country now, something that had been damning it for a number of years.

"In 1929 the national income was 82 billion dollars" he said. "Of that amount, the farmers, constituting one-fourth of the national population, received 10 per cent. Thirty million of our people got only 10 per cent of the national wealth produced. That is what is damning this country and this bill is an effort to correct it.

Wants Redistribution of Wealth.

"Somebody is getting the wealth as the result of the farmer's labor, as a result of what he produces. How can we stop that? How can we begin a real distribution of wealth, which should begin at the grass roots, which should begin at the point of production? When shall we begin that?"

Senator Murphy said he was not advocating price fixing as a permanent policy, that his philosophy was so much like that of Senator Tydings he would urge it only as a temporary expedient.

"My philosophy," said Senator Tydings, "is that the depression is fundamental and any superstructure that we build on top of it is not going to cure it. We have got to get back to fundamentals and straighten them out and get the old foundation solidified. It will be a slow process and it is the longest way round, but we will get through much more quickly than by walking these substitute illusory mirage roads which invite us with so much gusto."

Barkley Seeks "a Fundamental."

Senator Alben W. Barkley [Dem., Ky.], keynoter of the 1932 Democratic convention and star apologist for the New Deal, interrupted to say: "We are always being told that we should get back to fundamentals.

"No one," he said, "has yet explained what is the fundamental to which he wants us to get back."

Senator Tydings started to reply, but he was interrupted by Senator Henry F. Ashurst [Dem., Ariz.], another loyal supporter of the administration, who surprised Mr. Barkley.

"Will the senator let me give one of the fundamentals?" he asked.

"A bill before us provides that no citizen shall have the right to inquire in court as to whether money heretofore taken from him was taken lawfully or not. It is seriously proposed to tax the citizen and not permit him to go into court to test the validity of the tax.

Forbids Victim to Writhe.

"When the wild Indians captured a prisoner and tied him to the stake and tortured him they allowed the prisoner to cry and writhe. We propose to torture the American taxpayer and not give him the right to cry out and writhe. One fundamental is to allow the taxpayer at least that right."

"Even where we would place the tax upon an innumerable multitude of people?" asked Barkley.

"Certainly, the court should determine the question," Ashurst replied. "In other words, we ought not to write a book and close it up and say, 'Into this you shall not read. Our actions shall not be reviewed by the courts. We are the people. We are the knowledge. No court must presume to inquire into our activities.'"

Compared to Bank Robbery.

Barkley suggested that Senator Tydings would follow a policy of doing nothing, so that "wheat would be selling at 40 cents instead of 80, pork at 3 cents instead of 8, and tobacco at 5 cents instead of 15 or 20 cents."

Tydings likened this argument to the robbing of a bank by four men who got $100 each.

"One man speaks up and says 'I am sorry we robbed that bank,'" he said. "Another speaks up and says 'Are you not $100 better off for the moment?'"

As Senator Tydings concluded he waved a newspaper and asserted, "Even as I speak, the processing taxes have been held unconstitutional."

Called "Not Binding."

Senator Norris immediately arose to protest that the decision of the Boston Circuit Court of Appeals "was not binding."

"Even if it is held unconstitutional by the Supreme court," he said, "the amendments in this bill are intended to meet that very objection. The decision of the Boston court will have nothing whatsoever to do with this bill."

Senator Lester J. Dickinson [Rep., Ia.] contended that if the Supreme court upheld the Boston court on the grounds that congress had unlawfully delegated legislative powers and usurped the powers of the states in an effort to regulate production, the pending bill "obviously would be held unconstitutional on the same two grounds."

RULE AAA TAXES ILLEGAL

AAA TAX DECISION HAS LITTLE EFFECT IN CHIEF MARKETS

The decision of the United States Court of Appeals in Boston declaring unconstitutional the AAA processing taxes had little immediate effect on commodity prices in the principal markets yesterday. The prices quoted in the wheat and cotton markets do not include the processing levies on these commodities. It is the consumer of these commodities who, according to the law, is assessed the tax which is added to the price which the processor gets.

The final effect of the removal of processing taxes, in the opinion of market experts, will be to boost commodity prices somewhat. The high prices which the consumers now pay have served to reduce demand. If the additional tax levy is removed consumers will be encouraged to buy more freely, it is contended.

Sugar, which has probably benefited more from the AAA program than any other commodity, was weak yesterday. In the futures market in New York prices declined 7 to 9 points with the September contract quoted at 2.29 cents a pound.

In Chicago wheat was unchanged while hog prices advanced on an active trade. The best grade hogs sold at the highest prices in the last eight years. Cotton prices showed losses of about $1 a bale in the principal markets. While some of the selling in cotton was attributed to the uncertainity over the future of the AAA, the lack of commercial demand was seen as the main factor in the market decline.

Works Hours Over Body on Beach; It's His Son

New York, July 16.—(AP)—The crowd around the body of the boy lying on the beach made way for Dr. Nicholas Arabian.

The doctor peeled off his coat and for four hours calmly used every ounce of his professional skill.

He finally pronounced the 16 year old boy dead.

A policeman asked if any one could identify the body.

"I can," said the doctor, "it's my son, Nubar."

Two Chicago Doctors Get Fellowships for Research

Dr. Robert A. Bussabarger of the Northwestern university medical school and Dr. Clayton G. Loosli of the University of Chicago medical department have been awarded Jessie Horton Koessler fellowships of $500 each for research, it was announced yesterday by the Institute of Medicine.

FINED $25 FOR SHORT WEIGHT.

Municipal Judge Erwin J. Hasten fined Herman Messer, owner of a meat market at 5024 Broadway, $25 yesterday for shortages of two ounces on each of three purchases made by deputy city sealers.

WOMEN LOTTERY PROPONENTS WIN IN POSTAL RULING

New York, July 16.—(AP)—Mrs. Oliver Harriman, New York society leader, gained ground today in her movement to legalize lotteries in the United States.

The postoffice department in Washington ruled that the membership drive and "slogan sweepstakes" being promoted by the national conference on legalizing lotteries was all right, but that it must comply with postal lottery statutes.

Mrs. Harriman, who is president of the conference, spent a half hour in conference with Assistant District Attorney Aaron A. Feinberg discussing the organization, which had been under investigation as a result of its slogan contest.

The contest—or lottery—is known as the Slogan sweepstakes. For $1, any one can submit a title to a poster painted by Howard Chandler Christy and become eligible for prizes ranging from $10,000 to $40, at the same time being enrolled as a member of the lottery organization. Excess funds will be used toward obtaining legal sanction for lotteries. A membership of 100,000 is the goal.

MRS. ROOSEVELT STARTS INQUIRY; BROKER GIVES UP

New York, July 16.—[Special.]—Max Strahl, 32, a handsome and ingratiating broker known along Broadway, surrendered today at the office of Assistant Attorney General Joseph F. Ruggieri and was arrested on a charge of grand larceny.

He is accused of running brokerage houses which switched customers from good stocks to almost worthless mining shares, defrauding, among others, a woman who was a close friend of Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, whose complaint, among others, started the inquiry.

The total involved in the cases under investigation approaches $250,000.

He is under indictment in Hudson, N. Y., for grand larceny of $25,000 from Mrs. Roosevelt's friend, Mrs. Blanche I. Mackey of Kinderhook, N. Y. In addition he was charged today with grand larceny of $51,000 from Mrs. Agnes M. Fleer, a widow of Richmond Hill.

THREE RUSSIANS TO FLY TO U. S. VIA NORTH POLE

MOSCOW, July 16.—(AP)—A single motored Russian plane will attempt to fly nonstop from Moscow to San Francisco by way of the north pole as soon as weather conditions are favorable. This was officially announced tonight.

The plane's crew of three will be headed by the noted pilot Sigmund Levaneffsky. The proposed itinerary will carry the plane over Banks' Land [a large island of the Arctic archipelago of North America], Fort Simpson, Mackenzie, Canada, Vancouver city, and San Francisco. Pilot Levaneffsky will be accompanied by Co-Pilot Baibukoff and Navigator Levchenko.

The United States already has given official permission for the ship to fly over its territory. Great Britain has been asked for similar permission.

Author-Traveler Warns Against Regimentation

Warned by the state of affairs under European dictators, Americans should wage a valiant fight against government regimentation in this country, Miss Melinda Alexander of New York, author, playwright and traveler, said yesterday at a luncheon meeting of the Rotary club in the Sherman hotel.

"We will have to choose," she said, "whether or not we want a regimented society under which men and women will be slaves of the government."

COURT DECISION BLOW FOR AAA ON EVERY POINT

Whole Farm Policy Is Knocked Out.

Boston, Mass., July 16.—[Special.]—The processing tax and floor taxes of the agricultural adjustment act, considered the backbone of the New Deal administration's pet statute, were declared unconstitutional today by the United States Circuit court of Appeals.

The court not only ruled unconstitutional the power under which nearly a billion dollars in processing taxes had been collected, but also expressed the opinion that congress has attempted to invade a field over which it has no control.

By a two to one decision the court found that congress had no authority to regulate products which were in the control of the state: that the tax was an improper delegation of power, and that if the charge was a tax it was a direct tax, not apportioned, or if an excise tax it was not uniform.

Covers Hoosac Mills Case.

The decision was handed down in the appeal of the receivers of the Hoosac Mills corporation from a District court ruling refusing to order the government to return $81,694 collected.

In the course of the decision the court said:

"The power of congress to regulate interstate commerce does not authorize it to do so by taking products either of agriculture or industry before they enter interstate commerce, or otherwise to control their production merely because their production may indirectly affect interstate commerce.

Refers to Schechter Case.

"It is clear, we think, that under the recent decision of the Supreme court in the Schechter Poultry corporation case decided on May 27, 1935, that congress at the outset has attempted to invade a field over which it has no control, since its obvious purpose, viz: to control or regulate the production of agricultural products in the several states by the methods adopted in this act, is beyond the power of congress."

Other salient paragraphs in the decision:

"The issue is not, as the government contends, whether congress can appropriate funds raised by general taxation for any purpose deemed by congress in furtherance of the 'general welfare,' but whether congress has any power to control or regulate matters left to the states, and lay a special tax for that purpose." The court also finds that the federal government "is a government of enumerated powers, and congress cannot delegate legislative powers to the executive department."

"While the courts have always shown a desire to sustain, if possible, acts of congress, they have recognized the limitations imposed on congress in this respect under the constitution."

Not an Administrative Power.

"The power to determine what the law shall be, what property shall be affected by taxation or regulation, and what standards shall govern the administrative officers in administering acts of congress, has never been held to be an administrative function.

"The power to impose a tax and to determine what property shall bear the tax can only be determined by the legislative department of the government."

"If congress has the power to control or regulate the production of agricultural products within the several states, and assess a tax on their processing or sale for that purpose, it is obviously legislative in character.

"Has congress set up any definite standard for the secretary's action in making rental or benefit payments to producers and thereby imposing a processing tax? We find no definite, intelligible standard set up in the act for determining when the secretary shall pay rental or benefit payments in order to reduce production of any particular commodity, except his own judgment as to what will effectuate the purpose of the act."

Decision Stirs Textile Mills to New Activity

Boston, Mass., July 16.—[Special.]—Allowing no grass to grow under their feet, leaders of the New England cotton textile industry, cheered by the decision outlawing AAA cotton processing taxes, tonight already were making a strong bid for new business based on the expectancy of stiff opposition to payment of any further processing taxes.

Dozens of New England mill executives were reported "in New York on business" as they sought in the metropolitan cotton market to mend the fences which they claimed had been damaged by the processing tax. Many of them were too busy selling goods to talk, but Dexter Stevens, chairman of the northern cotton mills policy committee, issued a fighting statement typical of the general view.

In reply to the announcement of Chester Davis, AAA administrator, that the decision would be appealed to the United States Supreme court, Stevens, who is president of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers, said New England industry "accepts the challenge of Washington burocrats."

"We want this threat to the industrial stability of New England removed once and for all," he said.

"If there is no appeal we can now go ahead and I am looking forward to a good business year for Fall River," said James Sinclair, president of the Fall River Cotton Manufacturers' association.

"Elimination of the tax will regulate prices and we will not have price cutting in the future. From now on we can expect people to buy for their requirements. The people should endeavor to buy New England-made goods, as it will help us all."

"If an appeal is taken we must wait. But if the decision of the U. S. court is allowed to stand it will mean the lifting of millions in taxes that the industry has been paying," said Frank W. Dunham, secretary of the Fall River Chamber of Commerce.

FARLEY HOST TO PARTY SENATORS IN OWN HAUNTS

Washington, D. C., July 16.—(AP)—Postmaster General Farley, the administration's patronage dispenser, held an informal reception for Democratic senators today in an office just off the senate chamber.

Entertained at luncheon by Edwin A. Halsey, secretary of the senate, Farley spent a couple of hours with a long line of senators discussing their various patronage problems and difficulties. Among those chatting with him were Vice President Garner and senators Robinson [Dem., Ark.], Harrison [Dem., Miss.], Wagner [Dem., N. Y.], and McKellar [Dem., Tenn.].

Farley originally planned to leave on a vacation trip to Hawaii Monday.

NORTH DAKOTA'S SALES TAX FOES ADMIT DEFEAT

Fargo, N. D., July 16.—(AP)—Opponents of the North Dakota 2 per cent sales tax today conceded defeat as late returns continued to favor the measurer.

When 1,615 out of 2,242 precincts had reported on yesterday's referendum election on the emergency measure the vote stood: For, 57,786 against, 54,443.

The shift in sentiment was recorded dramatically as returns neared the two-thirds mark. Early returns had indicated overwhelming disapproval of the proposal.

HOLD UP THREE IN SHOE STORE.

Two robbers yesterday held up the manager and two clerks of a Father and Son shoe store at 3156 Lincoln avenue and escaped with $30.

Wilmette to Keep Street Lights On All Night Long

The village board of Wilmette last night ordered the street lights of the village kept on throughout the night and early morning. Previously the lights were turned off at 1:30 a. m. on week days and at 2:30 a. m. Sundays.

Field Arch Preservers

And that "three-point landing" is a very important point to men of maturing years and increased weight! Nature designed your foot to carry the weight on the heel, the ball, and the outside of the foot. But when man ceased to hunt with a bow and arrow and came indoors those points of contact were forgotten, and shoes were often built that ignored this fundamental fact in their construction. One of the reasons so many men find foot relief in Field Arch Preservers is that they're built to carry the weight on these three points, and to distribute properly the stress and strain on delicate bones and muscles. Come in today—any one of our trained shoe men will be glad to explain how Arch Preservers work.

SEXTON NAMED TO HELP DRAFT CAR ORDINANCE

Hodes to Succeed Him as Corporation Counsel.

Mayor Kelly took another step last night in his campaign to rehabilitate the public transit facilities in Chicago. He announced the appointment of Corporation Counsel William H. Sexton as special attorney for the traction subcommittee of the city council, which during the day began preparations for drafting a new ordinance to govern the transportation lines in the city.

At the same time the Chicago Rapid Transit company [elevated lines] made public its proposals for carrying out a recent order of the Illinois commerce commission, calling for establishment of a system of transfers between the elevated and the surface lines. The movement for such a system was initiated by Mayor Kelly shortly after he took office.

In disclosing the selection of Mr. Sexton as traction counsel for the city, the mayor also announced the appointment of Barnet Hodes, at present a member of the Illinois tax commission, to succeed Sexton in the office of corporation counsel. The two appointments will go to the city council for confirmation next Monday.

Both Men Needed, Mayor Says.

Mayor Kelly said that both Mr. Sexton and Mr. Hodes are experienced and capable of performing their new duties. Sexton's salary will be $20,000 a year. Hodes will receive $15,000, minus the economy pay cut in effect for all city employés.

Mr. Sexton, who lives at 190 East Chestnut street, was corporation counsel in three terms of Mayor Carter H. Harrison II. He resigned in 1914 and from 1922 to 1925 was special traction counsel for the city. In 1931 he was again appointed corporation counsel by Mayor Cermak and has since served in that capacity.

Hodes, one of the youngest public officials in the state, was born in Poland in 1900. He came to this country as a boy. In 1921 he received his law degree from Northwestern university. From 1923 to 1927 he was an assistant corporation counsel and from 1931 to 1933 he served as alderman for the 7th ward. After his aldermanic term he was appointed to the state tax commission. He lives at 7017 Jeffery avenue.

Group to Draft Ordinance.

The traction subcommittee with which Mr. Sexton will serve was appointed on Monday. Its chairman is Ald. B. A. Cronson [4th]. The group's function is to prepare an ordinance providing for the unification of the transit lines and wide improvement of service to the public.

The way was opened for this development by the legislature which in its recent session passed Mayor Kelly's bill to give Chicago home rule over its transportation systems. Under the provisions of this law, which will become effective if approved in a public referendum at the primary election next spring, the city would be able to establish competing lines with transit services that are not satisfactory and to control the use of streets by all transportation companies.

The surface and elevated lines are now operating under an extension of the 1907 ordinance.

Transfer Plan of "L."

Col. A. A. Sprague and Britton I. Budd, receivers for the elevated lines, gave out the proposals of this company for compliance with the transfer order of the state commerce commission. Their statement listed the elevated stations where riders would be permitted to transfer from "L" trains to street cars or from street cars to "L" trains on the payment of one 10 cent fare. These stations are:

EVANSTON LINE—Loyola, Granville, Lawrence, Wilson, Sheridan Road, Clark, Belmont, Fullerton, Chicago.

LOGAN SQUARE LINE—Logan Square, California, Western, Damen.

RAVENSWOOD LINE—Kimball, Kedzie, Western, Damen, Montrose, Irving Park, Paulina.

DOUGLAS PARK LINE — Crawford, Kedzie, Western.

GARFIELD PARK LINE — Central, Cicero, Crawford, Kedzie, Western, Halsted.

LAKE STREET LINE—Central, Laramie, Cicero, Crawford, Kedzie, Oakley, Halsted.

JACKSON PARK LINE—Jackson Park, South Park, Fifty-first, Forty-seventh, Forty-third, Cottage Grove, Indiana, Roosevelt.

ENGLEWOOD LINE—Loomis, Racine, Wentworth, Halsted, State.

NORMAL PARK LINE—Sixty-ninth.

Under the plan a passenger who rode on the elevated and transferred to a street car could not transfer back to the "L" on the same fare. The transfer would permit travel in the same general direction.

The elevated lines have been alone in their plans to comply with the transfer program. The surface lines have filed a motion for a rehearing before the commerce commission and are expected to fight the order.

WANT AD FINDS GROUNDHOG

*James Kellett, 19 years old, who found and returned a pet groundhog to its owner, Mrs. Mary Little, 8045 South Aberdeen street. He is handing the animal to Alexandria Little, daughter of the owner. ### Lost Pet Back Home

Ten months ago Mrs. Mary Little, 8045 Aberdeen street, found a fat, silver speckled groundhog in the Wisconsin woods and brought it home for a pet. The groundhog answered to the name of "Chuckles" and became the pal of 4 year old Alberta. Saturday some one left a basement door unlatched and Chuckles disappeared.

After a vain search Mrs. Little inserted a want ad in THE TRIBUNE offering a $25 reward for Chuckles. Monday morning Jimmie Kellett, 19 years old, 325 East 75th street, suddenly bounced out of his chair, THE TRIBUNE in his hand. "Gee!" he cried. "I'll bet she's hunting for that animal I found at 81st and Halsted!"

Down to his cellar he ran, and from an old cage he pulled Chuckles. Mrs. Little now has her pet and Jimmie has $25.

The couple will fly to New York. Stein is from Princeton, 1928.

VOTE IN TEXAS, 14 TO 1, UPHOLDS PRESIDENT'S SON

Fort Worth, July 16.—(AP)—Elliott Roosevelt, dubbed the "crown prince and rubber stamp of the east" by belligerent Texas political foes, retained his executive job with the young Democrats of Texas tonight by decisive action of executive committeemen.

The son of the President was upheld against charges that he had been illegally elected to the organization's first vice presidency. The vote was 14 to 1.

"I know it is unpopular for me to make this move," shouted Phil Overton of Dallas, leader of the anti-Roosevelt forces, "but I contend that Elliott Roosevelt was elected to his position at an executive meeting where a quorum was not in attendance."

"This organization is becoming a rubber stamp," cried Joe Bailey Humphreys of Crockett, former secretary of the executive committee. "We are jumping through the hoop at the command of the man heading the band wagon."

"Young Democrats of Texas should voice their appreciation to Elliott Roosevelt for his coöperation and loyal service," said Thadd Scott.

KELLY CREDITED WITH PREVENTING HEAVY TAX HIKES

An advance summary of the annual report of the civic federation and bureau of public efficiency, issued yesterday, gives Mayor Kelly credit for cutting down tax increases sought by various local governments during the recent session of the state legislature.

The organization report fixes the total of increases voted to Chicago governments at 74 cents per $100 assessed valuation and said that additional increases amounting to 35 cents were prevented by amendment or defeat of the measures involved.

"Had it not been for the moderation and judgment manifested by Mayor Kelly," read a paragraph of the report made public in the announcement, "it is safe to say there would have been little or no reduction from the maximum tax increases demanded."

REALTY BROKER IS SHOT IN FEUD BY CONTRACTOR

Gunplay at Office After Hearing in $4,000 Suit.

Robert H. Brown, 36 years old, a real estate broker, was shot twice and critically wounded yesterday in the corridor just outside his office on the 17th floor of the Steuben building at 188 West Randolph street. Morris J. Billeck, 1109 North Sacramento boulevard, a former client, who did the shooting, surrendered immediately to police.

At the Lutheran Deaconess hospital Brown was found to have been shot once in the back and once through the abdomen. Dr. M. W. Samuels declared his condition was grave and at once operated to save Brown's life.

Quarrel of Long Standing.

The shooting was the climax of two years of bitter feeling between the men, according to police. Some months ago, Billeck, a plastering contractor, charged that Brown collected a $21,000 mortgage for him, then withheld payment of $4,517 of the sum due. Billeck sued Brown in the Circuit court for an accounting of funds and caused his indictment for embezzlement.

On April 1 in the Criminal court of Judge John C. Lewe a jury found Brown guilty. The judge, however, declared that the jury had misunderstood certain technicalities of the case and granted a new trial which was set for September.

Meanwhile the civil suit, filed in the name of Billeck's son, Joseph, was referred by Circuit Judge Benjamin P. Epstein for hearing before Master in Chancery Samuel B. Epstein. A number of hearings were held.

Confer After Hearing.

After one of these hearings yesterday in the master's office at 1 North La Salle street, Brown and Billeck, accompanied by Attorneys Samuel Golan, Charles Kramer, and Louis O. Soble, went to Brown's offices.

Billeck and the lawyers accompanied Brown, they said later, because they wished to copy a receipt which the real estate man kept in his office. After the copy was completed the three lawyers walked out, leaving Billeck with Brown.

Attorney Golan said Brown walked to the door with Billeck. The latter then drew a revolver and fired once into Brown's back as the broker stepped into the corridor.

Tells Details of Shooting.

"I looked back at the sound of the shot," Golan related, "and I saw Brown on the floor. He was crying 'Help me!' Billeck stood right over him and fired another shot into Brown's stomach. Then he ran down the corridor past me."

Billeck stepped into an adjoining office and awaited the arrival of police there. At the detective bureau he calmly admitted the shooting, making no effort to explain his action other than to say he was disgusted at the failure of all his efforts to get his money.

Attorney Golan said that Billeck and his son beat the broker two weeks ago in the midst of one of the hearings before Master Epstein.

Brown's home is at 1122 Woodbine avenue, Oak Park. He is married and the father of two children.

Thief Asked to Return and Learn to Do Tricks

New York, July 16.—(AP)—A novelty shop in Greenwich street displayed the following note yesterday in what was left of its window: "Will the crook who broke this window and stole the tricks that were in it come back and learn how to do them? They are no good to him unless he knows."

Today there was another note pasted up beside it. "O. K.," it read, "I'll be back later. THE CROOK."

RICH, UNDER BAN FOR RAPE, SEEKS MICHIGAN RETURN

Lansing, Mich., July 16.—[Special.]—The Arthur Rich rape case was a subject for study once more today as members of the Rich family, long prominent residents of Battle Creek, sought to remove a parole restriction which prevents the former life termer from reëntering Michigan.

Rich, son of George R. Rich, wealthy manufacturer, was convicted in 1926 of a brutal criminal assault on Louise King, Battle Creek college student. He was sentenced to life imprisonment in Jackson state penitentiary. The King girl brought civil suit for damages and obtained a $50,000 judgment, later reduced to $25,000 by the court, and paid by Rich's family.

She offered no objections when Fred W. Green, former governor, commuted the sentence to 10 to 20 years and William A. Comstock, one of his successors, approved a recommendation that Rich be released. He was freed under a condition that he remain outside Michigan's boundaries until expiration of his minimum term.

Now the family has launched a new manufacturing project in Battle Creek and the father wishes to have his son associate himself with the new enterprise.

Small Bomb Is Exploded at Cut-rate Milk Place

A small dynamite bomb of the "scare" type was exploded early today in the boiler room at the rear of the Lake Valley Farm Products, Inc., at 5332-34 South Western avenue. Several employés were at work in the front of the plant. Damage was confined to broken bottles. Police said the dairy sold milk at cut-rate prices.

HELD ON $75,000 BONDS.

Judge Matthew D. Hartigan in the felony court set bonds of $75,000 for Edward Kellstrom, 24 years old, an ex-convict, when he held him to the grand jury on robbery charges yesterday.

CONGRESS TO GET SECURITY BILL, LITTLE CHANGED

Conferees End 2 Weeks Debating Pensions.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., July 16.—[Special.]—The senate and house conferees on the New Deal's social security bill, after a deadlock of two weeks, today settled all differences, except the Clark amendment, exempting private pensions systems.

That provision, opposed by the administration leaders but inserted in the senate by a vote of 51 to 35, will come first before the house on a motion to insist on rejecting the senate amendment. The senate's action probably will depend on the vote in the house.

The conferees agreed to place the administration of unemployment insurance, old age pensions, old age annuities, maternal and child welfare assistance, etc., in an independent social security board, instead of in the department of labor, as provided by the senate bill.

The amendment of Senator Russell [Dem., Ga.], providing temporary old age assistance grants to states that have no provisions for matching the federal contributions, was compromised. The government will make no contributions except on a matching basis, but the matching may be done by cities or counties.

The amendment by Senator La Follette [Radical, Wis.], whereby states may permit employers to build up their own unemployment insurance reserves instead of pooling them, was accepted by the house conference committee.

The house committee also accepted a senate amendment under which persons 65 years old or older and eligible for old age assistance will not receive it until they have stopped working.

As reported by the conferees, the unemployment insurance provisions apply to all employers of eight or more persons who have worked 20 weeks or longer.

Wins Seven Month Fight to Resign as Postmaster

Howard L. Scott, postmaster for 20 years at Fox Lake, who has been trying to resign for the last 7 months, turned the office over to his successor, Helmer D. Carlson, yesterday. Mr. Scott was elected recorder of Lake county last December and sought to resign his postmastership immediately so he could devote his attention to the $4,000 a year county job. The postmastership pays $1,800 a year.

TRACE FLOOD OF LOBBY WIRES TO UTILITY CO. AID

"Signers" Lifted Out of Phone Directory.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., July 16.—[Special.]—Charges that a utility company employé dictated 1,300 telegrams to senators and representatives opposing the utility control bill, and signed the messages with names taken from a telephone directory, were laid before a senate investigating committee today.

J. A. Fisher, manager of the Western Union office at Warren, Pa., who told the story of the mass telegrams, added that the originals of more than 1,000 of the messages had later been burned under mysterious circumstances.

R. B. Herron, a bond salesman for the Associated Gas and Electric company, was the man who dictated to him 1,300 protests against the utility bill and signed the protests with lifted names, Fisher told the special senate investigating committee headed by Senator Hugo L. Black [Dem., Ala.].

Ousted for Losing Them.

After the originals of most of the faked messages had been mysteriously burned, his company suspended him without pay until he proved himself innocent of destroying them, Fisher continued. He said he suspected Herron and A. F. Christenson, an operator, of having destroyed the documents.

More than 800 of the telegrams were received by Representative Driscoll [Dem., Pa.], he told the committee. He said his suspicions were aroused when he saw that most of the messages were signed with names beginning with the letters "A," "B," "C," and "D."

Investigation in five cases, Driscoll said, brought either denials from the purported signers that the messages had been sent, or else a report from telegraph or postal authorities that they could not be located.

Knew Few of Names.

"I was attracted," he continued, "by the fact that I knew very few of the people whose names were signed and the large number of signatures in the first letters of the alphabet."

The name of John S. Byer, an old friend, was affixed to one. Driscoll wrote him asking for additional information and received a denial that the telegram had been sent. The same was true in the case of a John Driscoll, he added, while in a third instance, the purported signer, A. R. Kirke, had not been in Warren since April.

From the town of Meadville, he said he received another batch of telegrams, including two pairs of duplicate signatures. He wired to each. One was located with difficulty and neither telegraph nor postal authorities could locate the other.

Defend New Deal Lobby.

The disclosures of Fisher and Representative Driscoll came this afternoon after the house rules committee, which is also investigating lobbying on the utility bill, had heard pro-New Deal congressmen and senators seek to defend the activities of administration henchmen who had lobbied for the utility bill.

Thomas G. Corcoran, placid lobbyist for the White House, smiled contentedly as he heard Senator Burton K. Wheeler [Dem., Mont.] and four representatives defend his activities.

In their contention that Corcoran committed no improprieties the congressmen described the lobbyist's efforts in detail. The brain truster was depicted as pulling strings in both senate and house, writing letters to which representatives signed their names, correcting and revising speeches, "interviewing" senators who wanted information. But in all this there was nothing improper, the congressmen contended.

Wheeler Takes Responsibility.

Senator Wheeler told the committee that he took full responsibility for all Corcoran's actions in the senate.

"When senators came to me asking about the utility bill," he testified, "I sent Corcoran and Cohen [Benjamin Cohen, another attorney-member of the brain trust] around to see them. Anything Tom Corcoran did was done with my knowledge."

Senator Wheeler and Representative Sam Rayburn [Dem., Texas] tacitly admitted that they did not understand sections of the bill bearing their names.

"I had Cohen sit with me on the floor of the senate when the bill was being debated," said Senator Wheeler, "in order that he might advise me if questions I couldn't answer concerning the highly technical bill should be asked.

"I gave Corcoran a clerk and one of my offices," said Rayburn. "And I was responsible for him being in the speaker's lobby. He helped set up charts and diagrams about holding companies."

Representative John E. Rankin [Dem., Miss.] also preferred his charges to the committee that his wires had been tapped, presumably by "power trust" representatives.

"It could have been done easily," he insisted. "I will point out that the telephone company is aligned with the power trust in this fight."

Rankin also admitted that he gave Corcoran a rubber stamp bearing Rankin's signature which was used to sign letters written by the lobbyist.

Protests Pedagogic Missives.

"I don't think some of those letters did you credit," remarked Representative E. E. Cox [Dem., Ga.]. "They gave the impression that congressmen are a lot of dumb and docile persons who know nothing about utility legislation."

Corcoran, one of Prof. Felix Frankfurter's star scholars at Harvard, grinned at this intimation that he had "written down" to the level of representatives.

Senator Wheeler confirmed Corcoran's own statement that Corcoran was a direct emissary of President Roosevelt.

"My first contact with Tom Corcoran came at a conference at the White House where I was asked to introduce the utility bill," Senator Wheeler told the committee. "Corcoran and Cohen worked with me on the bill.

"I knew that the utility people were seeing every senator they could possibly contact and that they were misrepresenting and lying about its provisions. When senators asked me about it I referred them to Corcoran and Cohen."

Needed All Data Available.

Representative Rayburn remarked in his testimony:

"In handling such a bill as the utility bill you need all the expert advice you can get. Corcoran worked with me on the stock exchange bill and I was impressed by him. What he did on Capitol hill was with my knowledge."

"Did you suggest that he try to influence congressmen?" he was asked.

"No, except as he might give information to them," was the answer.

Representative Maury Maverick, the stocky Texas Democrat, admitted freely that Corcoran helped him in writing speeches on the utility bill.

"I wanted a smart man to check up my speech so there wouldn't be any comebacks," he said.

Hill "Lonesome at Night."

"Why were meetings of congressmen held in Corcoran's office?" he was asked.

"It seemed a good place for a night meeting," he answered. "It's sort of lonesome on the Hill at night."

He volunteered a defense of President Roosevelt's use of Corcoran.

"I believe the President has the right to say to congress what he pleases through authorized agents," he declared.

CONGRESS FAILS TO REPAY PERKINS —JAILED BY NRA

Upset of Codes Restores His Business.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., July 16.—[Special.]—One year ago a middle aged man, crippled by neuritis, hobbled out of a jail at York, Pa., into the night, to get his first breath of free air in 18 days. He was Fred C. Perkins, a descendant of Capt. Miles Standish of the Plymouth company, whose efforts to eke a livelihood out of a small wet battery business brought him into conflict with the then powerful New Deal regimentator of industry, the NRA.

Perkins Again Makes Living.

Today, thanks to the United States Supreme court, Perkins is able to operate his small manufacturing business and make a living. But he has received no recompense from the government for his unconstitutional incarceration. During the 18 days in jail Perkins was sandwiched between a counterfeiter and another felon for violation of an NRA code.

In the past, in similar instances of unjust imprisonment, congress has voted bills partially indemnifying victims of unjust laws for the shame and disgrace of prison and for their fight against such laws. These bills are usually introduced by the congressman in whose district the unfortunate resides.

Perkins is represented in congress by Harry L. Haines, a Democrat of Red Lion, Pa. Representative Haines has not introduced such a bill and has not considered introducing a bill to recompense Perkins. Haines' office said that it was too late in the session to introduce a bill.

The Crime of Perkins.

Perkins ran afoul the NRA battery code early in 1934 because he paid his employés a wage of 40 cents an hour. He told the code authority, to whom a complaint was made against Perkins by a large manufacturer, that he could not pay the code minimum and make a living.

Perkins pointed out that his business brought him an income of $2,500 a year. Most of this went to keep him and his wife and a small balance was returned to the business. The authority denied his plea for an exemption.

In May Perkins lost his Blue Eagle and in June a bench warant was served on him for code violations. Unable to meet the $5,000 bail set, he went to jail June 26. He was released July 15 when a large New York manufacturer heard of his plight and put up property valued at $250,000 to release Perkins.

Found Guilty in Court.

Last December Perkins was tried in the federal court at Harrisburg, Pa., found guilty of ten charges of violating the NRA code, and fined $150 on each count. A New Deal prosecutor asked that Perkins be fined the maximum of $500 on each count because the battery manufacturer had "embarrassed the administration."

Perkins, whose case drew nationwide attention, appealed. Until the Supreme court killed the NRA in the Schechter case it was believed that the fate of the Blue Eagle would be tested by review of the Perkins conviction.

Following the Schechter case decision Perkins' case, along with all other NRA cases, was wiped from court records by action of President Roosevelt.

FRENCH DOCTOR DIES, 102; ALWAYS TOOK OWN ADVICE

PARIS, July 16.—(AP)—Dr. Alexandre Gueniot, 102, oldest member of the French Academy of Medicine, died today. Born Nov. 8, 1832, he was active until just recently. He always used staircases, disdaining elevators.

Dr. Gueniot was a past president of both the Academy of Medicine and Society for Surgery. He was an authority on obstetrics.

He always insisted that he passed the century mark because he took his own advice. On the threshold of his career as a physician 72 years ago, Dr. Gueniot wrote a prescription for himself and followed his own instructions faithfully. Fresh air, plenty of exercise, and moderation in food and drink were the ingredients of Dr. Gueniot's "prescription."

SAYS DEMOCRATS OF 76 COUNTIES WANT HORNER SECOND TERM

Springfield, Ill., July 16.—[Special.]—Daniel F. Sullivan, state administrative auditor, announced today that he has lined up the Democratic organization of seventy-six downstate counties to adopt a resolution indorsing Gov. Henry Horner for a second term.

"By Aug. 1," he said, "I confidently expect to have at least eighty county indorsements."

In addition to holding the title of administrative auditor, Sullivan, a former Chicago newspaper man, is secretary of the Democratic state central committee. He has obtained Horner indorsements from thirty-six county organizations thus far. He denied reports that some had refused to approve the Horner record.

FIND MICHIGAN'S BETTER OFF WITH NRA IN DISCARD

Business and Worker Both Benefited.

Lansing, Mich., July 16.—[Special.]—Michigan industries and their employés have been definitly benefited by the United States Supreme court's annulment of the national industrial recovery act, according to statistics compiled by the state department of labor and industry.

W. F. Doyle, secretary of the department and former state senator, revealed results of the state bureau's study, showing that the purchasing power of the consuming public has been increased, more employés are at work, and their average wage is higher than under the NRA régime.

Found Better for All.

"It is obvious to us," said Doyle, "that lifting of NRA restrictions has been beneficial to consumer, retailer, and manufacturer alike in this state. Comprehensive figures for the entire state show that June, 1935, was considerably better than June, 1934, with the exception of some minor declines in wholly seasonal industries."

June was the first month, the department's study showed, in which total wages and average weekly earnings throughout Michigan advanced faster than food prices. The increase in food prices was 12 per cent, but the average weekly wage in 795 manufacturing plants was 12.1 per cent higher than during the comparable month in 1934. The total amount of wages paid increased 15.2 and the number of workers 3 per cent over June, 1934.

Most Carry Out Intent.

Doyle said the departmental survey was started June 17, coöperation of employers being asked in supplying data as to what would be their policy toward labor with NRA in the discard. Nearly all said they contemplated no material changes and would carry out the intent of the former law.

Smaller industries, particularly, are being aided by discarding the code provisions, department officials say. The eastern and southeastern sections of the state have been chiefly benefited in this regard, it was said. Threats of strikes have appeared chiefly in the upper peninsula.

300,000 FILIPINO WOMEN DEPRIVED OF RIGHT TO VOTE

MANILA, P. I., July 16.—(AP)—The Filipino women's hope of being able to vote in the Sept. 17 commonwealth elections faded today when Gov. Frank Murphy indicated he will unwillingly sign the electoral bill which disfranchises them.

"I was ready to veto the bill if justifiable grounds existed," the governor said, "but numerous legal opinions agreed the disfranchising clause in the commonwealth constitution already was effective."

The commonwealth constitution provides that the islands' 300,000 women must vote in favor of suffrage at a plebiscite to be held within two years after the commonwealth is inaugurated.

BAR TO VOTE ON SUPPORT FOR A PERMANENT NRA

Some Joint Regulation Is Held "Desirable."

Los Angeles, Cal., July 16.—(AP)—A recommendation for enactment of legislation along the fundamental lines of the NRA will be considered Thursday by the American Bar association, which opened its annual convention today.

President Scott M. Loftin, sounding the keynote of the session, told the nation's lawyers the "independence of the judiciary is the safeguard of the constitution."

He also urged the bar to study some plan which might attract to the court the best talent and the most worthy lawyers so that "justice may be administered without fear or favor by an able, fearless, and independent judiciary."

Pleads for Court Remedy.

Declaring there still are many jurisdictions where procedure for disciplining unethical lawyers is ineffective, the association president said "this situation must be remedied through the courts."

The recommendation for enactment of legislation embodying the fundamental principles of the NRA is contained in a report formulated by the association's commerce committee.

Stating the experience under NRA has been "valuable," the committee said it believes legislation along the lines of the act, but "clearly limited to subjects within the interstate commerce jurisdiction of the federal government" and supplemented by regulation of intrastate business and state statutes, is "highly desirable."

"Collective action consistent with economic and industrial situations and requirements should be sanctioned by our laws in order to harmonize the law with economic facts," the committee will report.

"Business needs an authoritative definition of the proper limits of coöperative action under the anti-trust laws, which it was the purpose of the NRA to provide," the committee stated. "Only congress and state legislatures can give such definition. Relief must be afforded through them."

Interstate Crime Studied.

Reciprocal legislation and interstate compacts were advocated as effective means of combating criminals who operate in several states by Gordon Dean, special attorney of the federal department of justice, in an address today before the association.

Four fields were suggested by Dean for immediate enactment of reciprocal compacts. They would provide for simpler procedure for the arrest and return of fugitives, the return of nonresident witnesses in criminal cases, the superivision of paroles, and return of violators, and the creation by neighboring states of joint detection and finger print units, and wire and radio hookups.

Mayer C. Goldman of New York advocated a system of public defenders in criminal cases, declaring the increasing number of "lawyer criminals" who ally themselves with those they defend warranted correction.

Judge Charles W. Fricke of Los Angeles retorted that "the black sheep of the profession are the exception and not the rule."

Decide to Push Tax on Rich Now and Placate La Follette

in their seats. Representative Hamilton Fish [Rep., N. Y.] gained the floor to urge consideration of his bill to pay the soldiers' bonus out of the four billion 800 million dollar public works appropriation.

This proposal is a sore point with Represenatitve Wright Patman [Dem., Tex.], who has monopolized most of the bonus proposals. Fish ripped into Patman, calling him "veteran enemy No. 1," and remarking "it is a debatable question whether Wright Patman or Franklin D. Roosevelt should be given the right of way as the veterans' enemy. The Democratic organization and the President have prevented payment of the bonus."

Both Patman and Representative Tom Blanton, another Texas Democrat, leaped to their feet with protests and Fish turned upon Blanton.

"I don't propose to go into the byways and snoop around and bring up some little bill like the gentleman from Texas," Fish said.

"I demand that those words be taken down!" shrieked Blanton.

Demands Reading of Record.

The "taking down" of words is a popular amusement in the house. A relic of the days when there were no stenographers in the house, the rule specifies that the clerk "take down" words spoken and read them aloud. The objectors may then ask that the remarks be expunged.

The remarks of Fish were repeated. Representative William A. Ekwell [Rep., Ore.] shouted:

"Would it be satisfactory if the word 'snooper' were deleted and the word 'stool-pigeon' substituted."

An uproar followed. Speaker Joseph W. Byrns, perplexed, conferred with the parliamentarian at his side, finally a huge dictionary was brought before him. Lifting the heavy volume in his arms, while the congressmen whooped with the laughter, the speaker read solemnly:

"Snoop—to pry about in a sneaking way."

After further deep deliberation, the speaker decided that the word "snoop" was in violation of the house rules. He ruled further that the word "stool-pigeon" was even more objectionable.

"Let the members preserve decorum in their debate," he pleaded. "Avoid personalities."

Patman then moved to expunge Fish's words from the records. The motion was carried on a rising vote, 151 to 56. Republicans demanded a roll call. The vote was 246 to 75 in favor of expunging the remarks.

Sensing that the transaction of any further official business was impossible for the day, Representative John Taber [Rep., N. Y.] moved for an adjournment. But the members wanted to play and voted down the proposal, 172 to 49.

So much excitement was too much for excitable Blanton and he launched into a two hour filibuster under the guise of making a point of order against proceeding on an omnibus bill containing a number of private bills of a minor character.

WHEN GIN IS CALLED FOR —CALL FOR GORDON'S

Good Cocktails draw the crowds

Nothing will kill the popularity of a bar more quickly than bad cocktails.

The American taste, once jaded and dulled by the fiery concoctions of prohibition, is becoming more critical every day.

It knows a good Martini from a bad one.

And it knows a Tom Collins calls for Gordon's Gin.

The sight of a Gordon's Gin bottle on a bar is recommendation enough to people who know.

For 166 years it has been the world's favorite. In all that time its smoothness, delicacy and subtle aroma have never been equaled.

It costs a little more, but it makes fine drinks and customers want their money's worth today.

Bad cocktails drive trade away.

Good cocktails bring customers back again.

Gordon's Gin is the sign of a good bar.

TAX APPEALS BY CHICAGOANS ASK FOR SLASH

Federal Claims Too High, They Charge.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., July 16.—[Special.]—Chicagoans and Chicago business houses have sought relief from approximately a million dollars in federal tax assessments during the last six weeks, inquiry disclosed today.

Appeals involving total tax claims of between $995,000 and $1,000,000 have been filed with the United States board of tax appeals since June 1 by persons or firms in Chicago, that board's records disclose.

Some of Those Appealing.

Some of the more prominent litigants and the tax assessments against them are:

Estate of W. Irving Osborne, former president of the Cornell Wood Products company, $73,542.

Estate of Henry H. Porter, $127,835.

Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust company, $45,938.

Morris S. Rosenfield, president of the Sunny Brook Distilling company, $5,078.

United Biscuit company, $28,027.

Estate of Charles E. Unrath, former president of Fulton Packing company, $10,885.

Maurice L. Rothschild, Inc., $19,079.

The Lytton Building corporation, $114,260.

Most of the cases involve disagreements between the government and the persons or firms over their 1932 incomes. Notices of alleged deficiency in 1932 income tax payments were sent out by the bureau of internal revenue up to March 15 of this year, and appeals from those deficiencies are now being filed by the taxpayers.

Fights Deficiency Claim.

One of the larger Chicago cases involves a $138,296 deficiency levied against the Prudence Company of Illinois as part of a larger tax suit brought by the government against the Prudence Company, Inc., of New York and its nine subsidiaries.

The second case in size involves the $127,835 tax assessment being opposed by the estate of Henry H. Porter. In making a final determination of the value of the estate, fixed at $2,035,937, the government increased the value of a long list securities and disallowed the deduction of certain contributions made in the Porter will. The executors protest against both of those actions.

Another Estate's Protest.

The W. Irving Osborne estate case, involving $73,542, also grows out of disallowance by the government of deductions for purposes such as taxes and depreciation. The case, however, relates to income from the estate and not to an estate tax.

In the Continental Illinois National bank suit the bank, which claimed a loss of $693,613 during 1932, is protesting the government's claim that it actually had a net income of $334,099 for that year. The bank paid no income tax, while the government is claiming $45,938.

In "converting" the bank's $693,613 loss into a $334,099 profit, the government struck from the bank's tax return $1,027,713 in deductions from income, including $421,835 in depreciation, $181,319 in donations, $135,869 in alleged security losses, and $108,391 in bad debts.

Chief issue in the Maurice L. Rothschild, Inc., case is whether the company will be allowed to deduct from its income a $98,118 "loss" sustained when the company sold 4,087 shares of Sears-Roebuck stock to Maurice L. Rothschild, owner of the company. In claiming that the company owes $19,079 in taxes, the government also disallowed other deductions for taxes and depreciation.

Other Chicago cases and the tax assessments involved are:

W. M. L. Fiske, banker and broker, $23,632.

Ethel Rosenberg, widow of Michael Rosenberg, sanitary district trustee, $7,968.

The M. E. F. Investment company of Illinois, $27,880.

Nathan Goldblatt of Goldblatt, Inc., department store, $11,373.

Morris Goldblatt, $12,283.

Payson Tinkoff, lawyer, $4,295.

Joseph S. Rosenfield, $4,953.

Mark A. Brown, chairman of Globe American corporation, $3,977.

David Mayer, $4,704.

Lucille M. Mayer, $4,853.

Ruth H. Wanner, $12,735.

John Rissman, $3,328.

Thomas F. Maloy, slain czar of Chicago moving picture operators' union, $93,059.

Rocco and Margaret de Grazia, $66,175 each.

Daniel J. Mahoney, $61,785.

DEATH REMAINS MYSTERY.

The inquest into the death of Miss Sophie Urbanski, 25 years old, 3243 South Morgan street, the dancer who fell from the roof of the Carleton hotel, 2138 South Wabash avenue, on July 4, was closed yesterday with a verdict leaving the question of accident or suicide unsolved.

Girl Pays with Life

A coroner's jury yesterday held that "temporary insanity due to a love affair with a married man" caused Miss Anna Korach, 22 years old, 2615 North Troy street, to kill herself Monday night. John J. Ursin, 5332 Cornelia avenue, in whose gas station at 2200 North Cicero avenue Miss Korach shot herself, kept his face carefully averted from his wife, Mary, as he told of his love affair with Miss Korach, a waitress. "I wanted to get a divorce and marry her," he testified. "She killed herself after I advised her to be patient and wait for an opportune time for a divorce."

ELDERLY FARM COUPLE ROBBED OF $14,000 BONDS

Effingham, Ill., July 16.—(AP)—Sheriff M. K. Ervin tonight said Mr. and Mrs. Frank Besing, elderly couple living on a farm near Altamont, Ill., were robbed of $14,000 in bonds Sunday by four men who threatened to kill them if they reported the robbery.

The Besings, described as being approximately 65 years old, did not tell the sheriff until today. "If you tell about this," the couple said they were warned, "we'll come back and burn the place and kill you."

Ervin said the two were tied with rope while the robbers searched the house, finding the bonds in a tin box in an upstairs bedroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Besing were found by their son, Walter, who returned to the farm Sunday night after being away since afternoon.

Pennsylvania's Governor Buys Personal Autogiro

Harrisburg, Pa., July 16.—[Special.]—Purchase of an autogiro by Gov. Earle, who plans to use it on personal trips, was disclosed today. It is a small two seater sports tandem model of 165 horse power, with a maximum speed of approximately 100 miles an hour.

DEMOCRATS HIT SCHALL FOR JABS AT ROOSEVELT

Senator Is Assailed as a "Misrepresentative."

Washington, D. C., July 16.—(AP)—Terming blind Senator Schall, Republican, the "misrepresentative from Minnesota," senate Democrats today loosed a concentrated attack on his denunciations of the administration and in turn were charged with "censorship."

First, Senator Robinson, Democratic leader, and then Senators Black [Dem., Ala.] and Bone [Dem., Wash.] took the senate floor to shout warnings that Schall conform to the rules of "decency."

As members alternately frowned and smiled and gallery spectators crowded forward, Schall shouted back, his voice rising, that he had "made no statements not permitted under the rules" and had "done only what a senator had a right to do."

Democrats Are Aroused.

It was evident the Democrats, aroused over Schall's recent description of President Roosevelt as a "megalomaniac"—subsequently eliminated from the record—were bent upon checking up all matter the Minnesotan wanted inserted in the record before giving consent to any more of his requests.

The argument started today when Schall had read by a clerk an editorial from a Texas newspaper, a speech by a Minnesota editor, and an address of his own—all critical of the administration.

Robinson protested. He asserted "when one whose moral obliquities are so great as the senator from Minnesota, it becomes necessary for some one to object." He added Schall "cannot shield himself behind an unfortunate affliction."

Speech Raltes Roosevelt.

The Schall speech said President Roosevelt was imitating Mussolini and that Ben Cohen, an administration aid and bill drafter, had "assumed the legislative functions usurped by the executive."

When Robinson insisted on his right to object to parts of the speech found unsuitable, Schall jumped up and shouted:

"If I had my sight I could read that speech without censorship. The rules of the senate ought to be amended so one man can't impose censorship on another senator."

Schall insisted he was speaking the "true views" of his own state.

Both Robinson and Black recalled the "megalomaniac" remark. The Alabaman asserted that when the matter was called to Schall's attention he did not know what the word meant. Schall denied the assertion, but did not explain the word. A standard dictionary definition of "megalomaniac" is "insanity in which the subject thinks he is great or exalted."

Calls Him "Misrepresentative."

Robinson called Schall the "misrepresentative from Minnesota" and expressed the opinion the senator had "employed" some one to write his speeches.

"It is small business and only could be done by a man of small mentality," said the Arkansas senator.

Replying, Schall said, "If the people knew what was behind this government they would not stand for it a minute."

Predicts Salmon Will Fail to Climb Dam Stairways

Washington, D. C., July 16.—(AP)—Representative Culkin [Rep., N. Y.], asserted today that fish ladders and elevators over the huge PWA power dams on the Columbia river—projected by Secretary Ickes—could not save the $300,000,000 salmon industry.

"Ten years will see the end of the salmon industry on the west coast because of the Bonneville and Grand Coulee dams, despite the unique ladders and elevators," Culkin told reporters.

Bright Fish Would Die.

"The fish who are intelligent enough to push buttons for the Grand Coulee elevators 500 feet high or those energetic and courageous enough to walk up the ladders will do like their ancestors did—die after spawning on the upper reaches of the Columbia.

"Their offspring, being young and uneducated don't know how to push the elevator buttons or climb down the ladders. So, they will perish in the giant hydro-electric turbines as they seek their way to the sea.

"Ten years and the great Pacific coast salmon will be as extinct as the dodo."

Cites Costs of Project.

Culkin, who is leading a fight in the house against administration legislation to legalize some 20 PWA projects under Secretary Ickes, estimated to cost a half a billion dollars, said the Bonneville dam fish ladders would cost $3,500,000 and the Grand Coulee's elevators and ladders $10,000,000.

"When Ickes as PWA administrator ignored the law and authorized these illegal projects," Culkin said, "he did not consider the fact that the Columbia river produces more salmon than any river in the world."

LOS ANGELES HIT BY SEARING HEAT OFF THE DESERT

Los Angeles, July 16.—(AP)—Searing heat today enveloped the southwestern part of the United States, causing at least eight deaths, and sending the temperature at one point to 120 degrees.

Four deaths occurred in Arizona, one in Mexico close to the border, and three in southern California.

From Death Valley came the report an unofficial temperature registered 126 Saturday, with little or no abatement since then.

At 1 p. m., today, Pacific Standard time, the temperature reached 95 here. Pomona registered 101; Bakersfield, 102; Brawley, 109; Calexico, 111.

The plight of motorists on the Arizona desert was described by a filling station attendant near Phoenix, who said a sedan drove up to his station with the curtains drawn.

"I went right up and poked my head in," said the attendant. "You should have heard the yells. There were four young ladies in that car, and not a single one of them had on a stitch of clothing, and they had cakes of ice in both seats trying to keep cool."

BEG YOUR PARDON

An item yesterday said Dr. Francis E. Townsend addressed the Chicago Church federation in the Great Northern hotel. Walter R. Mee, executive secretary of the federation, said the meeting of ministers was in no way connected with the Chicago Church federation.

Wife of Fort Sheridan Captain Asks Divorce

San Francisco, Cal., July 16.—(AP)—A petition for divorce was filed in Superior court today by Mrs. Edna Lorraine McMorris against Capt. Watson L. McMorris, stationed at Fort Sheridan, Ill. They were married in Manila, P. I., in December, 1932, and separated here last November.

ETHIOPIAN RULER TO CALL NATION TO RESIST ITALY

Again Holds Up Speech Pending Negotiations.

BY WILL BARBER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia, July 16.—Emperor Haile Selassie at the last minute today postponed for the third time an important address to parliament in which he is expected to appeal for national unity in face of the danger of Italian aggression.

The address, first scheduled to have been delivered Saturday, was put off until yesterday and then until today, and this morning it was again postponed so the emperor can await the outcome of important negotiations which might oblige him to make changes.

The address was carefully written so as to avoid a warlike appearance, but at the same time officials pointed out that the time has come for the emperor to issue a call to all Ethiopians to support him if it comes to war.

News of the departure of more Italian troops for East Africa, together with Italian statements that the only solution must be one of force, occasioned disquietude in Addis Ababa. There is no weakening of the Ethiopian attitude of relying on the league of nations to solve the dispute. The foreign ministry announced today that every effort will be made to avoid postponement of the July 25 meeting of the league council. In view of the Italian attitude, the league cannot delay longer, the Ethiopian government feels.

A demonstration of national unity will be provided when the emperor holds a big review of troops to accept the oath of fidelity from new officers.

Peace Possible—Mussolini.

ROME, July 16.—(AP)—Premier Mussolini told two American interviewers tonight that peace with Ethiopia was still "possible."

The Italian dictator received Hans V. Kaltenborn, New York newspaper man, and Mrs. Scottie McKenzie Frazier, Dothan, Ala., newspaper woman, and answered five questions. They were:

Q.—Are you determined on war with Ethiopia no matter what happens?

A.—I have not said so.

Q.—Is it not a fact that you have presented your East African case rather badly to the world?

A.—Yes, the case has not been thoroughly understood.

Q.—Would it be possible to harmonize the East African situation by the establishment of a joint Italian, British, and French protectorate?

A.—Impossible, impossible. Multilateral protectorates are no good.

Does Not Wish to Quit League.

Q.—Does Italy wish to resign from the league of nations?

A.—Not at all. I do not wish to take Italy from the league.

Q.—Is there still a good chance of peace?

A.—Peace is possible.

Kaltenborn said that when the talk drifted to President Roosevelt, Mussolini said:

"I like Roosevelt."

The American said the premier elaborated on the various questions regarding Ethiopia and the league of nations, remarking:

"We might have gotten on with Ethiopia if certain European nations had not worked against us. Now, however, our established friendship with France has brought a change in the situation. At present there is no real pressure being exerted against us."

Mussolini was quoted further as saying he did not believe there would be war in Europe for several years, at least.

Stresses Economic Needs.

In connection with Italy's plans in East Africa, Kaltenborn said il duce emphasized the necessity of an Italian economic penetration rather than a cultural one.

When the league was discussed, the American asserted, il duce quickly asked: "Why has not the United States joined the league?"

Upon being told that the United States felt the league did not represent American opinion immediately following the world war, Kalterborn said Mussolini shrugged and indicated conditions were now so changed that the United States could well join Geneva.

"In America you are all for peace," the dictator was quoted as saying. "Communists, Socialists and the Freemasonry of Europe have been in the habit of crying 'peace.'

"However, I am in a difficult position since our country is removed 8,000 kilometers from our colonies in East Africa. We happen to do what we think necessary in the present situation."

Press Cries for War.

Meanwhile Rome newspapers published long front page editorials emphasizing in vigorous language what they described as the "inevitability" of war with Ethiopia. The Giornale d'Italia, often officially inspired, attacked the efficacy of diplomatic efforts to halt hostilities. Such formulae, the newspaper said, "are capable only of altering the conditions of the conflict without eliminating its inevitability."

PEACEABLE U. S. ITALIANS RESENT WAR PROPAGANDA

The Free Press Decries Fascist Tactics.

Italians in the United States opposed to Mussolini's war plans against Ethiopia are being aroused against Fascist propaganda in this country, according to an issue yesterday of La Stampa Libera—the Free Press. The newspaper, circulated in Chicago by anti-Fascists, condemns inflammatory tactics of the Italian language press.

The Free Press names as chief offenders, Il Progresso Italo-Americano and Il Corriere d'America, of which Generoso Pope, New York Tammany hall politician, is publisher. The journal declares an impartial observer would conclude that such papers were published in Rome with "editorials against Abyssinia, always assuming the pose of exponents of the Italians in the United States."

Cites Hyphenated Editorials.

The Free Press calls attention to an editorial published in Il Progresso on July 6 after the note of the Ethiopian emperor, Haile Selassie, to President Roosevelt asking mediation by the United States to prevent war. The July 6 editorial warned the President not to give aid if he cared to hold the votes of Italians in this country.

The Free Press quotes in English an excerpt from an editorial published in Il Corriere on July 9. It quotes:

"We will show Abyssinia that we are capable of liquidating the old and the new accounts. We shall go to the black soil which is a sacred continent for us by virtue of the blood shed by our martyred ancestors and by the might of our rights to that soil."

The Free Press declares that the two papers are daily publishing letters from Italian-Americans expressing Mussolini's war views.

"Most of these letters end with 'Hail, Il Duce,'" says the Free Press.

Angry at United States Editors.

"In today's Il Progresso Italo-Americano," observes the Free Press, "there appears a letter signed by Chevalier Lorenzo Pettinati in which the writer expresses his regret that he is not in a position in this country to administer a dose of castor oil to the editors of the New York Post for what they write against Italy."

In conclusion the Free Press declares that the attitude of the Italian Fascists and their newspapers in the United States is sufficient to "give us an idea of the means Mussolini's henchmen are using in Fascist Italy to impose their misrule and their war schemes on the poor, helpless, oppressed Italian people."

The Free Press, printed partly in Italian and partly in English, is published at 52 West 15th street, New York, but also is widely distributed in Chicago. The paper's masthead says it is endorsed by unions affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

LEWIS DEMANDS BRITAIN GIVE U. S. CARIBBEAN ISLES

Asks Land as War Debt Payments.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., July 16.—[Special.]—Senator James Hamilton Lewis [Dem., Ill.], a member of the foreign relations committee, today demanded in a senate speech that Great Britain cede to the United States her island possessions in the Caribbean sea in payment of her war debts.

Senator Lewis based his proposal upon the "peace offer" of England to cede a portion of her territory in Somaliland to Ethiopia, which in turn would cede certain territory to Italy with a view of averting the impending war between those countries.

The senator also suggested that England surrender all rights she claims to privileges of constructing a Nicaraguan canal, recalling, as a precedent, that England compelled France to yield all claims to territory adjacent to the Suez Canal.

Cites "Useless" Islands.

Senator Lewis declared that in the sphere and waters of the United States are islands of English jurisdiction, particularly the Bahamas, Jamaica and the Bermudas, for which England has no use for her protection or national defense.

"Yet these adjunct territories are both useful as defense and necessary as protection for the United States," he said. "Those contiguous lands make a frontier to the United States and could be seized in time of war between nations fighting among themselves to possess the Caribbean and Southern seas. They would be used as the backyard of the United States from which supplies could be stored to be used in assault on America.

"No land of a foreign purpose should be allowed in the gateways of the waters of the United States.

Sees Danger in Attack.

"On such, an enemy could make a base from which to sail and destroy a portion of the American hemisphere."

"We ask England to take the same course with America for the protection of the American continent under American control that England sought in the protection of her own dominions under British control."

FORMOSA ROCKED BY QUAKE; 37 DIE, 132 ARE INJURED

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

TOKIO, July 17 [Wednesday].—A severe earthquake rocked the western coast of Formosa at 12:20 o'clock this morning. The affected area included the regions previously rocked by a quake on April 21, when nearly 3,000 persons lost their lives.

Taichu and Shinchiku provinces were the worst hit by today's quake. An official report from the Formosan government said 37 persons are known to have been killed and 132 injured. Train service was disrupted and communications were partly cut off. A petroleum tank of the Nippon Oil company exploded. Many buildings were destroyed.

STUDENTS RALLY FOES OF MEXICAN STATE DICTATOR

Enter Elections Seeking to Oust Garrido.

MEXICO CITY, July 16.—(AP)—Mexican students today mourned four comrades who died for their opposition to Tomas Garrido Canabal, strong man of Tabasco State, and said stoutly they would "never cease the battle against Garrido" until his overthrow.

A powerful students' organization to enter the Tabasco State elections in August is being formed, the students said. They insisted their intention was to fight with ballots, instead of bullets.

Expeditions Form.

The war department was officially informed tonight that eight persons were killed and 18 wounded in last night's pistol and machine gun battle at Villa Hermosa, Tabasco. Four supporters of Garrido were killed, including one deputy, and 12 were wounded, while members of the student group suffered a casualty list of four killed and six wounded. Sixteen students, including the wounded, natives of Tabasco who returned to their state from Mexico City to contest Garrido's rule, were reported under the protection of federal troops.

An expedition to go to Villa Hermosa and "force Garrido to leave the country" was reported forming here.

Leaders of the anti-Garrido movement said nearly 2,000 oil workers now employed in Vera Cruz fields would constitute the backbone of their forces. These workers, already organized in unions, will enter Tabasco shortly in groups, visit villages and organize the voters against the anti-church leader, they explained.

Mexico's "Gold Shirts," hitherto known only for its anti-Jewish activities, also announced it was joining the fight against the Tabasco dictator.

Contributions Sent.

Offices of Rodolfo Brito Foucher, leader of yesterday's student invasion of Villa Hermosa, were thronged with persons pledging their support to the movement and contributing funds.

Brito telegraphed from Villa Hermosa that Garrido himself, Gov. Manuel Lastra Ortiz and other officials themselves opened fire on his companions while they were walking through the street, but an official report from Lastra said the student "clericals" attacked members of Garrido's Red Shirt "bloc of young revolutionaries."

BRITAIN ORDERS NEW AIR DEFENSE PROJECT TO COST $26,675,000

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, July 16.—A supplementary estimate amounting to $26,675,000 for expansion of the British air force was published today. It was explained that this provides for the formation of seventy-one new squadrons of warplanes for home defense. This will bring the number of squadrons in this country, exclusive of the fleet air arm, up to 123, with a first line strength of 1,500 machines and reserves to keep up this strength.

The program provides for immediate training of 2,500 new pilots and 20,000 additional personnel.

Following successful tests of "crash-proof" gasoline tanks, the air ministry has decided to equip 12 Hawker Hart warplanes with the new tanks. In tests the tanks were dropped to the ground from various altitudes without breaking. They will now undergo practical tests to discover their effect on the range and speed of planes. If the claims of the inventors are justified, it means that the peril of fire will virtually vanish from the air.

ACTRESS SEEKS DIVORCE FROM CLAUDE RAINS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, July 16.—Miss Beatrix Thomson, English actress and playwright, filed a petition in London today for a divorce from Claude Rains, film star, who won plaudits for his performance in "The Invisible Man."

The couple were married in 1925. For several years Rains, still a British subject, has been living and working in America, while Miss Thomson was living and acting in England.

In April this year Rains obtained a final decree of divorce from Miss Thomson at Trenton, N. J., for alleged desertion without cause. Three days later he was married to his fourth wife, Miss Frances Popper. In view of this, Miss Thomson has now filed a divorce petition here, as she has been advised that according to English law Rains is still her husband despite his remarriage.

Park Board Again Bans Ethiopia Demonstration

The Chicago park district board yesterday again refused to grant a permit to parade and hold a massmeeting on park property in behalf of Ethiopia. The permit had been requested by the Joint Conference for the Defense of Ethiopia for a parade July 28 on South Parkway, ending with a massmeeting in Washington park. President Robert J. Dunham of the park board said the commissioners would continue to refuse the use of the parks for controversial purposes.

ROOSEVELT FOR FREE WORSHIP IN ALL NATIONS

Talks to Group Protesting About Mexico.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., July 16.—[Special.]—President Roosevelt today told a group of congressmen interested in religious persecutions in Mexico that he is in entire sympathy with all people who make it clear that the American people and the American government believe in freedom of religious worship not only in the United States, but also in all other nations.

The President expressed his views to an informal committee of 23 representatives which called upon him to present a petition asking that an investigation be made through the American embassy and consulate to determine whether American citizens in Mexico are being allowed to worship as they please.

His expression was seen as an approval of the religious rights petition, which was signed by 250 Catholic, Protestant, and Jewish members of congress.

Oppose U. S. Intervention.

The delegation left a nine page memorandum setting forth their objectives at the White House and insisted that the committee is "unalterably opposed to any semblance of interference or intervention in Mexico."

A similar inquiry by the British government is under way in Mexico. Committee members said that the President's statement may speed an adjustment of the church and state controversy in Mexico.

After the meeting Representative John P. Higgins [Dem., Mass.] said he had been authorized to release the statement from the President. He gave the statement as "the President has stated he is in entire sympathy with all people who make it clear that the American people and the American government believe in freedom of religious worship not only in the United States but also in all other nations."

In its memorandum, the committee stated that it was not making its representations in the name of any one group, but in "the name of all who believe in God. It held that the religious persecution in Mexico was "not anti-Christian or anti-Jewish, but anti-God."

Cites Former U. S. Efforts.

"Although the committee is convinced," its statement added, "that numerous sincere and salutary efforts have been made by the American government to bring the Mexican government to a full realization of the gravity of this problem, nevertheless, the members feel obligated to voice their concern that absolutely nothing of an official character has been done to show American concern for the traditional American principle of religious liberty, particularly where the rights of American citizens are concerned.

"It is the deeply rooted conviction of the members of this committee that there should be on record some overt statement or public statement which would clearly indicate in the eyes of our own people and to the gaze of the civilized world that the American government is entirely disassociated from the official persecution of religion in Mexico.

Asks Friendly Statement.

"It is believed that this statement can be couched in such friendly, courteous and dignified language that no possible offense can be taken by any official of the Mexican government. Far from endangering the good neighbor policy, so carefully developed by the department of state under your administration, Mr. President, this public championing of the principles of religious liberty would win the most cordial admiration from both the vast bulk of Mexican people and from the populations of all other Latin-American countries."

ARMY FOR 800 FIGHTING PLANES, CONGRESS TOLD

Washington, D. C., July 16.—(AP)—Backed by the army high command, the house military committee today set out to obtain $40,000,000 to expand the combat strength of the army air corps, with 600 to 800 modern fighting planes.

This plan followed a long secret conference with Secretary Dern and high army officers.

The war department chieftains repeated they desired speedy enactment of the Wilcox bill for a system of powerful air bases around the nation's borders and in the interior.

The house has passed the Wilcox bill and it's now in a senate committee.

From war department experts the committeemen today received figures to show that the air corps has only 1,088 planes and the national guard another 130 that are good enough for every day use. Of these, it was added, 405 are expected to become obsolete or lost through accidents this year. Of the 319 craft in the general headquarters air force, only 172 were described as modern and the remaining 147 as obsolete.

The status of the air corps was described today by Representative Rogers [Dem., N. H.] as "absolutely deplorable."

KIPLING PENS JUBILEE POEM ON REVIEW OF FLEET BY KING GEORGE

LONDON, July 16.—(AP)—A new poem by Rudyard Kipling entitled "Review of the Fleet By the King," was published today. Kipling is in his 70th year. The poem follows:

After his realms and states were moved
To bare their hearts to the king they loved,
  Tendering themselves in homage and devotion,
The tide-wave up the channel spoke
To all those eager exultant folk:
  Hear now what man has given you by the ocean.

There was no thought of orb or crown
When the single wooden chest went down
  To the steering flat and the careless gunroom haled him,
To learn by ancient and bitter use
How neither favor nor excuse
  Nor aught save his sheer self henceforth availed him.

There was no talk of birth or rank
By the slung hammock or scrubbed plank
  In the steel-grated prisons where I cast him
But niggard hours and a narrow space
For rest—and the naked light on his face—
  While the ship's traffick flowed unceasing past him.

Thus I schooled him to go and come—
To speak at the word—at a sign be dumb,
  To stand to his task, not seeking others to aid him,
To share in honor what praise might fall
For the task accomplished and—over all—
  To swallow rebuke in silence. Thus I made him.

I loosened every mood of the deep
On him, a child and sick for sleep
  Through the long watches that no time can measure
When I drove him deafened and choked and blind
At the wave tops, cut and spun by the wind
  Lashing him face and eyes with my displeasure.

I opened him all the guile of the seas—
Their sullen swift-sprung treacheries
  To be fought or forestalled or dared or dismissed with laughter.
I showed him worth by folly concealed,
And the flaw in the soul that a chance revealed.
  [Lessons remembered—to bear fruit thereafter].

I dealt him power beneath his hand
For trial and proof with his first command,
  Himself alone and no man to gainsay him,
On him the end, the means and the word
And the harsher judgment if he erred,
  And—outboard—ocean waiting to betray him.

Wherefore when he came to be crowned
Strength in duty held him bound,
  So that not power misled nor ease ensnared him
Who had spared himself no more than his seas had spared him.

After his lieges in all his lands
Had laid their hands between his hands
  And his ships thundered service and devotion
The tide-wave ranging the planet spoke
On all our foreshores as it broke:
  "Know now what man I gave you—I, the Ocean."

THE MASSACRE

Chicago's 1935 Trafic Toll

Over 98 per cent of the city's automobile fatalities are of a nature physically impossible on an elevated highway.

MOTORIST KILLS PEDESTRIAN ON COTTAGE GROVE

Charles Rosenow, 30 years old, 10749 Stephenson avenue, was fatally injured late last night when he was struck by an automobile while crossing Cottage Grove avenue at 95th street. Thomas J. Hynde, 31 years old, 8241 Essex avenue, driver of the car, was not held. Rosenow died early today at the Burnside hospital.

This death increased the automobile toll in Cook county for 1935 to 495. Until 4 p. m. yesterday 397 had been killed in trafic accidents within the city limits of Chicago and 8,533 injured.

Losing control of his taxicab while driving over a stretch of pavement at Ridge avenue and Dempster street in Evanston that is being repaired, Alfred A. Napier, 27, of 1257 Winnemac avenue, a driver for the New Cab company, was seriously injured yesterday morning when the cab crashed into a tree. At St. Francis hospital it was said he had incurred a possible fracture of the skull.

STREET WORKER HURT IN BLAST.

Ronald Swenssen, 32 years old, 4610 North Keystone avenue, a city street department employé, was burned about the face, hands, and body yesterday by the exploding of the fuel tank of a tar wagon being used for street repairs at Windsor and Central avenues.

KING OF ENGLAND REVIEWS 12 MILE PARADE OF SHIPS

Greatest Sea Exhibition Since Before War.

BY JOHN STEELE.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, July 16.—A million onlookers, lining the shores of Spithead and massed on liners and smaller craft of all descriptions, today witnessed two of the most magnificent spectacles of King George's silver jubilee year.

This afternoon they watched King George, as lord high admiral of the fleet, pass through twelve miles of ships in the royal yacht Victoria and Albert, receiving the homage of Great Britain's naval, merchant, and fishing services.

Greatest Display Since War.

Tonight they saw 160 warships converted into a brilliant forest of lights. Each was outlined by thousands of glittering stars and then, after a blackout, lines of fire from torches held aloft by members of the crews were followed by cascades of popping red, white, and blue rockets.

The climax was reached when hundreds of searchlights stabbed the sky with silver beams. The display was the mightiest naval spectacle since before the war.

This afternoon the royal yacht with the king and three of his sons, the prince of Wales, the duke of York, and the duke of Kent aboard steamed out of Portsmouth harbor to the accompaniment of a thunderous roar of gunfire from the warcraft and took its position at the head of the fleet. There the king received his admirals, the captains of the British ocean liners, and the skippers of fishing trawlers.

Then the review began. The royal yacht steamed slowly between the long lines of ships, the crews of which cheered lustily while band after band blared out "God Save the King." Aboard the cruiser Australia was the king's third son, the duke of Gloucester, who is learning to be a naval officer.

100 Planes Put on Show.

When the inspection was concluded the royal yacht again took its place at the head of the line and the king witnessed a flight of more than 100 naval seaplanes.

At 8 a. m. tomorrow the royal yacht will lead Great Britain's mighty armada to sea for exercises.

FRANCE DECREES HUGE REDUCTION IN COST OF LIVING

PARIS, July 17 [Wednesday].—(AP)—Premier Laval slashed France's unbalanced budget today in an effort to assure the safety of the franc. A bundle of decree laws was drafted at a 14 hour cabinet session which lasted until midnight.

Provisions for a reduction in the cost of living and other measures designed to start business recovery were understood to be included in the decrees, which members of the cabinet immediately took to President Lebrun for his signature.

Marcel Regnier, minister of finance, estimated the decrees would lop from 11,000,000,000 to 13,000,000,000 francs off the budget. [The franc is currently quoted at 6.63 cents.]

A sweeping 10 per cent cut on all government disbursements was decreed, including pensions, dividends on government securities, and contracts. Rents and interest on mortgages likewise were ordered cut, while the cost of electricity, gas, and bread were ordered reduced in an effort to make other slashes acceptable.

COURT CANCELS RYAN'S WEDDING AS TITLE SALE

Calls Countess Pawn in Austrian Plot.

most daily letters from her castle in Austria, while creditors clamored at the door, the countess' mother was urging her daughter to have a child by Ryan. Fearful lest the Ryan traction millions slip away, she warned her daughter anxiously, according to one of the letters made public:

"Your position in the family is never safe until you have a child. You can be put out at any time."

Met Via a Prince.

The young countess was introduced to Ryan by her mother's cousin, Prince Chlodwig Hohenlohe-Schillingfurst. Her first question, the prince testified at Ryan's annulment hearing, was: "Is Mr. Ryan rich?" She learned he would inherit $9,000,000.

Her correspondence with Count Wladimir never languished. The day before her marriage he wrote to her:

"I should be happy for you that the purpose of your American trip has been realized. Good night, my angel."

Four days after the wedding the young bride of Ryan replied:

"Wladschi, my golden one, I love you. I think of you longingly. Everything in order if you still love me."

On March 15 she cabled: "I love you. I am so proud of you. Kisses. "ETTIE."

The count came right back: "I was happy to get your wire from Havana, my sweetheart, my dear, my all. I haven't seen you for such a long time. I love you so. Millions of kisses. "WLADIMIR."

"Burn the Letters!" She Didn't.

But to be on the safe side the count wrote the princess and warned her to destroy the correspondence, as "something very unpleasant might result, particularly as no debts have been paid and no advantages at all have been derived."

She didn't destroy the missives and that explains how the sheaf of love letters came before the judge.

Finally Justice Cotillo held that the marriage with Mr. Ryan had been accomplished by fraud; that Mr. Ryan had been tricked by "shrewd and cunning" European minds; that he had succumbed to the glamor of a European title; that the young bride had no intent to submit to the usual relations of husband and wife, and in order to accomplish that intention had by various "pretenses denied herself physically to the defendant."

Branded a 'Pawn'

Countess Marie Ann von Wurmbrand-Stuppach of Austria, whose marriage to Glendenin J. Ryan Jr. was annulled yesterday by New York judge. The court condemned her as the willing pawn of a group of European gold diggers.

CHAPTER TWO OF A PROPERTY LINE SQUABBLE

It's a matter of gold teeth, not sentiment over green grass, said Mrs. Mary Barnat last night in explaining her quarrel with her neighbor, Mrs. Henrietta Bahr, whose house at 5146 South Justine street is three inches south of the line that divides their properties.

Because Mrs. Barnet refused permission to workmen to place their ladders on her lawn or even so much as hang scaffolding over it they had to jack up Mrs. Bahr's house and move it thirty inches south to make repairs. Last night the house was once more back in its normal position, but the hostility between the two women still exists.

"In 1929 Mrs. Bahr first had the north wall of her house repaired," declared Mrs. Barnat. "The workmen got all over my flower garden. I objected, and Mrs. Bahr's son, Bernie, hit me in the mouth with a hammer. That's why I have gold teeth now."

WOMAN ABDUCTED, ROBBED.

Miss Helen Mayor, 27 years old, 1215 men to get into their automobile at Clark and Division streets early yesterday. After attempting to attack her, they robbed her of $35 and thrust her from the car.

BRUNO AUSTIN'S WIFE SEIZED IN SEARCH FOR HIM

Arrested at Home After Holdup Slaying.

The police last night held Mrs. Marie Brenko Austin, 19 years old, 2659 Division street, while they kept up the search for her husband, Bruno Austin, 23 years old, who is wanted for the slaying of Anthony Banetta, 49 years old, 901 South Irving avenue. Banetta was shot to death Monday morning when Austin and three companions held up a grocery at 2229 Taylor street, where he was a customer.

Austin's confederates were captured Monday night in a raid at 3341 Grenshaw street, and the police then learned that Austin was shot in the left hand by the discharge of his own shotgun as the gang was leaving the robbery scene.

Wife Seized in Home.

Mrs. Austin was seized yesterday in her home, where the police found a bloodstained jacket. She said her husband had an injured arm, but he had told her an awning fell on it.

The three taken in the Grenshaw street raid are Alex Shapiro, 20 years old, 3553 Douglas boulevard; Morris Jacobs, 21, of 3223 Grenshaw street, and David Sinnenberg, 18, of 3407 West 14th street. Sinnenberg was shot during the Monday robbery. Shapiro was wounded in the hand when he tried to escape the police raiders. All are being held.

Troubles Begin with Marriage.

Austin and his wife were married last January in the Russian Holy Trinity cathedral at 1121 North Leavitt street. After the ceremony Austin was arrested as a suspect in the kidnaping of Edward G. Bremer of St Paul, but he was later released.

Last night at a showup in the detective bureau Mrs. Austin said that she had turned taxi dancer in order to get money for a lawyer to represent her husband in the Bremer case. "After this latest thing he's done I don't know whether I'll keep on loving him or not," she said.

He left the east in 1879. He lost trace of his family. Then his two brothers and sister reëstablished contact and came here today from Saltville, Va., for a reunion.

DAY IN JAIL HALTS VEGETARIAN'S DIET FOR ANIMALS IN ZOO

New York, July 16.—(AP)—Anthony Sclanfani's passion for putting the Central park zoo on a vegetarian diet was interrupted by a day in jail today.

Sclanfani was arrested for trying to feed a grapefruit to a yak and peanuts to the raccoons. Appearing before Magistrate Samuel Katz in Yorkville court, Sclanfani beat his breast.

"Will you promise to stay away from there?" asked the magistrate after a look at Sclanfani's outfit of shorts and sun shirt, which he wears winter and summer.

"No, never," shouted the prisoner. "Ill feed them if I die."

Sclanfani accused former Gov. Alfred E. Smith, honorary night zoo superintendent, of stealing all the glory.

"O, it's limelight you want?" asked Katz.

"No, your honor," avowed Sclanfani. "It's justice and good food for the animals. Al Smith does what he wants in the zoo, but I can't."

2 FILM AGENTS DENY FACTOR TIE AT LONDON TRIAL

LONDON, July 16.—(AP)—Two disgusted and disillusioned American film representatives, who denied any connection with John "Jake the Barber" Factor of Chicago, spent their third day in court in as many weeks today defending themselves against charges of "sharepushing"—unlawfully offering shares for sale. The two are Samuel Norman Gordon, 36, Glendale, Cal., and Eli Charles Markus, 35, of Chicago.

Markus said he came to England to represent a Hollywood film company, opening a branch office here. The only way he could make any money, however, was selling shares, he said. Gordon said he anticipated getting contracts for screen writers he represented. He turned stock salesman and found it a losing proposition, barely paying expenses.

Both were closely questioned as to their association with Factor, the international speculator whom Britain has long tried to extradite from the United States on "share pushing" charges.

ROB DRUG STORE AND CUSTOMER.

Two gunmen wearing handkerchief masks entered the Stigall durg store, 6558 South Kedzie avenue, yesterday and escaped with $20 from the cash register and $4 from a woman customer, Mrs. H. Feldman, 3308 West 67th street.

GERMANY ACTS TO NIP NEW RIOTS AGAINST JEWS

Nazi Leaders Disagree on Cause of Violence.

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, July 16.—Despite attempts to end anti-Semitic disturbances, several minor incidents occurred today as a sequel to last night's rioting on Kurfuersten-Damm boulevard, center of Berlin night life, during which mobs expelled Jews from cafes and restaurants and in many cases beat them up.

The incidents today centered about Jewish-owned ice cream shops. The stores were picketed and their owners were otherwise harassed.

The well known Zigeunerkeller restaurant did not open tonight.

Police, however, are now acting energetically and promptly to arrest any disturbers of the peace.

Disagree on Cause.

The press, police and storm troop leaders are each blaming the anti-Semitic demonstrations onto different causes. The press blames "agents provocateurs." The secret police asserts that suspicious elements are seeking to discredit the state and the Nazi movement. The storm troopers hold that the Jews themselves are responsible.

The secret police credits the Nazi party members and Storm Troopers with having assisted the police to restore order last night "most quickly." [The rioting lasted for several hours.] Secret police authorities promised that "this coöperation will be continued to prevent any disturbances of public order."

Berlin Storm Troopers today were ordered to wear uniforms at all times outside of working hours. They were warned they must not participate in demonstrations of any kind and that "disciple must be maintained."

Colored Problem, Too.

Meanwhile the Schlesische Zeitung disclosed that Germany also has a black as well as a Jewish problem. It was revealed that colored people have been touring and lecturing in German schools instilling youths with the colonial spirits and aspirations.

The German Colonial society and the National Colonial league are now unitedly warning teachers that this practice must cease, adding:

"With all respect for military achievements and the loyalty of our native population in German colonies, it is impossible to permit blacks to appear as teachers and orators before German youths."

U. S. Sailor Jailed.

E. W. WOOD.

BERLIN, July 16. — (AP) — E. W. Wood of New York, a midshipman of the U. S. battleship Wyoming, was arrested in the anti-Jewish riots last night and spent the night in jail. He was released today after paying a fine of 50 marks—about $20.

Wood said he was standing on a café terrace when a Jewish woman was felled. Another woman protested, the American said, whereupon she, too, was knocked down.

The man who struck her turned to Wood, he related, and asked:

"What do you think of that?"

The middie voiced his disapproval. The man persisted:

"What are you going to do about it?"

The fist fight started. Police intervened and arrested Wood, who could not say whether his adversary was seized.

NIPPERSINK CLUB AGAIN HELD UP BY BANDIT GANG

Holding up the Nippersink Hotel and Country club at Genoa City, Wis., 10 miles southeast of Lake Geneva, is becoming a habit of a gang of automobile bandits, presumably from Chicago. For the second time this month the robbers, four or five in number, cowed the attachés of the club early today and compelled them to surrender an undetermined amount of money from the safe. The manager, J. C. Smith, notified Sergt. Charles Steinle of the detective bureau of the robbery and asked that the Chicago police force be on the lookout for the bandits.

Smith said he identified two of the robbers as being members of a gang of five who held up the place on July 3 and escaped with $1,000 in cash. Two years ago the club was held up by five bandits who compelled seventy-five couples to lie on the floor and robbed them of $3,000.

Fat Men

I don't care how fat you are or how much you hate to get out and walk a couple of miles. If you will take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning before breakfast for 4 weeks and cut down on pastries, sugar and fatty meats—

You will feel so good—so energetic and the urge for activity will be so great that you will immensely enjoy a daily walk of several miles—and lose fat.

While you are losing fat you will be gaining in energy—in endurance—in ambition. Your skin will grow clearer and your eyes will sparkle with the good health that Kruschen brings.

Just try one bottle of Kruschen Salts; it will last you 4 weeks and costs but a trifle. After you have taken one bottle the old arm chair won't hold you any more—you'll enjoy work—you'll sleep like a top and by reducing surplus fat probably live years longer.

Fat Man Now Happy

"I have taken 3 bottles of Kruschen. I weighed 256. I reduced 56 lbs., and felt better each day, have got my 4th bottle." Ed. Jordan, Leveen, Ariz.

To take off fat harmlessly and SAFELY, take as directed above—don't worry—it's the safe way to reduce.

But be sure for your health's sake that you ask for and get Kruschen Salts. Get them at any drugstore in the world and if the results one bottle brings do not joyously satisfy you—why, money back.

ULSTERITES BEAT GUNMAN; FIRED ON FUNERAL LINE

BELFAST, Northern Ireland, July 16.—(AP)—Three shots fired as a funeral procession passed in the street today unleashed the fury of a crowd which wrecked a store in which the gunman was believed to be hiding. The crowd seized the suspected gunman and gave him a severe beating before police restored order by training a machine gun on the crowd.

The outburst followed a calm that led authorities to withdraw troops who had patroled the streets following the rioting generated by the celebration of the anniversary of the battle of the Boyne last Friday. The funeral was that of William Lyttle, Protestant victim of the four day Catholic-Protestant fighting which resulted in five deaths and the wounding of 140.

Narrow streets abutting into York street, the riot center, were boarded up to enable authorities to cut off any future trouble makers. Meanwhile, there was a violent reaction to the Ulster trouble in the Irish Free State, where Protestant shops were attacked. In Kenny, County Donegal, window smashing and fires caused damage estimated at $50,000.

JAP ARMY SPLIT; WAR MINISTER OUSTS GENERAL

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

TOKIO, July 16.—War Minister Senjuro Hayashi's effort to purge the army of foes and bring unity, which resulted in the expulsion of Gen. Jinzaburo Mazaki, inspector general of military education and one of the "big three" in the army, is creating a nation-wide sensation. It is revealing for the first time the bitter enmity of army groups.

The exact nature of Gen. Mazaki's actions against Hayashi which forced the latter to act is still unknown, and it is yet to be seen what action Mazaki and his followers will take.

It is agreed that many complicated circumstances forced Hayashi to resort to this drastic step. It is understood that Mazaki objected to personnel shifts Hayashi proposed inasmuch as these were aimed at placing Mazaki's key men where they would have the least influence. Hayashi was faced with a loss of confidence if he gave in to Mazaki's demands, as cries were heard in the ranks that the right men were not being put in the right places.

KILLERS' TRIALS SET IN DETROIT; FERRIS' JULY 23

Detroit, Mich., July 16.—[Special.]—The trials of confessed participants in two notorious Detroit slayings were set today after defense motions for delays had been overruled.

William Lee Ferris and his three "party girl" accomplices will go on trial July 23 for the $134 holdup slaying of Howard Carter Dickinson, New York attorney. Ferris, also known as Schweitzer, and the girls, Florence and Loretta Jackson, and Jean Miller, admitted luring their victim to his death in the belief he carried a large amount of money.

Merton Ward Goodrich, former inmate of an insane asylum, was ordered to trial tomorrow for the "trunk murder" of 11 year old Lillian Gallaher. Though a recorder's court psychiatrist today reported the confessed slayer sane, defense counsel plan to base their case on the contention Goodrich temporarily was insane at the time of the murder.

POPE SENDS HITLER STRONG PROTEST NOTE; CITES THREE POINTS

VATICAN CITY, July 16.—(AP)—A vigorous note of protest against Germany's alleged violation of the concordat with the Vatican has gone forward from this seat of Catholic authority. This was disclosed today.

The note objected to application of Nazi sterilization laws to Catholics, interference with the free existence of Catholic lay organizations, and attacks upon the freedom of the Catholic press in Germany.

Yesterday the newspaper Osservatore Romano published on its front page an editorial—believed inspired or written by the Vatican's state department—which cited the same three points of conflict. The article said the new development "will place on Catholics the necessity of preparing for religious attacks which will have the character of official hostility."

JAPS CLAIM NEW RIGHTS IN CHINA UNDER '33 TREATY

[Copyright: 1935: By the New York Times.]

SHANGHAI, July 16.—"I cannot give definite details, but under the terms of the Tangku truce, Japan has the right to establish not only civil aviation in China, but also several other enterprises, such as radio, telegraphs, and railroads," said a Japanese embassy spokesman today. This statement greatly enlarges the scope of the suspected but hitherto secret terms of the Tangku truce of 1933 and reaffirms the assertion of Maj. Gen. Rensuke Isogai, military attaché of the Japanese embassy, that among unfulfilled terms of the Tangku truce is the grant to Japan of the right to establish civil aviation in China.

PERSIA BREAKS PRIESTS' POWER; TAKES REVENUE

Moslems Allowed to Wear Shoes in Church.

BY H. BASIL.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

TEHERAN, Persia, July 16.—Another powerful blow against the centuries old influence of the mullahs, or Mohammedan priests, in Persia was recently landed by the government when it decreed that the masjids, or churches, shall have chairs, and that worshippers shall go into them with their hats off and shoes on, contrary to Mohammedan custom.

Shah Riza Kahn Pahlevi previously has done much to shatter the threatening power of the priests by diverting into government coffers revenues which formerly went to the priests.

Priests Lose Monopolies.

In the past Persian priests accumulated wealth by serving as judges in land and marriage disputes. Land transactions were a monopoly of the chief priests. But now marriage deeds and land transactions are registered at notary offices.

The priests' influence with millions of ignorant, easily fanaticized Persians made them a constant threat to the government and the fact that no uprising has followed the government's actions is taken as an indication that the priests have lost their influence with the masses.

The large revenues from church domains now go to hospitals and schools. As a result, divinity colleges are being closed for want of students, and thousands of students who cannot hope to live as mullahs or priests now are seeking government jobs or going back home.

Queen Appears with Hat.

Persian women are thrilled by the latest example of westernization set by their queen, who recently rode out in Teheran wearing not only a western dress—which is now her custom—but also a hat. Furthermore, she was without the veil and fine black silk shrouldlike garment [to cover the head and most of the body] which Persian women have traditionally worn.

The queen rode in her own car which was driven by her young daughter, who learned to drive in the extensive grounds once used as a harem.

The making of hats for women is already a brisk industry in Persia, and the Japanese Trading company is taking steps to supply this new market not only for women's hats but for men's hats as well.

Body of Rowboat Disaster Victim Is Washed Ashore

The body of Edward Borngraber, 43 years old, 9823 Avenue L, one of three men who have been missing since last Sunday when they went out on Lake Michigan in a row boat, was washed ashore late last night at 102d street. It was found by some swimmers who notified the coast guard. Mrs. Martha Borngraber, the victim's wife, identified the body. The other missing men are Austin Carlson, 10026 Avenue M, and Chester Siens, 8242 Crandon avenue. The capsized boat was found on Sunday a mile off the Hammond shore.

PERSECUTION AND THE SUPREME COURT.

News of the renewal of the anti-Jewish campaign in Germany is distressing to any one brought up in the tradition of liberty. It is also important news in the sense that there is a lesson in these persecutions which should not be lost upon American citizens.

In the kaiser's Germany there was some discrimination against Jews. They could not, as a practical matter, rise to positions of high responsibility in the army, and there were serious obstacles to their advancement in academic rank, but these discriminations and some others were extra-legal and, compared to what has been going on of late, inconsequential.

The constitution of the German republic reaffirmed religious tolerance and forbade discrimination between citizens on account of race or religion.

Then came Hitler. He disregarded these and most of the other provisions of his country's constitution and he has been able to get away with it partly because there was no Supreme court to declare acts of the executive or of his creature, the reichstag, unconstitutional.

In this country the Supreme court stands as the defender of minorities against oppressive laws and oppressive administrators. It must have the power to declare acts unconstitutional if it is to perform this service. If its power is taken away, racial and religious minorities in this country will be at the mercy of any party of intolerance which may be swept into power.

This is not an unimaginable danger. It is only a few years since the Ku Klux Klan, which was anti-Catholic, anti-Jewish, and anti-Negro, dominated the governments of several states and was a political power to be reckoned with in a dozen others. Know-Nothingism has a long history in this country. In our population there are tens of millions of citizens who themselves or whose immediate forbears came from lands which have submitted meekly to the rule of dictators. Neither the rise of a party of intolerance in this country nor the submission to it by the mass of the citizens is altogether unthinkable.

It is unthinkable that the Supreme court will ever yield to mob pressure by approving laws for the persecution of minorities. In this connection it is well to remember that every one is in a minority. A citizen, however wealthy and influential, is only one among 120 million. There is no one religious faith in the country that is in a majority. There is no national stock which is in a majority, unless it may be a combination of the English, the Irish, the Scots, and the Welsh. The largest state has barely a tenth of the whole population. The professional and business groups are each a tiny minority. All of organized labor together can muster scarcely 3 per cent of the population. Farmers are also a minority.

Over the rights of all these minorities, which is to say over the rights of every citizen, the Supreme court stands guard. To curb the court's power is to invite a reign of intolerance, persecution, and confiscation. There is a grim irony in the fact that among those who have been most vociferous in demanding the limitation of the court's power are some who might be the first to suffer if the right of the court to declare acts unconstitutional were taken away.

THE TRAIN TRAVEL PICKUP.

An interesting dispatch from Washington, reproduced in THE SUNDAY TRIBUNE, informed us that tourist trafic was showing some gratifying gains. The railroads of the country have reported an increase of twenty-one per cent in travel, registering the first substantial upturn in railway passenger travel since 1920. History will write that railway passenger revenues steadily declined from 1920 to 1934, halted in the latter year, and commenced an upward swing in 1935.

But the heavy increases have not been general. The 1935 passenger trafic on the western railroads showed such substantial increases over 1934 that they were able to offset some meager figures submitted by the eastern railroads, and thereby hangs a tale. In the rejuvenation of railway transportation the western and southern roads appealed to the public first with lower fares and later with radical departures in equipment. To be sure, the eastern roads have increased train speeds to some extent and are offering air conditioned trains, but they have done nothing about their fares. After all, it was lower cost transportation that induced the public to venture longer and longer distances in the private automobile, and it is only on a comparative cost basis that railroads can expect to recover lost patronage. The western and southern lines developed this theory and proved it. The tenacity with which the eastern lines hold to the peak basis of 3.6 cents per mile now borders on bullheadedness.

AN ALL-AMERICAN ROUTE TO EUROPE.

The obstacles which French air interests have placed in the way of Pan-American Airways' proposed trans-Atlantic service may be regarded as a blessing in disguise. Pan-American, the most experienced ocean flying organization in the world, had planned to send its planes to Europe by way of Bermuda, the Azores, and Lisbon. The French blocked this through the exclusive concession in the Azores which they obtained nine years ago from Portugal.

The south Atlantic air route is obsolete. Its principal advantage, that of dividing the route into a series of hops between islands, recommended it in the fledgling days of air transport, but it is rapidly becoming unimportant. As a route from American population centers to those of western Europe it goes around Robin Hood's barn to reach its destination.

American aviation is ready today to bridge the Atlantic, and it should do it by an all-American all-water route. This route should cross the north, not the south, Atlantic, following as closely as possible the short great circle. It should leap from Portland, Me., direct to London or the British coast. New York and Chicago passengers should be transferred at Portland.

A few years ago the over water distance of the north Atlantic route, and the bad weather encountered on it, gave the circuitous south Atlantic route some advantages. American planes now in use, or at most those now in design, are sufficiently powerful and reliable to overcome both these former disadvantages of the northern route.

A BAD ACT VETOED.

Gov. Horner vetoed the act which would have extended the immunity of privileged communications to newspaper reporters and editors. They would not have been required to disclose the source of their information in court or before the grand jury. Their association with criminals would have been legally protected. It was a bad act and would have been bad law. The veto was right and proper, although some of the governor's reasoning in support of it was erroneous.

The already privileged class includes lawyers and the clergy. The lawyer's privilege is not his. It is the defendant's. It allows the accused to consult freely for his defense and it rests on the assumption that he has been brought to answer. If he is a criminal he has been apprehended and is to be tried. The privilege should not protect the lawyer in concealing the person from the law officers, aiding in his escape, or refusing to disclose his hiding place. Here the fugitive has no privileges and his lawyer has none. The statute should be redrafted to plug up holes through which a lawyer can work hindrance of justice.

In our principles of law there is no justification for clerical immunity. In the middle ages, when the secular arm was a tough one and its victims were many, sanctuary was granted by the church as an institution of mercy. The right of asylum was a mitigation of the cruelty of princes. Benefit of clergy was the right of the church to try even its own clerks. There has survived the idea that a man, however wicked, should be given the privilege of making his peace with God, that he can do so only by penitent confession, and that he must be protected in seeking divine forgiveness, although he is to be punished here on earth for his sins. The clergy should hold that the first requirement of spiritual relief is submission to justice, and they should enforce it.

The newspaper act proposed to extend the privilege of communication to reporters and editors. Gov. Lehman in New York signed such an act. It is bad law. It is bad public policy and it is bad for the newspaper profession. It is the open road to crookedness. In theory it would permit a reporter to get valuable information which he might not get unless he could assure his informant that the source of the news would not be made known. In fact, it would permit newspapers to protect criminals and would encourage crooked newspaper men to blackmail them.

Criminals, unfortunately for society, are not outside the law. They are too much inside of it. They have their connections with politicians and lawyers for profits on both sides. The immunities are their privileges and work to their advantage. What is needed is the abolition, not the spreading out, of these faults.

TRADE RESTRICTIONS THAT CUT TWO WAYS.

[Des Moines Register.]

World trade statistics just released by the league of nations demonstrate anew the danger of inferring too much from the morsels of specific information which reach us from day to day—particularly if the sources of such information are subject to propagandization. The league report covers world commerce in 1934.

Now, any one who has observed the extreme economic nationalism of the Nazi government, with its rigid system of quotas, exchange control, and other restrictions upon imports from other countries, would naturally assume that imports into Germany have been reduced tremendously, and that the government export subsidies have produced a great increase in merchandise shipments out of that country. As a matter of fact, Germany's imports in 1929 were 9 per cent of the world total—and this had been reduced by 1934 to 8.7 per cent! On the other side, Germany's export percentage of the world total actually shrank from 10 per cent in 1929 to 9 per cent last year.

We have been hearing a loud hubbub about the menace of Japanese competition for world markets. What do the figures show? Well, Japan ranked eighth among all the nations in volume of imports in 1929. Last year she had climbed to sixth place! On the other hand, she ranked seventh both years in volume of goods exported to other nations.

Changes in national percentages since 1929 have been negligible; it is the difference in total volume which holds the real key to the situation. Last year this was only 77.5 per cent of the 1929 total. In other words, nationalistic extremism has failed to accomplish its purpose of reducing the imports of individual nations and at the same time increasing their exports, but it has been effective in one respect. It has certainly produced a ponderable decline in the total volume of international commerce.

If the nationalists can find anything in that to brag about, we'll be surprised.

LOVE SONNETS OF A LIGHT-MINDED LYRIST.

I.

Addressing you, my lord, in stately rhyme
Is not the easy task it might have been
When poets walked among the springing thyme
And sentiment was not a mortal sin.
I cannot sing you blossoms on the bough
Nor yet the wavelets bubbling on the shore;
I dare not weave a chaplet for your brow
Unless I would be thought a deadly bore;
A dainty ballad bright with birds and bees
Would spell eternal ruin to my fame;
We are concerned with truer things than these
Who know that life is death and honor shame
And all good songs are songs of disappointment,
Of badly rifted lutes, of flies in ointment.

II.

And seeing I am no apothecary
And no great friend to ointment nor to flies,
And have had little wit enough to marry
Where love is light and generous and wise,
And am a stranger to the knitted brow,
The heaving bosom's pain, the muttered curse,
The sick and lurching heart, the broken vow,
How much can be expected of my verse?
What would you have, my lord, who need no tether,
Who fill my days with merriment and books,
Who keep your execrations for the weather,
And for your garden all your passionate looks?
Surely no sight can stir the Muses less
Than two calm heads suspended over chess.

III.

"Fantastic life, this bubble for the breaking,
This curious toy to have or cast aside,
This tortured smile above a ceaseless aching,
This ragged garment worn with piteous pride,
Is't not the mocking of a maddened master
Driving his cringing slaves with whip and goad
Furiously toward their ultimate disaster
Over a wild and midnight-darkened road?"
—So say they all, the bards grown hoarse with wailing
Of death, frustration, and ironic hope;
But I, who find some pleasure quite unfailing,
Forbear to struggle and refuse to grope,
Unable to believe it strictly true
While yet the world holds chocolates and you.

IV.

I love you; make the most of it; 'tis true.
What would you have me say? that I am blind,
Deaf, dumb, and crippled out of sight of you,
And, seeing you, have nothing else in mind?
That I would rather die than quit your side,
That I do die, in sooth, a little death
Each time you leave me; that my only pride
Is loving you, your life my only breath?
Ah, good my lord, if that you dream of such
Extravagance, you dream of wordy waste;
I love you, and I love you very much;
Exaggerate it to your personal taste,
And wonder—being masculine and human—
Why simple truth should so alarm a woman.

V.

Man's love is of man's life a thing apart,
'Tis woman's whole existence. . . . If you please;
Far be it from my still ungrudging heart
To rob you of such purring words as these.
Even Lord Byron—may his rest be sound!—
Lies for this deed beneath no curse of mine;
He was a man, and spoke in nature bound,
With innocence less human than divine.
Quote him again, I beg, and yet once more,
So long as you shall find it bring you cheer;
And I shall blush and droop my lashes lower
And make responses pleasing to your ear,
Knowing this simplest of all simple poses
Is always good for some three dozen roses.

VI.

What if I have made friends of love and laughter,
That anciently have been such bitter foes,
And sent my merry verses flying after
Your bated words like arrows after crows?
What if I have not met your sighs with sighing
Nor once protested bliss too great to bear?
Comfort yourself with thinking I am lying
And still make reticence my foremost care. . . .
Comfort yourself in any way you choose;
This love is greater treasure than you know,
A thing of patterns and dissolving views
Clashing in fine kaleidoscopic show,
And those not lurid and not too confusing
Are definitely of the most amusing.

DOROTHY KISSLING.

HORACE WALPOLE was right! I never realized it so much as I did in reading "A Rebel War Clerk's Diary." The diary was kept by a funny little old gossip who was an assistant something or other in the Confederate war office between 1861 and '65. It's immensely interesting and all the more so because the war clerk set down in his diary, which he kept religiously every day for four years, all the scraps and oddments of information and misinformation that came to his widely distended and eager ears. It's valuable because it records not the true record of those days—you can get that from a hundred different sources now—but what the excited and sometimes very credulous people in Richmond thought at the time was the truth. Which is why I am reminded of the sage observation of Mr. Walpole: "The trouble with living in your own time is that you never know what's happened until after you're dead."

CIGARETS are so much the usual things nowadays that when we see a man smoking a cigar we think he's either escaped from some circus sideshow or that he's on his way over to somebody's psychopathic hospital to give himself up. But what cigar smokers think of us cigaret puffers! Please don't ask them!

THIS SLEEP BUSINESS.

SLEEPLESSNESS is a fairly common symptom and the condition arises frequently because the individual has established a vicious cycle which began with the query, "Will I sleep tonight?" If one will concentrate on this question hard enough and long enough daylight will appear and the answer will be "No." Midnight arrives without sleep, then one o'clock, with the thoughts still foaming. "How rotten I will feel tomorrow," says the insomniac. By this time he is desperate. He wanders about, tries to read, or counts sheep. Fears and apprehensions race through his mind. "What's that—only a bird twittering; it's getting light outside," then a full chorus of bird calls, the rattle of the milk wagon, and another day has dawned. Perhaps exhaustion has finally brought an hour or two of sleep, but far too little for the tasks of a new day. This may be repeated for a few nights, after which sleeplessness becomes an obsession. The more one chases sleep the faster it flees.

Some time ago an inquiry came in asking for remedies for insomnia; suggestions were invited and hundreds were received. They ran all the way from a nightcap [liquid or flannel] to delectable onion stew taken at bedtime. When advised of the proposed remedies one unfeeling correspondent replied that he preferred to keep his insomnia.

If one can secure eight hours of sleep—fine; but if only six or seven come naturally this amount may be adequate. Thomas A. Edison, who was a notoriously poor sleeper, lived to be over 80.

But you say, "I am so restless. I toss and turn." Experiments conducted by the Mellon institute have shown that the normal sleeper changes his position about 35 times in eight hours. Muscles stretch and relax, joints bend, and the individual turns from side to side.

Sleeplessness is not a disease, although it may be a symptom of some underlying condition, such as arteriosclerosis accompanied by high blood pressure, as was described in yesterday's article. More often than not it is a nervous reflex that has upset the physiology of the brain in the region of the hypothalamus. There is some evidence that disturbances in this area, particularly the potassium-calcium balance, prevent sleep.

In attempting to find the cause of sleeplessness we should examine our eating habits. Subconscious pain or discomfort will banish sleep. Sometimes insomnia is present because of the accumulation of waste products within the blood upsetting normal chemical balance.

Whenever sleeplessness is due to worry, to reliving the day that has passed and planning the day that is to come, there is set up a train of disconnected ideas no one of which is worth while and all of which constitute a confused jumble that is mentally disconcerting.

For this pernicious type of wakefulness some hypnotic should be used, and there are many that are harmless in their action and that can be taken if need be over a considerable period of time. Drugs, however, are harmful if good hygiene is neglected. As soon as the victim has control of himself and has reestablished a normal régime sedatives will no longer be needed.

Self-training is the remedy for the individual who is convinced that he cannot sleep. He should follow a specific plan, which includes a light evening meal followed by a quiet, restful period. The half-hour before retiring should be spent in light exercise, walking in the open air preferred. When ready for bed a cupful of hot milk sipped slowly will prove comforting. The bedroom should receive an adequate supply of cool air and the surroundings must be quiet and absolutely dark.

It is assumed, of course, that the bed is comfortable and that all disturbing physical factors will be eliminated, such as headache, cold or aching feet, heavy bed clothing, poorly fitting night clothes, or itching of various parts of the body. Proceed with the bedtime hygiene in a leisurely, orderly manner.

INSECT BITES AND STINGS.

R. P. D. uses ice to relieve itching of insect bites.

S. P. suggests the use of soap containing some form of grit [sand soap] for lesions caused by insect bites.

REPLY.

O. K., S. P., if the skin is tough and will not be injured. Insect bites generally heal readily. Many of the difficulties that arise from them come from planting bacteria in the outer layers of the skin through scratching with soiled finger nails. The use of soap and water and a bit of sterile gauze will usually suffice to prevent infection.

FINGER NAILS.

T. F. C. writes: Is a transparent discoloration of the finger nails a symptom of disease? If not, what causes the condition?

REPLY.

There are two or three conditions of the finger tips that should be investigated. Some general systematic disease such as arthritis, which causes the blood vessels into the nail bed to recede, leaving the distal half or third of the nail white, may be the cause. The same effect is produced if a fungus, such as ringworm, is present.

FROM ACROSS THE SEA

BY JOHN STEELE.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON.—The British army, navy and air force is to be armed within the next few weeks with one of the most powerful weapons ever devised for control by one man.

This is the paired duplicate Lewis gun. The gun is comprised of two pairs of Lewis guns mounted on a tripod whether in use on land, at sea or in the air. The platform is surmounted by a turntable allowing the weapon a wide sweep of either the seas, the landscape or the sky. Only one gunner is needed to control this gun, which is fed by machinery with cartridges from a belt. The machine is a sort of robot. As soon as the machinery is set in motion the bullets fly from the mouth of the four guns. If desired only two or even one can be used.

Certain experiments recently have been tried, however, when even the human factor has been eliminated from control [though the operator was present in case of need] and both the directing and the feeding of the gun have been made automatic by wireless control. This has applied only to the aerial gun.

In the navy the gun has two purposes. The first is as an anti-aircraft weapon. The second is in routine work against gun runners in the eastern oceans, dope runners, and Chinese and Arab pirates. The gun is the invention of an officer in the royal Indian marine employed for a long time against Arab gun runners. The torrent of bullets from the multiple gun can tear the sails of a junk or a dhow to ribbons.

The uses to which it can be put by land forces are obvious. It can rake the enemy's advance, one man doing the work done in the past by almost a dozen. Its one deficiency is in mobility. Because of its weight tractors will be needed for maneuvering.

PROPERTY REDEMPTION.

Chicago, July 10.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—There is a vacant cottage in my neighborhood which I am thinking of buying. The owner tells me there are back taxes and assessments due over a period of three or four years. As owner lives in another state, I would like to do some investigating. When a property is sold for taxes [1] how do I redeem it? Must the amount due on taxes and assessments be paid [2] at once and [3] in full? 4. Could I pay them as I go along and earn the money? 5. Where and how can I check up what is due on the property? 6. Can the owner sell this property if first mortgage owners are minors? 7. How can I find out name and address of first mortgage owner? F. E.

1. The first step is to apply to the county clerk for an estimate for redemption. The officials there can direct you as to subsequent steps.

2. No, in the sense that two years are allowed for redemption from a tax sale.

3. Yes, in the sense that the title would not be clear until you have paid in full.

4. See preceding answers.

5. It is nearly always advisable for the purchaser of real estate to employ an attorney throughout, and we advise you to employ one now.

6. Yes, he can sell his interest, subject to the mortgage.

7. If the broker refuses to tell you, we see no way to force the information otherwise than by bankruptcy proceedings and your letter makes no showing that such proceedings would be applicable.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

TENANT IN COMMON.

Chicago, July 12.—[Legal Friend of the People.—1. If a home i in the name of a married woman, a tenant in common, [2] can a deficiency decree be had against her husband if the mortgage is not paid? Property is in Illinois.

T. D. W.

1. The phrase "tenant in common" implies that the title is held in undivided shares by two parties. This seems inconsistent with your statement that the home is in the name of the woman.

2. A deficiency decree can be entered against the parties whose names are signed to the notes.

The DEBUNKER

By John Harvey Furbay, Ph. D.

It is a popular indoor sport of many people to declare how man is outdone by all the animal world in every line of endeavor. This is particularly true of discussions on aviation. But the facts are that modern aviators fly faster than any birds known, and also fly higher. In addition, aviators do many kinds of "stunt flying" that are not done by any of the birds. Our aviators are constantly improving their flying—and this is more than we can say for the birds.

77-B AND 74-B.

Chicago, July 11.—A recent editorial in THE TRIBUNE set forth a glaring instance of the injustice of the Frazier-Lemke farm loan act, later held unconstitutional by the Supreme court. That law, bad as it was, was nothing compared to the new bankruptcy laws known as 77-B and 74-B.

I will suggest that you have an investigator visit a few hearings before the referees in bankruptcy if you wish to see what can be done to a contract. These referees, in working out "a plan" under the so-called bankruptcy act, which is not really a bankruptcy law at all, compel mortgage holders to reduce their rate of interest, extend the time of payment of the principal, and in many cases waive payment of interest already accumulated. All this is done under the guise of administering a bankrupt estate.

The purpose of bankruptcy laws, as every one knows, is to permit a debt ridden person to rehabilitate himself by surrendering all of his property to the court. It never was the purpose to permit the debtor to retain all of his property while discharging him from the obligations of his contract. The national administration should have some regard for mortgage holders who have all their savings invested in mortgage securities.

STANLEY J. SZARMACH.

THE SMITH FAMILY.

Chicago, July 10.—I read the early edition of W. G. N. every night and the first thing I do, in order to get some laughs, is to turn to the editorial page.

Today's editorial, "The Smith Family and the Gift Tax," for instance, is typical.

Poor Jane Smith! The government proposes to tax her $32,000 should her father decide to present her with $100,000 in order that they may dodge another tax under the law. Jane will only have $3,500 yearly. Isn't that just too bad; the poor girl could hardly afford a yacht on this income.

Mr. Smith, you say, built up the prosperous business himself and is now worth a million. How absurd. What about the workmen who helped him build this business and who were exploited under the system in order to accumulate this wealth, and what about their daughters?

In your recent headlines I noticed where a certain dollar princess inherited 40 million. After running around all over Europe she gets herself a Russian title. She got rid of him via Reno. A few hours after her divorce she ups and gets herself a Danish title. Behold the countess!

Why shouldn't this 40 million dollar inheritance be taxed to the limit for the benefit of the thousands of young girls who were exploited and slaved for $7 a week in order to make this inheritance possible?

GEORGE NICHOLIS.

FOR GROWN-UP LAWS.

Chicago, July 9.—I see by the front page in today's TRIBUNE that Huey claims the President stole his "divide the wealth" scheme, which he thought up when he was only 14 years old. That explains it. But I'm wondering when we are going to get some mature legislation?

W. D. THOMPSON.

BIRTH CONTROL.

Oak Park, Ill., July 10.—In this morning's Voice of the People a defense of birth control in the name of "tolerance" brings out well the incorrect and loose thinking so characteristic of many today. The author shows a lack of knowledge of Catholic theology, confuses the natural law with the positive, and draws a very illogical conclusion regarding freedom of belief.

Catholic theology does not forbid all birth control; it advocates it in certain cases, but it does forbid artificial, or unnatural, birth control. This is no arbitrary ruling, but rather a dictate of the natural law which binds all men. Artificial birth control is immoral for the same reason lying or murder is immoral because the natural law, knowable by reason alone, forbids it. And so immutable is this law that God himself cannot change it. Thus it differs from such positive laws as not eating pork, or keeping Saturday holy rather than Sunday.

Nor are we free to believe what we please about this any more than we are free to believe two plus two equals three, or five, or six. If absolute freedom of belief must be had in religion, then so too in all other sciences. If teaching that artificial birth control is wrong destroys man's liberty of conscience, then so does teaching a child that two plus two make four destroy his freedom. Yet no one claims our schools are destroying our children's freedom. Liberty is no license; even freedom of belief is restricted by truth.

JOHN THOMAS.

WHAT MAKES A BUILDING BOOM?

Chicago, July 12. — Notwithstanding optimistic statements by various realtors, a 306 per cent increase in building permits shown in financial sections of metropolitan newspapers, pictures of new type homes in magazines, tons of printed propaganda from Washington, discovery of rare fabrics by leading universities revolutionizing building, and pep talks by representatives of the Federal Housing administration, building permits in the city of Chicago for the first six months of this year totaled only $5,604,000.

From 1926 to 1930, without the aid of promotional geniuses, carnival men, ballyhoo, etc., building permits in Chicago totaled $360,000,000 per year, or $1,000,000 per day. Today we are doing approximately one-thirty-second of the amount of building that we did in 1926. Radio addresses, picturesque literature, and housing administrations cannot revive it. The basic wrong must be righted.

With rents at the 1916 level, it is only reasonable to assume that before the builder will risk his life savings in new buildings the cost of construction, both material and labor, must be reduced to the 1916 level. Then and not until that time will we see brick trucks passing through the streets of Chicago.

JOHN J. MANGAN.

CHICAGO HEIGHTS EX-CLERK FOUND $100,000 SHORT

W. J. Sadler Accused for Third Time.

Mayor Joseph Gannon of Chicago Heights announced yesterday that he would seek the indictment of Wilbur J. Sadler, former city clerk of the suburb, on a charge of embezzlement. A complete audit finished yesterday by Wolf & Co. of Chicago revealed a shortage of $100,000 in Sadler's books, the mayor said.

A. J. Fulton, who directed the audit for the Wolf company, reported to the mayor that "mysterious entries" in the books probably would prevent setting an exact figure on the total embezzlement. The present audit marks the third time that Sadler has been in trouble through shortages in his books.

Shortage Made Up in 1933.

He resigned under fire in August, 1933, after 12 years' service when it was discovered that he could not account for $24,016 of Chicago Heights funds. Friends came to his rescue at the time, the shortage was made up by contributions and he was never prosecuted.

An increasing clamor among political foes brought another investigation of the Sadler accounts in 1934. An auditor was set to work to study specific items and a second embezzlement of $26,000 was brought to light.

Sadler was indicted on a charge of embezzlement and brought to trial in the Criminal court. Defense attorneys, however, were able to show that the statute of limitations made him immune from prosecution on all the alleged embezzlements except $199.

Pleads Guilty, Gets Probation.

He pleaded guilty to embezzling the $199 and was let off with a year on probation. Nothing further was done in the matter until Mayor Gannon succeeded Mayor Daniel P. Bergin last spring. Then a complete audit was ordered, with the resulting discovery of the missing $100,000.

HEARS WIDOW'S CLAIM TODAY IN STRAUB MURDER

Hearing on the $4,000 compensation claim of Mrs. Helen Straub, widow of Louis K. Straub, slain bartender at the Saddle and Cycle club, will be held today by the Illinois industrial commission in the offices at 205 West Wacker drive. Straub was found shot to death Feb. 3 in the club at 5201 Sheridan road.

Attorney Henry L. Kane, who represents the Employers' Liability Assurance company of Boston, Mass., announced yesterday that 52 witnesses have been subpenaed by the insurance company to prove that the bartender was slain because of his private affairs and not in the course of his employment. Mr. Kane said he would ask the commission to transfer the hearing to the club so they may have a better picture of the slaying scene.

Suits by the widow to collect $23,000 life insurance from two companies are pending in federal court.

Maurice C. Lipman Named to State Education Post

Maurice C. Lipman, 1120 East 52d street, principal of the Irving school, 2140 Lexington street, has been appointed assistant state superintendent of public instruction by State Superintendent John A. Weiland, according to an announcement received here yesterday. Lipman, a graduate of the University of Chicago, has taught in the Chicago school system for thirty years.

FREEDOM HEARING DELAYED

Stephenson in Court

La Porte, Ind., July 16.—[Special.]—The latest effort of D. C. Stephenson, a political giant in Indiana a decade ago but now serving a life term for the murder of Madge Oberholtzer, to gain his freedom was delayed four weeks when Circuit Judge Wirt Worden ordered his habeas corpus petition be made more specific. Judge Worden will hear arguments on his amended petition in court here on Aug. 12.

Both Stephenson and his new attorney, Alban Smith of La Porte, were pleased with today's proceedings and expressed confidence in their ability to submit a petition that will stand up under legal fire. Stephenson, convicted and sentenced nearly ten years ago, has tried repeatedly to gain his freedom on various lgal grounds. Each time his plea has been denied.

The current effort is the first attempt under the present Democratic state administration. Observers see in it considerable change in the attitude of the state from a stand of "keep this man behind bars" to a less harsh position. They point to the fact that today's attack by Attorney General Phillip Lutz Jr. was only to make Stephenson's plea more specific.

It always has been the contention that Stephenson "knew too much about Republicans." Seemingly there is no motive for Democrats to keep him in prison.

INDICT H. F. PETIT, EX-TREASURER OF M'HENRY COUNTY

Harry F. Petit, treasurer of McHenry county from 1930 to 1934, was charged with withholding $10,668 in county funds in an indictment returned before Circuit Judge Edward D. Shurtleff yesterday in Woodstock.

In a second case now pending before the grand jury Frank J. Hendricks, who was county treasurer from 1926 to 1930, is charged with withholding $6,415 in county funds. Petit and Hendricks each served as chief deputy for the other when not holding the treasurership.

Civil suits to recover a total of $17,083 have been filed by the county against Hendricks and Petit. Attorney William Pierce, representing Petit, filed a general denial of the charges in the civil suit yesterday. Hendricks has made no answer as yet.

Oldest Postmaster in U. S. Dies in East at 91

Blawenburg, N. J., July 16.—[Special.]—John Nevius Van Zandt, the oldest postmaster in the country, both in point of service and years, died today after a month's illness. Mr. Van Zandt was postmaster here since 1866. He would have been 91 Aug. 17.

INDICT FORMER BANK OFFICER IN PERJURY CASE

Joseph W. Slomer, 417 Hull court, Waukegan, former vice president of the defunct Waukegan State bank, was charged with perjury in an indictment returned yesterday before Circuit Judge Edward D. Shurtleff in Woodstock. Bail was fixed at $2,500.

The charge against Slomer grew out of his testimony in an election contest before County Judge Charles Allen of McHenry county. Lester Siedschlag, who was defeated for the position of supervisor of Burton township by five votes by Frank May, demanded a recount, charging fraud.

Slomer is manager of the Coleman Country club at Spring Grove, 7 miles northeast of the village of McHenry, where he lives part of the time. He voted in the supervisor election in April, claiming Spring Grove as his residence and asserting that he did not vote in the city primary of Waukegan in February. The poll book, which was introduced in evidence at the recount, showed that Slomer's name appeared as having obtained a ballot in the Waukegan election.

ESSER, FORMER AURORA BANKER, TO BE PAROLED

John L. Esser, sentenced to Joliet penitentiary in January, 1928, for embezzling $530,000 from the Aurora Trust and Savings bank of Aurora while he was its president, will be paroled from the prison on July 1, 1936, it was announced yesterday by Warden Frank D. Whipp. Esser, who admitted at the time of his conviction that he had spent the money on gay living, was sentenced to serve from 4 to 40 years on four charges. He has been paroled on three charges after serving the minimum sentences, and now is serving his sentence under the fourth charge. Esser has been chauffeur for the assistant warden of the prison for the last two years. Warden Whipp was notified of Esser's release date by the state board of pardons and paroles.

5 and 10 Romance Told at Columbus.

Columbus, O., July 16.—[Special.]—A romance began in a Columbus 5 and 10 cent store, involving K. M. James Lin, son of the president of China and Miss Viola Brown, a salesgirl. Today it was learned here a marriage license was issued Sunday for them in Kentucky.

Lin is a student at Ohio State university's summer school.

"So clever," he chuckled, as it was explained how the news had been obtained. "I'll tell you all about it."

Says Kentuckian Helped.

"It is true," Lin said, "but I wish no publicity.

"It was arranged during the recent junior association of commerce convention here. A Kentucky delegate [whom he declined to name[ made it possible."

No definite date has been set for the wedding, Lin said. He added:

"I have written to my parents in China, asking their consent. But I don't expect a reply for another six weeks; it takes sever. weeks to complete delivery of mail. I was anxious to withhold news of the romance until I received an answer."

Lin said he felt confident his parents would agree with him. "My life is my own," he declared.

Honesty Thrills Lin.

Miss Brown explained how the romance began at a McCrory 5 and 10 cent store in April when Lin lost his billfold at Miss Brown's counter. Lin returned to the store and was informed by the management that it had been returned intact to the office.

Impressed by Miss Brown's honesty, he asked to meet her, but at the time she was out to lunch. Lin returned the next day.

"Such a lady should be rewarded for her honesty. I should like to show my gratitude and perhaps help her accomplish a better position. She is worthy of your best society," Lin said at that time.

"O, no, Mr. Lin didn't ask me for a date at the time," Miss Brown said, "when he did . . . it wasn't by telephone, either," she explained.

News of the marriage license was a distinct surprise to Viola's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brown.

"If they got a license, I don't know anything about it. They go out often, but that's their business," the father said.

Escaped Indiana Convict Held as Robber After Battle

Clyde Lamb, 25 years old, alias James Wilson, an escaped convict from the Indiana state prison, was held to the grand jury yesterday by Judge Matthew D. Hartigan in the Felony court in bonds of $75,000 on three charges of robbery. Lamb was captured here in a battle with police after he escaped them three times. Three filling station attendants identified him.

4 HALT TRIAL TO PLEAD GUILTY IN HOLDUP KILLING

As a jury was being selected and qualified to inflict the death penalty for the murder in a tavern robbery last May 31 of Policeman Thomas Kelma, four men yesterday afternoon pleaded guilty of the crime before Judge Rudolph F. Desort in the Criminal court. By agreement between the prosecutors and defense attorneys, life sentences are to be imposed on Frank Bankes, 28 years old, leader of the gang, who fired the actual shot; Jerry Reporto, 24, and Edward Darlak, 25. Thomas Arelamo, 22 years old, chauffeur for the gang, is to be sentenced to 14 years in the penitentiary, if Judge Desort elects to follow the recommendation of the state's attorney's office. Sentence was deferred, however, until after the robbery trial of a fifth, Jack Liberty.

Policeman Kelma of the Maxwell street station was in citizen's clothing in a tavern at 2023 South Ashland avenue when the bandits entered. The policeman drew his revolver, but was mortally wounded when Bankes fired two shots at him.

The murderers were arrested on anonymous information given to Capt. John Norton of the Maxwell street police.

EUROPE IN LATE SUMMER LURES CHICAGO GROUPS

Liners Packed Even After Season's Peak.

BY FREDERIC BABCOCK.

This week saw the beginning of the end of the record-breaking travel rush to Europe, but even after the peak had been passed a number of the liners were still carrying capacity loads of passengers. This was ascribed to the fact that many Americans prefer the old world in late summer and early autumn, after the tourist throngs have departed.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Cassels and their children, Elizabeth and Edwin Jr., will sail today on the United States liner Manhattan for a visit with their daughter, Mrs. L. W. Winship, who lives in France.

Others Bound for Europe.

On the way over the Cassels will encounter some three dozen other Chicagoans, including Mrs. Joseph Dreber and Mrs. Theresa Whipper, who are Paris bound; Miss Margaret Fitzgerald, who will do Ireland; Mrs. Maurice Ryan and her daughter, who will tour Ireland, England, and the continent; William McHenry and Miss Eridy McHenry, who will spend the rest of the summer on the British Isles; Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Fuller and their daughter, Shirley; Delmar J. Hill, T. J. Prendergast, Thomas MacNamara, Miss Elizabeth Lochner, Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Klein, and Mrs. A. A. Wetter. Miss Jeannette Eltinger, who has been visiting her parents here, is returning to resume newspaper work in Paris.

Many travelers rush through the Dolomites without stopping, but Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Haffenberg have visited Italy often enough to know that those mountains are worth a month or more of their time. Leaving next Tuesday on the Italian liner Conte di Savoia, they will debark at Genoa and proceed directly to the Dolomites for a lengthy stay. Fellow passengers will include Miss Josephine Zitella, who plans to devote three months to study at the University of Rome; Mrs. F. W. Fendrick and Mrs. Helen Hartner, who will make the rounds of the Italian art galleries, and the Misses Olga Achtenhagen and Geneva Bluemichen, both of Appleton, Wis.

Off for Vacation in Sweden.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Bowen and their daughter, Lutitia, will board the Ile de France Saturday for a vacation to be spent largely in Sweden. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fox and their daughter, Lucille, on the same French liner, will make a 52-day tour of England, France, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, and Czechoslovakia. Leon Smoller and his mother, Mrs. B. Smoller, will take in Moscow in the course of their journey.

On the Cunard-White Star Line's Laconia when it sets sail Friday will be Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hart, who plan to visit the scenes of Mr. Hart's boyhood in counties Kent and Sussex, and Miss Lulu Wright and Mrs. Harriet Cogswell, who will spend some time with friends in London. On the Majestic when it leaves the same day will be Mr. and Mrs. Gustavus Babson and Edwin Clayton, all bound for England.

The Statendam of the Holland America Line left New York last night with a full load of voyagers to England, France, and Holland. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Louis L. Dent, Miss Catherine Dent, William F. Evans, and the Misses Edith and Bertha Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ainsworth, Mrs. Arthur Lowenstein, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Gottlieb with their sons, Robert and Richard; Mrs. B. J. O. Schrieke, Mrs. Herbert L. Stern and Miss Marjorie Stern, Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Plankeel, and Mr. and Mrs. Max Kargman. Miss Julia Riser was in charge of 14 Alpha Gamma Delta sorority members setting out for an extended European tour. The group included the Misses Marion and Frances Rusk, Leonore McNamare, Judy Thornton, Blanche Deas, and Edith Robinson. Returning on the Statendam last Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. John M. Trainer, who were married recently in Stockholm.

Singer Sails for Lithuania.

Miss Barbara de Angelis, Chicago soprano, sailed aboard the Aquitania for Lithuania. She will sing in musical festivals in Memel and other cities in that country. Miss Pauline Carter was on the American Scantic Line's Scanstates, bound for Copenhagen, Leningrad, Stockholm, and Helsingfors.

June of this year broke all travel records for that month in Bermuda, and the volume of trafic for the year promises to exceed that of 1931, which scored the high water mark. On the Furness liner Monarch of Bermuda when it left for the islands last Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Morris, R. R. Leach, Miss Alice Wright, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. M. Haberkorn, Mrs. J. C. Haberkorn, and Miss J. Haberkorn, all of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Franke Jr., William Franke, and Miss Betty Kulka, all of Milwaukee.

Making its first cruise since it was taken over by the Anchor Line, the Transylvania sailed Saturday for a two weeks' cruise to the Canadian north capes and Bermuda. Among the 500 passengers were Judge and Mrs. Martin M. Gridley of Evanston.

COOL OF CANYON GIVES STRENGTH TO AUTO PILGRIM

Tribune Auto Makes Run to Yellowstone.

BY HAL FOUST.

Yellowstone National Park, Wyo., July 16.—[Special.]—Before arriving at the largest of Uncle Sam's recreational areas, experience has contradicted earlier reports from THE TRIBUNE roadster's trip with this summer's record flow of tourists westward. There is indeed pleasure to be found in eating and sleeping in the open.

There Are Hardships, Too.

THE TRIBUNE roadster was on a 6,000 foot descent from the Big Horn range of the Rocky mountains. The sun from the west beat through the windshield, roasting the driver and blinding his eyes. Hands, arms, and shoulders were sore from twelve hours at the wheel.

It was time for a halt, at least a pause, for something to eat, but the closest town, a mere village, Lovell, Wyo., called for 26 miles more of this 15 mile an hour driving. The roadster was turned from the highway, U. S. 14, into the mouth of a canyon.

A hundred yards from the highway the car could go no farther and it was parked beside a splashing cascade saded by pines and poplars.

Later it was learned that a delicious drink of water was supplied by Five Springs creek, named from its source, five lush fountains of melted snow filtered by underground passage from the peaks.

A fire was built under a grate. A pound of bacon, or at least a half pound, was placed in a dutch oven. There was time to enjoy the canyon.

One tower of granite was distinctly Gothic with flying buttresses resembling a cathedral.

Views Big Horn Basin.

From the front door of the canyon, a high and narrow V, could be seen the broad expanse of the Big Horn basin below, hazy from the distance and on the horizon, perhaps a hundred miles away, were the taller peaks of the Continental Divide. It was like gazing down upon the earth from celestial heights.

Relaxation was fortification to continue the drive another six hours.

It was dark when the Big Horn basin had been crossed and Buffalo Bill's home town of Cody, Wyo., was entered. Continuing west, the highway entered the passageway cut by the impetuous Shoshone river between the mountains of rock. After skirting the artificial lake formed by a major power dam in this passage between the rocks the roadster was again on difficult roads undergoing repair and the driver was again fatigued from eighteen hours at the wheel.

A forest preserve sign pointed to a camping area in a grove of tall willows beside the roaring Shoshone river. THE TRIBUNE roadster was stopped for the night a few yards from three other parked cars.

A full moon over a rugged cliff furnished light to set up cots recommended by a sporting goods salesman. Two cowboys, on night herd duty, rode over to slouch in their saddles and watch the operation.

It was cold in the night at this altitude of 6,500 feet, above 45 degrees Fahrenheit, and notwithstanding the recommended number of blankets it was too cold for sound sleep. But it was fun at dusk; four deer were noticed grazing near the car and this broke THE TRIBUNE camp for morning.

CANADIAN ROCKIES ON A BUDGET TOUR

Lake Louise, regarded by travelers as one of the most beautiful places on earth; Banff, with its idyllic setting and its appeal to the sportsmen, and Emerald lake, a green jewel set in an untamed wilderness, are the objectives of a series of all-expense tours this summer in the Canadian Rockies.

For a number of years, because of the great hotel investment in that area, the rates were so high that only the rich felt they could afford them. This year the charges have been reduced to such an extent that they appeal not only to what few rich people are left but to other classes as well.

These tours call for 126 miles of motoring in the mountains, and rooms with bath and meals at the leading hotels. They were designed to fit in with any planned itinerary, beginning at Banff for persons traveling to the west coast, and at Field, B. C., for returning travelers. The various western lines ticket many of their eastbound passengers through the Canadian Rockies, and this summer the business is unusually heavy, owing to the San Diego exposition and the boom in Alaska.

The tourist riding toward the coast and deciding to "do the Rockies on a budget" detrains at Banff and boards a motor bus for Banff Springs hotel, set against three towering peaks and looking down into the Bow River valley. Clay tennis courts flank the hotel, and 300 feet from the front door begins a picturesque golf course, with three sets of tees to suit the individual game. The surrounding peaks beckon those wishing to explore the trails. The inn has both warm sulphur and fresh water swimming pools.

Forest-fringed Lake Louise reflects the rainbow spectrum of Victoria glacier. It is an incomparable gem of scenery. It boasts of mountain hiking, tennis, and swimming, the last named in a glass-enclosed pool. Chateau Lake Louise is the stopping place.

Emerald lake, lying in a wooded sanctuary, mirrors the mountains with such accuracy that it is difficult to tell the reflection from the reality. The community on its banks is like a Swiss village, with 29 cabins and a large central chalet. Its chief activities are riding, hiking, and climbing.

The eastbound traveler merely reverses the order in which he visits these three places.

A four day tour of the region provides for two days each at Banff and Lake Louise and a visit to Emerald lake. The cost is $55, everything included. A six day tour provides for two days each at Banff and Lake Louise, one day optional at either, and one day at Emerald lake. The cost is $70.

For the name of the railroad operating these trips, or any further information concerning them, call The Tribune Travel bureau at Superior 0100, local 707 or 784, or write the bureau at 1 South Dearborn street, or Tribune Tower.

TRAVEL QUERIES ANSWERED

What's your travel problem? Address queries regarding where to go, how to get there, costs, and accommodations to the Travelers' Guide, Chicago Tribune, inclosing stamped, self-addressed envelope.

When does the Franconia go on its next world cruise? J. H.

It sails from New York Jan. 7, 1936, and returns to Los Angeles May 14 and to New York May 29.

There has been some confusion in our minds as to the lowest rate for the round trip by rail between Chicago and New York. Can you settle the question? S. C.

The lowest rate, so far as this department has been advised, is $46.05. It is available on Tuesdays and Saturdays, and is good for thirty days.

When and where is the Texas exposition, celebrating the 100th anniversary of that state's independence, to be held? L. R. A.

It is scheduled to open next June 6 at Dallas.

PLANT REHIRES 40 DISCHARGED BY COURT ORDER

Union Fails to Send Men, Says President.

Haverstraw, N. Y., July 16.—[Special.]—The Haverstraw labor controversy entered a new phase today when the Hirsam Knit Sportswear company of Garnersville, N. Y., reëmployed 40 of the local nonunion workers who have been out of work as the result of a Supreme court order issued by Justice Aron Steuer.

The company's mill has ben inactive for three weeks as the result of the order which was otbained by Local 155 of the Knit Goods Workers' union of Brooklyn.

The order enjoined Samuel Hirsch, president of the company, from employing nonunion labor and ordered him to discharge his employés.

Others to Be Taken Back.

The forty who returned to work today comprise the first group of the entire personnel which will be gradually taken back, according to Mr. Hirsch, as the volume of business incerases.

"I believe I have complied with the judge's decision," said Mr. Hirsch, "in that I have made a reasonable effort to obtain union labor to replace my former employés. The union has failed to send workers to the mill and as a result my business has been at a standstill. At the present time my season is on top of my neck. We've sold a lot of goods, and if we can't deliver we might as well shut up shop.

"It seems to me that the union is sitting back and waiting to put us out of business. We made an appointment yesterday with union representatives to meet at the office of the mayor of Haverstraw to iron out our difficulties. We waited several hours, but they failed to show up."

Welcomes Lehman Entry.

When Hirsch was informed that the union was seeking intervention of Gov. Lehman in the controversy he declared he would welcome whatever efforts the governor might make to clarify the situation.

The union charges Hirsch moved his company to Garnersville last November to evade conditions of a union contract he had signed. Hirsch replied he came to Haverstraw to coöperate with the rehabilitation program set up by the government and as one of several industries which had been invited to Haverstraw to establish factories and create employment. The program was sponsored by Postmaster General Farley, a native of Haverstraw, and President Roosevelt.

When the Supreme court order was issued the discharged employés, all local townspeople, rose in revolt and gathered at the entrance of the factory to prevent arrival of union labor from New York. Union workers failed to appear for work.

COURT REJECTS PRISONER'S PLEA FOR 40 LASHES

Baltimore, Md., July 16.—(AP)—A request for 40 lashes instead of a $25 fine was refused by Police Magistrate Lulu E. Powell today in sending the pennyless father of two children to jail to serve out the fine for disorderly conduct.

The request was made by the dedendant, Henry Hickman, 28, through his wife, Mrs. Emma Hickman.

"My husband has asked me to see if you will change his sentence from a fine to 40 lashes at the city jail," the wife told the magistrate after visiting her husband's cell. "We have no money and if the fine stands he will have to go to jail and our babies, 5 and 16 months old, will be the ones to suffer."

After considering the request a few minutes, the magistrate refused to comply. Hickman had been arrested after a fight at his home Sunday night.

Two Baby Chicks Hatched from One Egg in Joliet

Joliet, Ill., July 16.—[Special.]—Two baby chicks stepped forth from the same egg this morning at the home of Mrs. James Gordon, 231 Gardener street.

COSTERS' PEARLY QUEEN

[Acme Photo.]

The "pearly queen" of Hampstead, London, was the envy of representatives of other districts because of her glittering attire, plumed hat and handsome donkey, which she exhibited at the costers' donkey and pony show recently in London. Costers, itinerant fruit merchants, deck themselves out in this manner for social functions.

LABOR AID TELLS HIS MODEL PLAN TO BRING PEACE

"Unworkable," Green Retorts.

Toledo, O., July 16.—(AP)—Assistant Secretary of Labor Edward F. McGrady gave additional details today of his "Toledo plan" for settling industrial disputes which he thinks may eventually serve as a model for the nation.

McGrady, who met tonight with local industrial and labor leaders to perfect details of applying the plan in Toledo, pointed out that in its operation no one is compelled to do anything against his will.

"There is no coercion," he said, "just reason and common sense. The hearings held under the plan will not have the atmosphere of a court where men or management may be brought in as defendants. The hearings will be in a friendly, neighborly atmosphere."

Sees 90% of Trouble Ended.

McGrady predicted the plan would eliminate 90 per cent of the troubles that cause strikes, lockouts, and discriminations.

It calls for the establishment of a board of arbitration consisting of labor and industrial leaders in equal number and headed by a neutral party. Initially the Toledo board will be headed by a conciliator under the department of labor if McGrady's proposal is adopted. After three months the chairman will be turned over to the municipal government to make the board a complete city undertaking.

Green Says It's Unworkable.

Washington, D. C., July 16.—[Special.]—The so-called "Toledo plan" to adjudicate labor disputes, now being considered by employers and labor at the request of the department of labor, is "unworkable and impracticable," according to William Green, president of the A. F. of L.

Mr. Green said today that the A. F. of L. would not coöperate in creating the machinery contemplated under the proposal because it provided that the mediation panels would include on the labor side representatives of company unions and of independent and rival unions.

TROOPS IN CONTROL OF TEXTILE STRIKE IN SOUTH CAROLINA

Pelzer, S. C., July 16.—[Special.]—National guardsmen today assumed control of the textile strike situation here after local officers expressed the fear that it was becoming too tense for them to handle.

Armed union pickets last night patroled areas adjacent to the four plants of the Pelzer Manufacturing company. J. F. Blackmon, superintendent of the mills, said a shot was fired at Constable J. L. Cole.

In calling out the troops, Gov. Olin D. Johnston requested Blackmon not to carry out plans for a reopening of the mills today. Blackmon said they would try to reopen tomorrow.

The United Textile Workers' local called the strike yesterday after one of its members was escorted from a plant by police upon his refusal to surrender his machine to another. The union claims a membership of 300 among the 1,500 employés of the four plants.

Dr. Dellenbaugh Seized as Fake Seller of Jobs

Dr. Albert Dellenbaugh, 59 years old, was arrested yesterday on the complaint of two men that each paid him $1 on his promise to get them jobs in a hospital. The jobs never materialized, they said. The complainants are James Crosby and William La Duc. All three men live in a hotel at 652 South State street. Dr. Dellenbaugh served 60 days in the Bridewell last year for operating a confidence game.

Start Campaign Today to Halt Angle Parking

The police will begin today a campaign to halt the practice of "angle" parking in all parts of the city, according to Commissioner James P. Allman. "The city ordinances require automobiles to park horizontally to the curb unless otherwise specified," the commissioner said yesterday. "Cars parked at an angle from the curb impede trafic, and we have received many complaints concerning the practice."

ACRES OF BARGAIN ITEMS READY FOR LOOP DOLLAR DAY

1,300 Merchants Join in Event Tomorrow.

With an estimated "1,000 acres of dollar items" on display in 1,300 stores of the loop district for Downtown Dollar day tomorrow, merchants will seek to whet the summer shopper's appetite for cool clothes, fresh household furnishings, and vacation accessories.

Walter Gregory, president of the State Street council, announced yesterday that the central business district anticipates sales exceeding those of Jan. 19, 1933, a loop wide dollar day which broke all sales records.

Since last Saturday stores have been putting into circulation 250,000 silver dollars, especially ordered from the federal reserve bank, as a reminder and advertising symbol of tomorrow's bargains.

Planned to Stimulate Prosperity.

"The American dollar has lost none of its potency," said Mr. Gregory. "It has buying power regardless of the fluctuations of foreign exchange. An immense variety and quantity of merchandise will be made doubly attractive on this occasion by unheard of low prices. We hope by this sale alone to increase sales and factory output to a point where employment will be stimulated all the way down the line and a tremendous local impetus given to returning prosperity."

Spring buying was retarded by the excessive rainfall and this factor is expected to give greater volume to tomorrow's shopping, Mr. Gregory said.

Street Gayly Decorated.

Light standards on State street from Lake to Congress streets will be decorated for the day with silver shields illustrated with "happy dollars." Banners further advertising the occasion will be suspended across the street at regular intervals. Transportation companies will increase their schedules to handle the anticipated throngs, it was announced. Shoppers from the Chicagoland area are expected to swell the crowd total.

Vacation items will predominate in the marked down offerings. Light weight summer clothes and sporting goods will also fall within the dollar range. Porch furniture and garden implements will be featured by some stores. As usual women's hats, gloves, hose and bags will be grouped in dollar assortments. Children's clothing and playsuits will be displayed in large quantity on the bargain counters.

GEN. LEACH CUT ON ARM; LAUGHS AT "BAILING OUT"

Riverside, Cal., July 16.—(AP)—Maj. Gen. George E. Leach, chief of the National Guard bureau, nursed a lacerated arm after flying here today and joked about wandering for hours through Arizona wastelands after "bailing out" of a burning army airplane.

Flying from Washington, D. C., to Santa Maria, Cal., the general parachuted to safety, while the pilot of the ship, Capt. Charles M. Cummings, flew on for about 10 miles before abandoning the burning craft.

A widespread search for the general was under way when he appeared, the newest member of the "Caterpillar" club. He was most interested in a shave when he arrived at March field here.

Capt. Cummings said he told the general "to get ready to jump" when the plane caught fire. But all Gen. Leach heard was the word "jump" and he lost no time in following what he thought were the pilot's directions.

"I tumbled like a ball before the chute finally opened," he laughed, "then I fell in the biggest hole outside of the grand canyon." He followed a fence line until he met Joe Arllalorof, Mexican sheep herder. He was shown to a ranch and then brought into Kingman by W. C. Denny and Lewis Sandoval, two cowboys.

Significant indeed is his choice

It makes no difference how big the job—he is still a stickler for details. He has to be in his profession—where precision is so vitally important. Naturally enough he is equally precise on the subject of whiskey. The mere description "straight" or "Bottled in Bond" is far too unrevealing for him. That's why he chooses U.D.L. "Pre-judged" whiskey—he knows, in advance, on all nine points that concern complete enjoyment and satisfaction!

"Pre-judged" on all nine points!

The Ekroth Laboratories, Inc., an independent, recognized expert authority, regularly and frequently tests and judges U.D.L. Products which they buy at retail stores without guidance from anyone! This "Pre-judging" is personally supervised by C. V. Ekroth (former chief chemist, Food & Drug Bureau of New York City Health Dept.) who authorizes the Ekroth symbol shown on the tag affixed to every U.D.L. bottle. Look for that tag. It lists all nine vital points on which U.D.L. Products are "Pre-judged"—certainly the most conclusive assurance of all-round merit ever given by any distiller!

Day By Day Story of the Experimental Farms

By Bob Becker

The Game Bird Factory

July 16, 1935.

SEVEN Chukar partridges and thirteen Bob Whites have made their appearance on the Wheaton experimental farm. These game birds have been hatched by hard working bantam hens. The Chukars and the quail came at just the right time because the game bird "factory" had just released the young mutant pheasants, leaving the place rather short of chicks. Now there are plenty of them to keep everybody busy and more should come because the bantams have eggs of ringneck pheasants, Lady Amherst pheasants, and several other kinds of birds to hatch out.

It looks very much as though the bantam that has been fussing around the young mutants is glad to have her charges turned out into the weed thickets to "root" for themselves. As soon as the wild little mutants were taken outside and sent on their way the bantam came back to her nest and settled down to lay eggs, much to the surprise of everybody. After taking care of the shy, hard running mutants you'd think the bantam would like a vacation. But nothing doing. She is at work again.

The mutants deserve the name of "streamlined pheasants" because they are trimmer and, I believe, faster than the big ringnecks. At least that is my impression after hunting them in Wisconsin last fall and seeing them on the wing. Anyway, having seen the young mutants run and fly, I doubt if there is any game bird on the farm that can beat them in a 100 yard dash. They are real sprinters. All of us are wondering if they will find what they want in the way of cover and food on the farm and therefore stay on the place.

All is quiet on the pond where the Muscovy ducks are living now that the little English call duck released there some days ago has been adopted into the "tribe." When the call duck was first turned out the Muscovys went for him. But apparently he has been accepted in good standing by the bigger water fowl because he is now mixing with them just like one of the family.

Until a few days ago the boys on the farm had a theme song about why somebody made the days so long. But they have discarded this theme song now that the job of haying is pretty well licked. The reason for the lament about the length of the days was one haying party a few days ago that continued right on through the evening until the boys found themselves tossing hay and pitchforks by the pale light of the moon.

Of course farm work doesn't call for such an unusual schedule as that very often. On this particular day it was a case of taking advantage of good weather to put up hay, so the boys not only made hay while the sun was shining but also while the moon shone. By the time they came in from the fields they had put up 400 bales of fragrant hay.

Fields that have not been mowed here on the farm again are gay with the colors of flowering weeds and midsummer wild flowers.

This is what might be called the second cycle among these plants. First, we had those wonderful weeks in the spring when the haw trees were covered with blossoms and the woods were filled with violets, spring beauty, and phlox. Now we have the second cycle of wild flowers and flowering weeds with that gay colored, cosmopolitan weed, the chicory, leading procession.

FIND EX-TEACHER A SUICIDE WITH $5,000 IN BILLS

New York, July 16.—[Special.]—Eston A. Young, 63, retired principal of a Brooklyn business training school, hanged himself tonight.

Police found notes which contained instructions that led them to a desk drawer in the living room, which contained nearly $5,000 in $50, $20, $10, $5, and $1 bills. They said many of the $20 and $10 bills were gold certificates which the federal government has withdrawn from circulation.

Detectives turned the serial numbers of the bills over to the federal authorities for a checkup. Asked if the checkup had any specific purpose, the detectives said it was a routine matter.

13,600 Relief Clients Win Home Hygiene Diplomas

The Red Cross courses in home hygiene and care of the sick have graduated 13,638 clients of the Illinois Emergency Relief commission, according to James B. Forgan Jr., chairman of the Chicago chapter of the Red Cross. From Dec. 18, 1933, to last April 15, there were 998 classes held in 208 Cook county communities and 32 in Lake and Du Page counties.

Engineer Dies in Cab as He Views Moon Eclipse

Two Italians Hop in Quest of New Seaplane Record

TRIESTE, Italy, July 16.—(AP)—A seaplane piloted by Mario Stoppani and Co-Pilot Babbi, well known Italian aviators, took off today in an attempt to break the world's distance record for a seaplane. The record is now held by France, at 4,300 kilometers [2,625 miles]. The plane, heading for Berbera, British Somaliland, East Africa, was sighted over Crete eight hours after its start. The same plane held the distance record previously in a flight from Trieste to Massau, Eritrea, in 1934.

BOWMAN MILK PROTECTS YOU FROM REDUCING HAZARDS

● "Nerves", loss of vitality, digestive upsets—they're common complications of reducing. And Bowman Milk is an important safeguard against them. It supplies so many food elements you must have for health and vitality! Drink at least a pint every day while you're counting calories.

And there are good reasons why you should begin right now. Low-calorie fruits and vegetables are at the height of their season. Outdoor sports are such fun now. And the fashion forecasts are warning of new flared skirts which will demand slim hips.

Drink a glass of Bowman Milk in the middle of the morning; one at lunch; one with your reducing dinner menu. You'll like the Milk of Superior Flavor. Call SUP. 6800 for Bowman's dependable service.

INFRA-RED RAYS HELP TO FIND POISON'S TRACES

Spectroscope Is Used for Selenium Location.

Cambridge, Mass., July 16.—(AP)—Solution of one of the great problems of science and industry, how to "see" sulphur and poisonous selenium with the spectroscopic eye, was reported today at the conference on spectroscopy at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Minute traces of selenium in food plants are deadly poison. Traces of either in steel or alloys are one of the problems of industry.

While scientific books say the spectroscope does not detect sulphur and selenium in impure forms, a solution using heat rays, instead of ordinary light, was described by Prof. G. R. Harrison of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, who reported infra-red rays are the most promising for economical use in detecting those poisons.

Invisible Heat Rays.

The particular sulphur-selenium rays have wave lengths of a little more than 9,000 angstrom units—or 9,000 times a 250 millionth of an inch.

To the hand they would feel hot—to the eye they would be invisible. But specially sensitized photographic plates "see" and record them.

If such a plate were photographing a rainbow, it would see colors beyond the red edge of the rainbow. These colors would lie out a distance equal to the full visible thickness of the rainbow from violet to red.

The camera shows them, not as colors, but as black and white lines.

The meaning of "selenium soils" discovered recently in certain parts of the United States, may be better explained with the aid of the infra-red spectroscope.

Plants Poison Cattle.

In these soils, poisonous selenium grows in the plants used to feed stock and probably in the vegetables end grains eaten by human beings.

Serious selenium poisoning has been traced in live stock. Effects on human beings are not so well known. The risks, however, are so great that the federal chemists and biologists are making careful studies.

One of the problems is to detect minute quantities of selenium. This can be done chemically. The spectroscope should do quicker work.

REV. DR. J. O. HALL, LEADER IN DANISH M. E. CHURCH, DIES

The Rev. Dr. John O. Hall, 63 years old, for many years superintendent of the Chicago district of the Norwegian Danish Methodist conference, died last night in his home at 2123 Maple avenue, Evanston, after a long illness.

He was a graduate of the Norwegian-Danish theological seminaries in Evanston and Redwing, Minn., and received degrees from Northwestern and Columbia universities. Immediately preceding and following the war Dr. Hall taught at Willamette university, Salem, Ore. During the war he served as a statistician of the war department.

Dr. Hall is survived by his widow, Clara, and a daughter, Mrs. Norman Peterson. Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 2 p. m. at Our Saviour's Methodist Episcopal church in Evanston, with burial at Memorial Park cemetery.

DR. W. S. ORTH, 70, LONG A CHICAGO PHYSICIAN, DIES

Dr. William Sheriff Orth, 70 years old, 628 Wrightwood avenue, retired physician, died in St. Luke's hospital yesterday after an illness of two weeks. Dr. Orth was born in Keithsburg, Ill., and was graduated from Monmouth college in 1887 and Rush Medical college three years later. In 1898 he married Miss Anna C. Tempel of Chicago, who survives with a daughter, Mrs. Roy Kroeschell of Chicago, and two sons, W. Calvin of Chicago and Richard T. of South N. J. Until his retirement two years ago Dr. Orth was on the stafs of the Alexian Brothers' and Grant hospitals.

Woman's Death Attributed to Permanent Wave Burns

An inquest was ordered yesterday into the death earlier in the day of Mrs. Emma Nelson, 55 years old, 3221 South Wells street, in the Lakeside hospital. Dr. Albert T. Horn, who attended Mrs. Nelson, said she died as the indirect result of burns inflicted by a permanent waving machine while she was having her hair dressed in a neighbor's home several days ago.

Husband Buried at Sea; Sues Cunard for $9,000

Mrs. Susan Mulryan of Cicero, who charged that her husband was buried at sea without her permission, filed suit yesterday in the Superior court asking $9,000 damages of the Cunard-White Star Line, Ltd. The suit said that the husband, Thomas, who died while returning from Ireland on Aug. 20, 1934, was buried at sea two days later.

Ruffner Estate $50,618; Widow Pays Tax to State

William R. Ruffner, coffee and sugar importer who died last September at his home at 1408 Dean avenue, Highland Park, left an estate of $50,618, it was learned yesterday when his widow, Mrs. Mary U. Ruffner, filed the inheritance tax return in the probate court of Lake county. The tax paid was $612. Mr. Ruffner left his entire estate to his widow.

John A. McGovern, Police Telephone Operator, Dies

John A. McGovern, 55 years old, a police telephone operator for 30 years, died of heart disease last night in St. Anne's hospital. He lived at 2909 Congress street and had been the operator in the fourth division headquarters at the Marquette police station. His body was taken to the chapel at 3246 Jackson boulevard.

News of the Radio Stations

BY LARRY WOLTERS.

With frog derbies and husband and hog calling broadcasts safely behind, radio is now turning its attention to giving amateur canaries a break. The airways boast several programs in which professional warblers participate—some to the accompaniment of an organ or even a stringed ensemble. Usually these programs are sponsored by bird food manufacturers who credit the fancy warbling to the superior caloric and vitamin content of their particular seed.

But a persistent sour note comes from bird fanciers who boast of amateurs that could put the professional warblers to rout. WMCA, New York, has determined to put them to a test. Thus as 9:30 Friday morning Manhattan's leading amateur canaries will have their inning at the microphone. It is our private hope that New York's neophyte carolers may not make too good a showing lest this latest wrinkle in the amateur hour craze spread to Chicago.

Meanwhile we are still successfully resisting the urge to give all amateur hours the bird!

Joe Sanders has signed a contract for a year with the Blackhawk restaurant. Thus his music will be heard for some time to come over W-G-N. This also means that Kay Kayser will not be back there in the fall. Two months ago Sanders, who played there for five or six years prior to 1931, organized a new band it it has clicked. Business is said to be good every night, better even than Hal Kemp's during World's Fair days.

The prospect of war in Ethiopia is somewhat more than headlines for Vivian della Chiesa, young CBS soprano. Emil Finardi, her current heart interest, a technician in a Rome movie studio, is about to embark for Africa as a lieutenant in a cavalry division. Finardi recently visited Miss Della Chiesa here.

◆

Hot weather listeners may get a bit of comfort out of this note. While you sipped a cold drink the other evening during the Waring broadcast Announcer David Ross suddenly heard the program coming onto the air. He was having dinner miles from the studio and suddenly discovered that he had stayed about an hour too long. He grabbed a taxi and roared to the studio just as Fred and Col. Stoopnagle and Budd were winding up their final bout with the microphone. Warm and distraught, Ross stepped to the microphone just in time to say, "This is the Columbia Broadcasting system."

◆

When the March of Time returns to CBS in August it will go on the air on a five-night a week basis. For five years it has been heard for a half hour on Friday evenings. Henceforth it will be aired for fifteen minutes Monday through Friday, presenting highlights of each day's news in dramatic form.

◆

John B. Kennedy, NBC commentator, will give listeners the low down on G men from 3:30 to 4 o'clock today over WMAQ when he is taken on a tour of the department of justice in Washington by J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the bureau of investigation. Among other things Kennedy will describe a visit to a class in crime detection.

◆

There'll be opera in August this year. Two broadcasts will be made from the Salzburg [Austria] Festival over NBC. Arturo Toscanini and Bruno Walter will be the conductors.

PLEAS FOR FREE ICE REACH NEW ALL TIME PEAK

Sickness Increases; Gifts Pour In.

BY MARCIA WINN.

"Never," said Miss Edna Mae Wray of the United Charities, administrator of THE TRIBUNE free ice fund, "have I had such an emergency day." From 8 a. m. until closing hours, her telephone rang almost constantly, she said, with pleas for ice.

"One of the appeals was for a child recovering from a surgical operation," Miss Wray said. "Another was for a measles case. Another was for a woman with pneumonia. And not a one went unanswered."

Need Doubles in Week.

In addition agents of the 13 charities and district stations of the United Charities called, asking for more ice tickets for distribution on the plea that the need had doubled within the past week.

In answer to this need contributions totaling $84.78 were received yesterday, the largest amount received in one day so far this year.

Included in this total was $3 from two little boys and four little girls of Brookfield, who held a circus in the basement of 13 year old Jeanne James' home. Tickets sold at a top price of 2 cents each, while candy, donated by their mothers, was vended on the side.

Circus Cast Listed.

Participants in the circus were Jeanne; her brothers, Robert, 9, and Ralph, 4; Lorraine Fabbri, 13; Kathryn Dunning, 11, and Frances Rode, 9. Helen Kavanaugh sold candy while Gloria Hodson was the announcer.

Current contributions are listed as follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| Mrs. Stephen A. Poyer | $ 12.50 |
| C. B. B. | 5.00 |
| Jeanne James, et al | 3.00 |
| D. W. P. | 10.00 |
| Four Little Boys of Rogers Park | .78 |
| I. D. Goss | 15.00 |
| Molly M. Goddard, Park Ridge | 3.50 |
| Anonymous | 25.00 |
| Eta chapter, Rho Delta Phi | 5.00 |
| Mrs. J. Ledwell | 3.00 |
| Dorothy Cowen | 2.00 |
| Previously acknowledged | 236.80 |
| Total | $321.58 |

Recent contributions to the Camp Algonquin fund are:

| | |
|---|---|
| Mrs. Stephen A. Poyer | $ 12.50 |
| C. B. B. | 5.00 |
| Mrs. Gertrude Lampe | 15.00 |
| Previously acknowledged | 2,183.69 |
| Total | $2,216.19 |

Checks to either fund should be made payable to Cashier, Tribune Tower. All contributions will be acknowledged in this column.

WIFE OF AUSTRIAN CHANCELLOR BURIED; CROWD NEAR PANIC

VIENNA, July 16.—(AP)—A few steps from where he stood not quite one year ago and delivered an impassioned farewell speech over the grave of Engelbert Dollfuss, Austria's slain leader, Chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg today watched the coffin of his wife, Herma, lowered into the soil of Heitzing cemetery.

Though he was himself injured in the automobile accident last Saturady that killed his wife, the chancellor nevertheless walked the mile from the church to the cemetery. Pale and without expression, he walked steadily, only occasionally leaning upon his cane, behind the herse drawn by six black horses.

At the conclusion of the burial a woman, screaming hysterically, forced her way into the departing groups of church dignitaries, diplomats and cabinet members, tore off her clothes and ran naked toward the chancellor's automobile. Police quickly removed her, but crowds in the rear, unable to see, thought something had happened to Schuschnigg. Near panic resulted.

MRS. ALEXANDER, FORMER CROCKER, IS DEAD IN PARIS

New York, July 16.—(AP)—Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, descendant of a family prominent in the development of the far west, died today at her home in Paris, France, friends here learned today.

She was born in Sacramento, Cal., the daughter of Charles and Mary A. Crocker. Crocker was a pioneer in California, and was associated in the construction of the Southern Pacific railroad with Leland Stanford, Collis P. Huntington, and Mark Hopkins. Her husband, Charles B. Alexander, died in 1927.

Three daughters were with her when she died. They were Mrs. Winthrop W. Aldrich, wife of the chairman of the Chase National bank, New York, Mrs. Arnold Whitridge, wife of the master of Calhoun college, Yale university, and Mrs. Sheldon Whitehouse, whose husband formerly was American minister to Colombia.

Also surviving is a brother, William H. Crocker, president of the Crocker First National bank of San Francisco.

Mrs. Alexander was stricken on June 12. Her body will be sent to New York for funeral services here on July 25. She maintained homes at Tuxedo Park, N. Y., and New York City.

Mary Wood Will Bow at Holiday Ball

Debut Party to Be Held at Blackstone.

BY JUDITH CASS.

GEN. and Mrs. Robert E. Wood of Highland Park have reserved the crystal ballroom of the Blackstone, where so many of Chicago's daughters have made their formal bows to society, for the night of Thursday, Dec. 26. They will give a ball there that night to introduce their youngest daughter, Mary, who spent last winter in Arizona and California, regaining good health, the lack of which kept her from being with Miss Stout's Traveling school abroad last year. She had finished the year before at Miss Porter's in Farmington, Conn.

The Woods' son, Lieut. Robert W. Wood II., will return to this country in September from abroad, where he has been since graduating from West Point in June. He is traveling with Arthur M. Wood, also of Highland Park, but no kin to the Robert Woods, and Mr. and Mrs. William Hughes of Denver. Where Lieut. Wood will be stationed when he returns is not yet.

The former Sarah Wood, Mrs. James R. Addington, and her child are here from their homes in California visiting the Woods and their two married daughters, Mrs. Edwin E. Tullis of Highland Park and Mrs. Calvin Fentress of Lake Forest.

Two Patricia Kellys Will Bow This Season.

There will be two Miss Patricia Kellys on their year's debutante list, for Miss Patricia Forsyth Kelly is to be presented by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Arthur Kelly of 1448 Lake Shore drive, at a tea-dance on Dec. 23, and Miss Patricia Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kelly of 35 Indian Hill road, Winnetka, will make her debut also.

The Carl Kellys will have two debutantes in the family, for their elder daughter, Marjorie, whose debut last year during the Christmas holidays had to be postponed because of illness, will come out with her sister. Miss Marjorie returned recently from five weeks with an archæological expedition in New Mexico. She will return to the University of California next year. Miss Adelaide Matthai of Baltimore is visiting Miss Patricia Kelly in Winnetka this week.

The other Miss Patricia Kelly, usually called Pat, was at the Katharine Gibbs school in Boston last year and before that at the Girls' Latin school in town. She has a younger sister, Kathleen, who goes to the Knox school in Cooperstown, N. Y.

Miss Barbara Barnhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene N. Barnhart, is planning to stay at home next winter and study art, but she hasn't decided yet whether she will make a debut. She will be included in many of the debutante festivities, however, for some of the buds are her friends, including Miss Nancy Forgan, with whom she was graduated from Chatham Hall in Virginia early last June. Miss Barnhart is spending the summer in town, dividing her time between the Walton place apartment of her parents, where her father is living, and the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Wilder, in Evanston. Mrs. Barnhart and her two sons are spending the season at Guildford, Conn.

Proxmire Family at Desbarats.

Miss Adele Proxmire, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Theodore S. Proxmire of Lake Forest, is spending the summer with her mother and brother, Billy, at the family's camp at Desbarats, Ont., Canada. Dr. Proxmire and Ted Jr., who will be a senior at Yale next year, are in Lake Forest for the summer with occasional visits to the rest of the family at Desbarats.

Billy will be a sophomore at Yale next year, and Miss Adele, who will be a debutante, will continue studying abroad where she was at the Villa Gazzola in Venice last year, or will go to an American college.

There will not be the usual July 17 birthday party at Cotswold, the Highland Park home of the Frank G. Hoynes, today, for Mr. Hoyne is ill. Today is his 81st birthday and his brother, Thomas Maclay Hoyne's, 91st. Every previous year the brothers have celebrated the day together, usually at the younger brother's home because he lives in the country and the elder one lives in town on Surf street.

An amusing party is to be given this evening when Mr. and Mrs. Paget Cady and James W. Rogers entertain for Mrs. Burke Chapman and Mrs. MacLean Hoggson of New York, in the Rogers' "backyard." However, the "backyard" is really a Scott street garden, and a very pleasant place in which to give a cocktail party and supper for two visitors who have many friends in Chicago.

Up until two years ago Mrs. Hoggson lived across the street from Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, at 26 Scott street. She and Mrs. Chapman arrived yesterday. Mrs. Chapman will be here only a few days, as she is going up to Fish Creek, Wis., to visit Mrs. Rogers, who is spending the summer there.

When Mrs. Chapman leaves Mrs. Hoggson is to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Paget Cady, and after that will visit Mr. and Mrs. C. Benson Dushane Jr. Mrs. Cady plans to give a dinner party for Mrs. Hoggson probably on Tuesday.

Mrs. Louis Sudler at Harbor Springs.

Young Mrs. Louis Sudler left for her cottage at Harbor Springs last night disappointed that she would not be here on Friday for a dinner-party her husband is giving at the Stevens hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Alec Kirk are leaving the first of August for two weeks at

Elizabeth Davis Becomes Bride

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

Service at Chapel

At 8:30 o'clock last night in the Lady chapel of St. Luke's church in Evanston Miss Elizabeth Keating Davis, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Edward Davis, United States army, became the bride of John S. Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving A. Collins of Moorestown, N. J.

The bride was lovely in a gown of ivory taffeta with a bertha of old rose point lace. Her tulle veil was trimmed with a panel of lace which belonged to her grandmother, and her tiara was fashioned of the same lace. Around her neck hung a string of pearls which has been in her family for 120 years.

After the ceremony, which was performed by Dean J. H. Edwards, retired rector of the Church of the Holy Spirit of Lake Forest, a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents, 1144 Michigan avenue, Evanston. Mr. Collins and his bride will live in Moorestown, where they are building a home.

Cavallo Band Is Cheered in Park Concert

Board of Trade Group to Play Tonight.

BY EDWARD MOORE.

P. A. Cavallo, a veteran bandmaster with the wisdom of experience and the speed and vigor of youth, led his organization, Cavallo's Symphonic band, through a program that was exciting to listeners and players alike in Grant park last night.

His principal numbers were operatic, touching upon "The Prophet," "Die Walkuere," "Aïda," "Lucia," and "La Gioconda," with lighter moments from "Mlle. Modiste," "The Chocolate Soldier," and "Hit the Deck." These were played with captivating spirit and unfailing dramatic certainty. Whether in serious or playful mood, Mr. Cavallo knows his music and his band.

Olga Kargau, the soprano soloist, continued the operatic list by singing Micaela's aria from "Carmen" and a lighter encore. She was excellent in both, and an army of listeners loudly testified to the fact.

Col. Armin F. Hand and the Board of Trade Post American Legion band will return tonight with Henry Thompson, tenor, and Richard Stross, cornetist, as soloists. The program:

1. March, "King Cotton" .............. Sousa
2. Transcription, "Spiritual Rivers" . Gault
3. Vocal solo, "Song of the Flea" ............ Moussorgsky
4. Act II., "Aida" .............. Verdi
5. Finale Act III., "La Gioconda" ............ Ponchielli
6. Transcription, "Among My Souvenirs" .............. Lang
7. Cornet solo, "Sounds of the Hudson" .............. Clarke
8. Overture, "Sakuntala" ........ Goldmark
9. Favorite Melodies of Victor Herbert .............. Herbert
10. March, "Washington Post" ........ Sousa

Harry Zelzer, Chicago manager of musical events, signed yesterday what was stated to be the largest concert contract in Chicago, when he contracted to bring all his attractions for the coming season into the Civic Opera house. On his list are Lily Pons, the American ballet, the Joos ballet, La Argentina, and many others. It was estimated to be a quarter of a million dollars' worth of talent.

Isabel Laughlin, pianist, and O. Stuart Barker, baritone, appeared jointly in the artist recital series of the Chicago Musical college yesterday morning.

Miss Laughlin, who is soon to be Mrs. Silvio Scionti, is an artist of taste and skill. She played Cesar Franck's Prelude, Chorale, and Fugue with much appreciation of its fine dignity, and she approached two of the Chopin Etudes as though they were musical studies and musical art at the same time, which of course they are.

Mr. Barker sang works of such diverse nature as Schumann's "The Two Grenadiers," the prologue to "Pagliacci" and Wolfe's "Gwine to Hebbin," with an excellent voice and first rate enunciation.

The famed contralto's husband, Dr. Fritz Pezoldt, said his wife had to cancel an American tour scheduled to begin Oct. 18.

Mme. Onegin is at this resort recovering from lameness of the shoulder complicated by blood clots she charges Kuppinger's violent performance caused.

Kuppinger maintained Mme. Onegin's injuries were accidental, Dr. Pezoldt said.

Good Morning!

If the doctors gave you just six months to live—how'd you want to spend the six?

Jamie McFarland, ex-soldier, ex-newspaper man; gassed—and with a bum lung that he believes spells curtains for him, sets out from the hospital to look up his old gang in Chicago. He means to go on one long, last bender!

Two thousand miles is a long trail a winding when a sick soldier has only his tired feet to carry him along, and Jamie is right near exhausted when a pretty girl in a small car gives him a lift to the place where she detours from the main road.

Jamie, with whom it's been love at first sight, follows her road on foot, after a few moments' hesitation, and, in a quiet house and garden that overhang the sea, finds health, strange new interests, and romance.

He learns that "blue is the perfect color." . . . That bees lead the most perfect lives of all flying things. . . . That sun, rain, and unselfish living are heap good medicine. . . . That love will find a way, even though that way may be a devious and untried one.

"Keeper of the Bees" is a clean little picture with several unexpected twists to the story. It is an adaptation of one of the late Gene Stratton Porter's best loved books and should please admirers of her works. For it is well acted and sedative.

See you tomorrow.

Calls Women to Defense of U. S. Liberties

Ackerman Denounces Cry of Haste for Laws.

BY RUTH DE YOUNG.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Seattle, Wash., July 16.—[Special.]—Two thousand of the country's most distinguished business and professional women were called upon here tonight to help save America's free institutions from the dangers of centralized government control. The appeal was made by Dr. Carl W. Ackerman of Columbia university in a stirring address before the biennial convention of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs in Seattle's civic auditorium.

"The issue is governmental control versus democracy," declared Dr. Ackerman. "It is becoming increasingly clear, I think, that the battle of opinion between those who advocate centralized government control and those who believe that free institutions should be preserved is reaching a decisive stage.

"Freedom today, specifically our economic freedom, is an active political and social issue involving also academic freedom and the freedom of the press and radio.

"The nation-wide discussion of these issues should make us conscious that our liberties hang in the balance and that they will be maintained or lost in the conflict now being waged. Confronted by the necessity of choosing between nationalism and democracy, it is the duty of every citizen to contribute his opinion to the national forum of public opinion, the proving ground of our democracy."

Characterizing the original NRA as the first legislative attack on the liberties of the American people, Dr. Ackerman said it was now historical, but that its example still faced the nation.

"Those whose object is a new social order based on government control are taking advantage of the overwhelming sentiment of the American people for better social conditions and an improvement in the economic welfare of millions and are telling us that we must make haste or that all will be lost.

"This is not true. All will be lost if we make haste. Haste precipitated the world war. Haste made communism, Fascism, and Nazism possible in Russia, Italy, and Germany. Haste prolongs a national crisis. It makes every emergency acute because it chokes opinion, reason, justice, and faith."

Dr. Ackerman finds immediate danger in the high tide of public opinion sweeping toward Washington with the slogan "Share the Wealth."

"Congress will probably pass a new tax bill so that all the big fortunes will be shared and then what will happen?" he asked.

"This indeed is dangerously near today. Ever since the decision of the United States Supreme court in the Schecter case there have been demands that the federal constitution be amended in order to grant congress greater power over industry. As a result we have the strange political phenomenon of demands for such an amendment in order to guarantee economic freedom when the real objective of its advocates is governmental control.

"Taxation is rapidly destroying economic freedom. It is destroying the economic freedom of all fundamental institutions, family life, educational institutions which are privately endowed, churches which depend upon gifts and collections, while at the same time it is reducing or limiting the incomes of every business and professional worker.

"John Marshall as chief justice of the United States wrote, 'The power to tax involves the power to destroy.' In the same opinion in the case of McCulloch vs. Maryland he admonished his countrymen that 'The power to destroy may defeat and render useless the power to create.' This assertion is as applicable today as it was in 1819.

"Will the loss of economic freedom in the United States through taxation or through governmental control of industry come next? That question should be answered by public opinion, by your deliberations, and by the reflective judgment of the American people.

"Economic freedom is possible only in a democracy because the object of democracy is the continuous building of a nation. Dictators are only operators. The people of the world today is free men and women who are socially minded, who have the will to create, the tenacity to preserve, and the faith to build. That is the test of American citizenship."

The keynote address delivered this evening by Mrs. Geline MacDonald Bowman, president of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women, was in sympathy with Dr. Ackerman's address.

"Dictators, fearing women's organizations, have sought to disband women and to divest them of all rights and privileges that may lead to power," Mrs. Bowman said. "The word democracy is an anomaly if the government professing to foster it denies to half of its citizens full participation in public affairs. The contribution of which women are capable not only is needed now but can now be made if women unite upon the basis of a few essential principles."

Mrs. Bowman made a plea for the increased recognition of women on the basis that women do 85 per cent of the retail buying and pay taxes on about 43 per cent of the wealth in America.

Business and professional success for the modern woman is in direct proportion to her culture, social poise, and good grooming as well as her talent and application. The better the job the less likely she is to prefer the latest blues song to the ballet music from "Samson and Delilah," or to confuse Tristan with a new cosmetic.

This was a general conclusion derived today from the institute of occupational professions which has opened the biennial convention of the business women.

"The broader a woman's culture, the better able she is to meet the various problems that confront her in the business world," said Mrs. William Gary Brown of Chicago, who happily explains that she is a grandmother, although she doesn't look a day over 35.

Sheer—for Daytime Wear

From a Chicago shop. Another sheer summer daytime outfit. Fashioned of tiny squared patterned navy blue, it is trimmed with a big white bow of organdy. The white hat has an airy navy blue veil tied in a bow on the top of the crown.

THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS

Want to add a little zip to that extra special evening you have planned? There's a perfume in town that will do just that for you. A faint dab of it on the tip of your ear, and you're a pert and spicy little person, whether you will or no. It gives the illusion of a raised eyebrow and a no-no shake of the head simultaneously, and is apt, we're afraid, to prove a bit bewildering to your unsuspecting young escort—although pleasantly so.

Definitely "come-hitherish," but lively rather than languorous, it's a perfume to wear when you feel mischievous and gay—or wish to give that illusion.

With the dash and verve and elan of the liquid voiced movie star for whom it is named, it reflects her in her more spirited moods. Teasing, flirtatious, impish, the sparkle of a vivid personality has been caught and translated into tempting fragrance.

Wear it lightly, for its scent is lingering and a drop goes a long, long way. Wear it daytime or wear it evening—it's the mood and not the hour that will dictate. Gayety and frivolity should be your handmaidens and you shouldn't have a serious thought in your head, so make havoc of the day's work by wearing it to the office!

The little crown bottle which contains this scent is familiar to connoisseurs of lovely perfumes. It's one of the most decorative, we think, of the array of alluring and luxurious containers, designed to tempt the susceptible feminine soul. Symbol of royalty, it simply breathes richness and quiet dignity, and milady's dressing table achieves a note of real elegance when graced by a royal crown.

If, then, you'd like to go forth from an atmosphere of dignified opulence a vivacious and tantalizing merrymaker, you have the combination!

Black Dresses Given Break by Designers

Sable Toned Models May Be Worn Now.

BY RHEA SEEGER.

Dress designers consistently leave you in a state of baffled wonder over their ingenuity . . . the last gasp is over the first of the dull black dresses that will give you a lift through the midsummer shopping doldrums. Usually at this early date these sable toned creations are shunned; not so this summer, for a lot has been done toward keeping them as cool and as comfortable as anything in sheer materials.

The air conditioned tops are especially decorative. With slashes and rows of fagoting and lots of openwork artfully conceited to look like the lacy yokes and sleeves, they are most attractive.

What you are going to like, after all the severity of the last few seasons, are the full skirts, the draped blouses, the large and expertly fashioned sleeves. Even though the fullness in the skirts is planted directly in front, you'll still look slim and more willowy because of the knowing way the designers have shirred and tucked and smocked this fullness to keep it flat and smooth.

If draping ideas don't intrigue your fancy after all these years of circumspect tailored and pencil silhouettes, then you are unappreciative. These new graceful clothes are destined for the smartest wardrobes to be worn now.

Uneven hemlines, long collars that can be wound around the neckline, once or twice . . . shirrings, huge sleeves that end, either below or just above the elbow, mark the smartest of new all black silk dresses ready now for any depleted and slightly wilted summer wardrobe.

Fashion photograph . . . a super-cool navy sheer with a tiny, almost invisible, square effect . . . the very short sleeved dress is tucked down the center of the skirt, trimmed with a row of tiny covered buttons down the center of the blouse and then cooled with a huge crisp white bow of organdy. The separate jacket has long, loose sleeves.

Film Writers Cite New Wagner Law in Bargaining Dispute

Hollywood, Cal., July 16.—(AP)—The Screen Writers' guild, in a letter addressed today to eleven major film studios, questioned their "good faith" in bargaining with writers through the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences.

"We wish to point out," the letter said, "that such negotiations are not only illegal under the provisions of the national labor relations act [the Wagner bill], which makes majority representation mandatory, but also must raise serious questions as to your good faith in bargaining with 38 writers instead of 770."

The Ortega Feud

By Marie De Nervaud

SYNOPSIS.

Chris Jackson is sent by Bill Benton, new sherif of Monterey county, in early Spanish California, to put an end to the Ortega-Alvado feud, which has resulted in many murders. Chris encounters Guido Ortega, Ramon, his dare-devil son, and Ysabel, his beautiful sad-eyed niece. He falls in love with Ysabel at first sight, and has a quarrel with Ramon and publicly spanks him. He receives a note from Ysabel, hinting of a mysterious danger and begging his aid. Chris camps in a canyon on the northern boundary of the Alvado ranch. He is advised by Rocky, an old Indian hunter, to leave the country. Next day Chris meets Francesca Alvado, flirtatious Spanish beauty. He tells her of his encounter with Ramon Ortega. It wins him welcome at the Alvado ranch. He is invited to a rodeo to be held there in a week. During the rodeo the warring families hold a traditional three day truce. Ysabel Ortega is facing a forced marriage with her cousin, Ramon. Her uncle refuses to tell her the secret of her birth as he had promised to do on her 18th birthday. She appeals to Rocky, who promises to delay the priest's arrival. Chris, masquerading as Rocky, comes to the Ortega ranch. He is captured. Ysabel rescues him. He returns to the Alvado ranch. They become suspicious of him and he is forced to remain with them, an unwilling guest, under threat of his life. José Alvado, in love with Ysabel, ventures to the Ortega ranch and is held a hostage. The Ortegas arrive at the Alvado ranch for the rodeo. Francesca is jealous of Ysabel. The first night of the rodeo Chris dances with Ysabel and wins a fleeting kiss. Next day at the rodeo Chris is taunted into riding a killer. A man stumbles and falls in the stallion's path.

INSTALMENT XXXIII.

DISILLUSION.

The shout that had been frozen on the lips of the spectators of this drama was suddenly released, as the crowd realized that both men had been miraculously saved from what had seemed a horrible and inevitable death.

Chris ran over to the man who would now be a mangled and inert mass in the dust, and put out a hand to help him to his feet, then dropped it again as it was thrust aside and the near victim staggered erect and faced him.

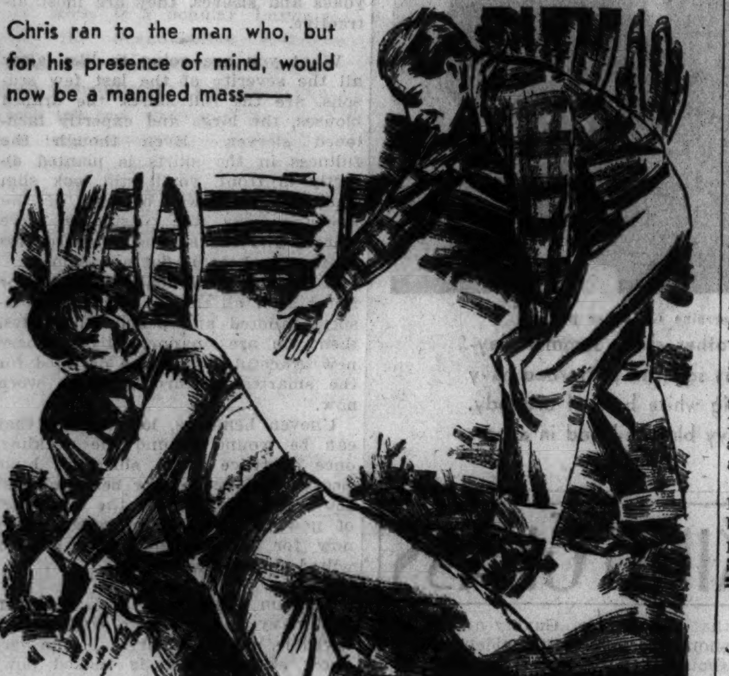
"Hells bells!" Chris was not even conscious of the exclamation that passed his lips, as he faced Ramon Ortega, streaks of dirt alternating with the dull red of his face, and his eyes smouldering with hate and humiliation.

For a second the two men faced each other, as the crowd, unaware for the most part of what was between them, cheered lustily.

With a mighty effort to save his face, Ramon bowed to Chris.

"You have saved my life, Señor. It was more than I deserved for such a stupid blunder, but I thank you."

He turned abruptly on his heel, but not before Chris had caught the parting flare of hatred in his eyes, as Guido Alvado rushed up and gave him a grip of congratulation.



Chris ran to the man who, but for his presence of mind, would now be a mangled mass——

"Well done," he exulted, then added in an undertone of malicious satisfaction, "Caramba! Is Ramon furious! At this moment he would almost rather be dead than owe you his life!"

More congratulations on his riding and his presence of mind kept Chris from answering, but when he had finally withdrawn from the crowd, he turned to Guido again with a laugh.

"I'll have to be more on my guard against a knife in the back than ever!"

Guido shook his head. "Not from that quarter. That is what makes him so furious. You have tied his hands for revenge."

"He didn't look as overcome by gratitude as all that," Chris observed.

"It is not gratitude that will hold him," Alvado answered. "His honor is now engaged. You have publicly saved his life. If anything should happen to you now, and he should in any way be suspected of being connected with it, he would never live down the disgrace."

Chris shook his head at the intricacies of the Spanish code.

"And suppose you had been in my place and had saved him?" he asked curiously. "Would that have ended his feud with you?"

"I would not have saved him," Guido answered simply. "I would have regarded it as the will of God that he should be trampled under foot."

Chris shrugged. "Perhaps you are right, but I can't see things just that way."

With a cryptic, "More's the pity!" Guido left him, and went back to his other guests.

Chris strolled over to Bingo and swung into the saddle.

"Gosh, Bingo, life must be simple when you can be as sure of yourself as Guido is!" he observed in a musing tone.

He glanced over to the north, where some vaqueros were driving more cattle to the round up, then abruptly turned Bingo about.

"We've done our share of that for one day," he commented; "let's go and see what Rocky has to say about things."

With a joyful acceptance of this suggestion, Bingo started off at a gallop for the hills.

. . . . . . . . . . . . . . . .

The court of the Alvado hacienda rang with gay chatter and laughter, and glinted with color, as the girls flitted in and out of the shadows of the arcades waiting for summons to lunch.

Groups of the older women sat on the benches under the sheltering tiled roof that sloped to meet the outer column of the arcades, interrupting their gossip now and then to glance indulgently at the younger ones.

This was one of the essentially feminine hours of the rodeo, when no man was within earshot, and tongues were loosened in gay abandon.

"Who is the handsome American, Francesca?" a bright eyed girl in a flowered calico, with a red rebosa over her shoulders called out.

Ysabel, who had been standing somewhat apart, idly fingering one of the roses of a rambling aggripina, pricked up her ears at this question. A faint pink dyed her cheeks, and she bent lower over the rose to hide her face as she waited to hear Francesca's answer.

"It is all very mysterious about him," Francesca's tone was a provocative mixture of reserve and confidence, "he has been visiting us for some time, and——"

"He danced with Ysabel Ortega," an aggrieved voice chimed in, "and then he disappeared."

Ysabel's heart gave a throb at these words, but she pretended to be absorbed in her rose. So, he had not danced with any one after she left! This knowledge brought a dizzy sense of elation with it that mingled subtly with the perfume of the rose she held in her hand.

"Yes, but Francesca disappeared, too!" Another challenging voice broke through Ysabel's perfect moment.

"Must I tell you everything?" Francesca's silvery voice broke through the laughing demand for an explanation that greeted the last observation. "The longer he stays the more we have to say to each other. I promise you that you will see him again tonight, and perhaps—" her pause was fraught with meaning—"perhaps we will be ready to tell you some interesting news!"

The rose blurred and trembled before Ysabel's eyes, and she bit her lip to suppress the involuntary gasp that escaped her.

There could only be one interpretation of Francesca's words! And she would never have made such a public announcement unless her engagement to Chris were already an accomplished fact!

Ysabel lost all sense of the individual remarks in the ensuing clamor, as her dreams crumbled about her.

Ever since she had arrived at the rodeo, she had been living in a world of unreality, peopled only by herself and Chris. As she looked back over the past twenty-four hours—the happiest hours she had ever known—she saw it all as a delusion, the figment of her own desire and imagination.

Her own desperate situation, which had drifted away with the other realities of life, crowded back to her mind with shattering force.

How could she ask Chris to help her now, when she knew that he had only been playing with her? That kiss had been just part of a flirtation, which she had been fool enough to take seriously.

A wave of despair and humiliation crashed over Ysabel, but she made a mighty effort to control it. No one must know! No one must guess!

The clang of the luncheon bell broke in on the excited mood of the young people, but not before one of them had called out to Ysabel, "Did you hear what Francesca said? She is going to announce her engagement tonight to the mysterious gringo!"

"I did not say that!" Francesca's laughing protest was more an affirmation than a denial, and a sudden recklessness took possession of Ysabel. Francesca should not have the satisfaction of thinking that she cared, or even, that she was surprised.

"That is no news to me!" She was amazed at the gay casualness of her voice. "Señor Kent told me about it last night! Didn't he tell you he had confided in me?"

Before Francesca could recover from this mocking unexpected thrust, Ysabel linked arms with one of the girls, and passed into the dining sala.

Park Outing Today.

Mrs. H. L. Goldman, general chairman of recreation, will be in charge of the combined groups of younger and older Little Sisters at an outing at Riverside park today. Mrs. Philip P. Sachs is president of the Jewish Big Sisters.

Federation Party.

A dessert-bridge party for the benefit of the Ninth district of the Illinois federation of Women's Clubs will be held at the Chicago Yacht club in Belmont harbor at 12:30 o'clock tomorrow. Mrs. Frank W. Blankley, president of the district, will be hostess.

GASOLINE ALLEY—DON'T YOU GET IT, WALT?

WALT, YOU GO OUT AND TALK TO RACHEL. IF SHE GETS MARRIED SHE'LL CERTAINLY GET SOME LAZY LOAFER WHO WILL EXPECT HER TO SUPPORT HIM.
HOW DO WE KNOW THAT? WE HAVEN'T EVEN SEEN HIM.
7-17
HAVEN'T YOU ANY IMAGINATION? OF COURSE SHE WILL. AND SHE'LL WORK HER FINGERS TO THE BONE TO KEEP HIM IN COMFORT AND IDLENESS.
ANOTHER GOOD ARGUMENT IS WE NEED HER HERE TO TAKE CARE OF JUDY AND US.
NO OF COURSE NOT, FOOLISH! WE AREN'T THINKING OF OURSELVES—WE'RE THINKING OF HER.
GOSH, PHYLLIS, YOU BETTER DO IT! I'M SURE TO SAY THE WRONG THING.

Sally Warns Children to Hurry Letters

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

Don't let the postman get away without your letters today, boys and girls, because if your note to me isn't mailed today, it will be too late to be judged for an invitation to our Palace theater party!

If you want to see "Old Man Rhythm" with me, I hope you've written and told me so, because tomorrow I'm going to select 100 boys and girls who write the best letters as my guests at the Palace theater on Thursday, July 25.

As I told you yesterday, there's been a slight change in our plans—we'll see the same splendid vaudeville show, with lots of famous people, singers and dancers, but instead of seeing "Lady Tubbs" as was originally intended, we're to see our friend Buddy Rogers in "Old Man Rhythm." It's a comedy with a good deal of music, and I know you'll all enjoy seeing it.

After I select my winners tomorrow, I'll make a list of them, and the lucky boys and girls will find their names printed in next Sunday's TRIBUNE. So you see, it's a double treat if you win—getting your name in the paper and receiving an invitation to a swell party. Just tell me why you think you'll enjoy the entertainment which will be provided for us, and don't forget to add those three little items—your name, address, and age.

Letters should be addressed to Sally Joy Brown, THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE, Chicago.

By MARY MEADE.

One of the most versatile packaged edibles we've had occasion to gloat over lately is a popular immigrant from the Scandinavian countries. Rather than attempt to spell [or think about pronouncing] those long names which tell just what kind of "brod" it is, let's content ourselves with the less colorful name of rye wafers.

This crunchy, flavorsome breadstuff comes in two forms—either in the large discs, looking for all the world like phonograph records, so popular in Scandinavian homes; or in crisp, oblong wafers. Speaking of their form, we know that you'll appreciate the convenience of that package which offers four individually wrapped packets of wafers. Not only does it keep them crisp after the first dipping into the package, but it helps to prevent the waste in breaking and crums that is the bane of so many cracker and wafer boxes.

Now to get back to the versatility of these desirable rye aliens. Just as you can toss together a fine pastry with the crums of the prepared flake cereals, so you can make one with a flour made from rolling the rye wafers. It makes an excellent crust for a spicy apple pie, for peach pie, or to hold a cooked apricot filling. Make it this way:

Rye Wafer Pastry.

1 cup rye wafer flour
2 tablespoons butter
Few grains salt
⅓ cup water

Put rye wafers through a food chopper, and then roll to a flour with a rolling pin. Measure, and work together with butter, salt, and water. Press down evenly into the bottom and sides of a pie pan, fill, and bake in a moderate oven. The time of baking will depend on the type of filling used.

We needn't tell you what a grand base these wafers make for all sorts of appetizers. Any of your favorite canapé spreads or sandwich fillings may be used to top them, and with a flip bit of garnishing they'll practically melt away on your appetizer tray. Maybe, however, the idea of transforming them into dainty marguerites for your tea tray will prove new. At any rate, here's how:

Rye Wafer Marguerites.

1½ cups sugar
½ cup water
2 egg whites, stiffly beaten
3 tablespoons shredded coconut
½ cup nut meats
¼ teaspoon vanilla
12 oblong rye wafers

Boil the sugar and water together until the sirup spins a thread. Pour slowly over the stiffly beaten egg whites, beating constantly. When fluffy, add the coconut, nuts, and vanilla. Pile the mixture on the wafers and brown delicately in a moderate oven.

Remember an illustrated recipe we recently showed on how to make a chocolate corn flake confection? Well, we find that an equally delicious mixture can be made from crushed rye wafers. Melt a half pound of sweet dipping chocolate together with a square of regular baking chocolate and a little vanilla. When smooth and soft, stir in three cups of crushed rye wafers, toss together lightly, and drop by spoonsful on waxed paper to harden.

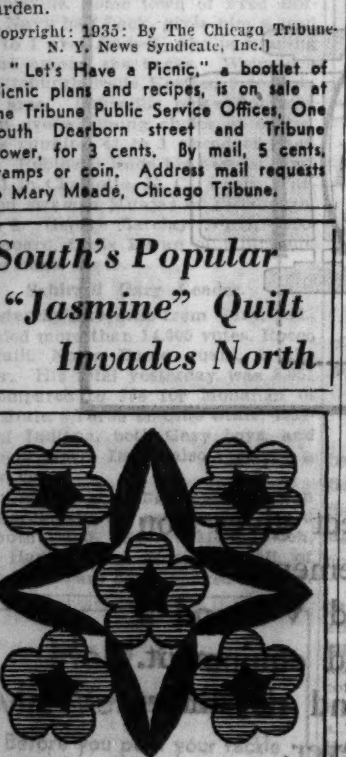
South's Popular "Jasmine" Quilt Invades North



Jasmine.

BY NANCY CABOT.

Quite a modern looking design is the "Jasmine" block, and not nearly so old as the bloom itself. Cape Jasmine, or Carolina Jessamine, grows in profusion in the south and the quilt block likewise first bloomed in the south, in Memphis, Tenn. Recently the pattern has done a bit of traveling and become quite well known and decidedly popular in the northern states.

Patterns of this design are 5 cents, stamps or coin. Address Nancy Cabot, Chicago Tribune, or call at one of the Tribune Public Service offices: One South Dearborn street and Tribune Tower.

New Makeup Adapts Stage Cosmetics for Evening Use

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

One of our better makeup salons now features a screen and stage makeup to fill the long felt yen of women to face the lights once looking like a screen or movie star. I don't know how this would work out for day wear.

The application of this type makeup calls for time and concentration and a skilled hand, to put it mildly. The first few steps are simple, as the foundation application and then pressing a tissue lightly over the face to give a smooth "mat" finish. After this, you are supposed to do a little modeling with a foundation cream of darker tone than the first used. This to minimize the width of the nose or to plump the too hollow cheek, etc.

The eye shadowing begins with what is called a "liner," which means a basic shadow tint of light color blended in over the entire lid, fading it off into the brows. Over which goes another shadow of perhaps a quite different color. A minute dot of red is tucked into the corner of the eye. Moist rouge is used high on the cheekbones. Then your powder, brushed off with a powder brush. The lips are an art lesson in themselves as to shaping. An indelible lip stick first and then a moist rouge application.

It sounds a bit complicated for the amateur and is. But the modeling note is the one we pounce on as a feature you are going to hear stressed more and more.

Modeling with the light and darker foundation base. We know of one famed singer whose corded throat in song is completely hidden with this light and dark treatment. You know how those cords show up under the footlight influence when the head is thrown back for a high C.

CONQUERING CONTRACT

By P. HAL SIMS

THE WEEKLY PROBLEM.

Prowling through an old book on England, I encountered some of the Ingoldsby lyrics, written by Richard Henry Barham. In the century old volume the comment on the poem is made that the "portrait is undeniable; we meet the original at every turn in the more aristocratic portions of Bath." How about today?

"There's an old yellow admiral, living at Bath,
As gray as a badger, as thin as a lath;
And his very queer eyes have such very queer leers,
They seem to be trying to peep at his ears.
That old yellow admiral goes to the rooms,
And he plays long whist, and he frets, and he fumes."

And even though it has no possible place in a bridge column, I cannot resist reviving another fragment by Anstey:

"O, 'twas pretty to see them all put on their flannels,
And then take the water like so many spaniels,
And though all the while it grew hotter and hotter,
They swam just as if they were hunting an otter.
'Twas a glorious sight to see the fair sex
All wading with gentlemen up to their necks,
And today many persons of rank and condition
Are boiled by command of an able physician!"

To get the full flavor of the first two lines you must be a constant reader of Ogden Nash. "Spaniels" is then pronounced "spannels."

And here is the problem which, fortunately for you, cannot be put into verse.

Debut Party to Be Held at Blackstone.

Glenn Lake, and from there are going to a houseparty Mr. and Mrs. Sudler are giving around the middle of the month. The other acceptances, so far, include those of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Sudler Jr.

Mrs. Edmund J. Doering and two of her three daughters, Miss Nancy Doering and Mrs. George P. Earling, are leaving next Monday for New York to sail on the 23rd on the Conte di Savoia for five weeks abroad.

Another Chicagoan who will sail on the same ship is Miss Anna Williams of Astor street, who will join friends in Switzerland. This charming octogenarian travels alone, prefers walking up and down three flights of stairs instead of taking an elevator, expects to do some flying while she is abroad, and all in all has more energy and does more interesting things when she travels than many persons half her age. She will return home in October.

Viscontis Taking Motor Trip in East.

Count and Countess Ruggero Visconti, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren C. Fairbanks of 1500 Lake Shore drive, since early summer, now are touring New England by motor. Dedham, Mass., undoubtedly will be one of the places they will visit, for it was the home of the Fairbanks family and the old homestead now is a museum. Fairbanks house is believed to be the oldest frame house in America, having been erected in 1636.

The young American countess will be glad, without a doubt, to show this original American home of her family to her Italian husband, who is a descendant of the Viscontis who ruled Lombardy from the early 13th to the 15th century.

The Viscontis will be joined in the east in August by her parents and they all will return to Chicago together about Sept. 1. The Fairbanks' other daughter, Mrs. Frederick A. Poole Jr., and her husband are going west instead of east on their vacation. They will motor to Estes Park in August.

Young Mr. and Mrs. John M. Trainer Jr., who were married in Stockholm, Sweden, on June 29, will be at home tomorrow to select a home in Glencoe. Mrs. Trainer Sr. was so fascinated with the native land of her new daughter-in-law, the former Barbro Gyllenkrok, that she is staying over for another month or so.

Philip Loring Reed Home from Vacation.

Philip Loring Reed arrived at home yesterday from a brief vacation spent at French Lick Springs. While there he heard that his son, Philip Loring Reed Jr., had been the victor in the international team races for six-meter sailboats in Gotenberg, Sweden, and since Mr. Reed taught his son to sail he felt a justifiable pride in young Loring's accomplishment.

Sailing with young Mr. Reed were Michael Cudahy, Edward I. Cudahy's son, who learned to sail with Loring at Marion, Mass., where the Reeds and Cudahys have their summer homes, and Charles Hovey, who was at Andover last year with Loring. The three boys shipped their boat a month ago and arrived themselves at Gotenberg just two days before the races started. They will travel a bit on the other side before returning to this country.

Mrs. Ralph H. James is on her way to England to visit her daughters, Mrs. Charles Clarence Smith, who with Mr. Smith lives in Cobham, and Mrs. Gordon Stannus, whose home is in London. Mrs. James also will spend some time with her son, Charles, whose home also is in London.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick L. McNally of East Delaware place are aboard the Lady Nelson, cruising from Halifax, Nova Scotia, via Boston and Bermuda, to the West Indies and British Guiana.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Grimes and their daughter, Miss Helen Margaret Grimes, of Evanston will sail on the Berengaria on July 26 for six weeks in Europe. Miss Grimes' engagement to Arthur H. Nolte, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nolte of St. Louis, was announced recently and the wedding date will be set after she returns from abroad.

A visitor to Chicago who is being entertained a great deal by her former pupils is Miss Mary S. Nixon of Florence, Italy, who is at the Hotel Ambassador during her visit. Many of society's matrons and young women finished their education at Miss Nixon's Florentine school and in some families mother and daughter both were "finished" at Miss Nixon's.

Mrs. Bryan S. Reid and her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Chatillon, and Mrs. John Alden Carpenter and her daughters, Mrs. Adlai E. Stevenson and Mrs. Robert S. Pirie, are some of those who have gone to Miss Nixon's.

Simple Devices Heat Milk When Baby Travels

Either Alcohol or Electric Stove Convenient.

BY GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS

If this series on traveling with the baby makes you feel that it is quite an undertaking to go jaunting with him, don't feel discouraged. It is easier to stay home with your baby—but if you must go or want intensely to fare forth, you will have a much pleasanter time if you will plan well beforehand. In that way you will keep your small one well and comfortable, which adds materially to your fun.

There are various ways of warming the baby's milk bottle while traveling; of boiling his milk; and of sterilizing the bottles, nipples, and so forth.

Perhaps the easiest way is to carry a solid alcohol stove, a tray to set it on, and a cup or saucepan to use for these heating operations. Of, if you are traveling by train, it is possible to buy an electric water heater which can be plugged in. Sometimes, too, the steward or porter will bring you boiling water for your milk mixture, which you will bring to a boil again after you have mixed it with the milk.

Of course the baby's drinking water is boiled, and his bottles and nipples kept sterile. The day's supply, when boiled, can be kept in a vacuum bottle.

As to other foods: If the baby has supplementary foods, they can be bought en route when traveling by automobile, if you are sure you are going through towns large enough so that they will be procurable. If you go by train it will be necessary to carry most, if not all, of them with you, such as:

Vegetable purees. There are several makes on the market put up especially for babies. Cans of these can be taken, enough to last the journey. It may be necessary also to have small, covered jars in which to store what is left over. These will then have to be kept on ice. If you are to be gone only for a day you can make the puree before you go, put it in a jar, and keep it cold.

Prune pulp can also be gotten canned, and many other foods that may be on the baby's menu, including cooked cereal. Fresh eggs and oranges can be bought en route or taken along.

Harrison Players Give Shaw Satire at Washington Park

The Chicago park district's new policy of fostering free cultural entertainment found expression last night in a performance of Bernard Shaw's satirical comedy, "Androcles and the Lion," by the Richard B. Harrison Players, a group of Negro amateurs. The play was staged in the open air on a platform near the refectory in Washington park.

The same company will repeat the production tomorrow night in Humboldt park, on the terrace of the refectory, and also next Saturday night in Garfield park, in the south plaza of the band stand. The performances are being given under the supervision of Alfred Stury, festival director of the park district, and Pearl Greene Pachaco of the Harrison players. Negro spirituals, sung by a chorus of 50 voices, and a ballet are included in the program.

The only professional acting of "Androcles and the Lion," in which Shaw retells an ancient fable, in Chicago was an event of twenty-five years ago.

WEDDINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Howard Hill of Dundee, Ill., announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Margaret, to Pomeroy Sinnock Jr. of Chicago, formerly of Quincy, on July 13. The bride and the bridegroom are graduates of the University of Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Lee of 1510 East 65th street announce the marriage of their daughter, Rosemary Virginia, to Henry J. Madeksho of St. Paul, Minn., on June 29 at St. Cyril's church. The couple will reside in St. Paul.

Mrs. George H. Rempe of 5930 Washington boulevard announces the engagement of her daughter, Virginia Margaret, to Emmet Michael Barry of Phoenix, Ariz., son of Mrs. J. F. Barry of Denver, Col. The romance started when Miss Rempe went to Phoenix several years ago. Miss Rempe, one of seven sisters, attended St. Mary's college of Notre Dame at South Bend, and Mr. Barry is a graduate of the University of Colorado.

Mrs. Anna Dietermann of Denver, Colo., announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Adeline Dietermann, to Berlyn V. McCready of Mansfield, O., on July 12 at the Stevens hotel. Mr. and Mrs. McCready will make their home in Mansfield.

RENEW LICENSES OR CLOSE, EDICT TO 4,389 TAVERNS

Monday Deadline Set in "Crack Down" Order.

Police Commissioner James P. Allman announced yesterday that 4,389 taverns which have failed to renew their licenses will be closed Monday unless their owners pay the $300 semi-annual city license fee before that date.

Orders to the police department to "crack down" on the taverns were issued after City Controler Robert B. Upham, in charge of license collections, informed Allman that only 4,011 of the total 8,400 taverns have paid the license fee for the last half of the year, due July 1.

City Needs the Revenue.

"The city needs revenue and the tavern keepers have had sufficient time to come in and pay up," Mr. Upham said. "I have asked the police department to close every unlicensed place, and we mean business."

Mr. Upham also announced that the city will begin a campaign to collect all vehicle licenses on July 29, a week from Monday.

37,470 Autos Without License.

"Figures just received from the state show that 394,563 state licenses have been issued for passenger cars in Chicago," he said. "However, only 357,093 Chicago owners of passenger cars have purchased city vehicle licenses, leaving the city 37,470 short. In addition we have sold 7,616 fewer truck licenses than have been issued by the state for city truck owners.

ILLINOIS BARGE TRAFIC DOUBLED OVER LAST YEAR

Freight trafic on the Illinois waterway handled by the federal barge lines is now running twice the volume of last year, according to a report yesterday by Guy Bartley, secretary of the Inland Waterways corporation. This year's growth, Bartley reports, has come about despite a marked decrease in barge transportation of corn and other grain. The trafic figures show growing shipments of sugar and coffee to Chicago from New Orleans.

For the months of March, April, and May this year, the total trafic handled by the federal barges on the Illinois waterway was 116,022 tons. For the same months in 1934 it was 60,941 tons. A total of 32,000 tons was received by Illinois port towns in the three month period this year as against 17,767 tons last year. At the same time port towns discharged 84,017 tons this year as against 43,174 tons in 1934. Bartley said the number of barges on the Illinois river has been doubled to take care of the trafic.

KEEP GAMBLING LID ON, PRENDERGAST ORDERS ALL POLICE CAPTAINS

"Keep the gambling lid on tight," Capt. John C. Prendergast instructed the six supervising captains yesterday, his first day as chief of the uniformed police.

The supervising captains were ordered to transmit the edict to the heads of the forty district stations in the city, with the admonition that each capain would be held strictly accountable for any gambling in his district.

"I've heard," Capt. Prendergast said, "that bookmakers reason they will be able to run unmolested until I find my feet in my new office. Well, I've anticipated them. If I hear of any place being allowed to run I shall take disciplinary steps against the captain of that district."

ROY KEEHN 'OUT OF DANGER'; MAY BE HOME SUNDAY

Roy D. Keehn, major general of militia and commanding officer of the Illinois National Guard, was "apparently out of danger" yesterday in a hospital in Deadwood, S. D., according to Dr. James T. Case of Chicago, who is in attendance. Mr. Keehn was taken to Deadwood on Saturday after he had been critically injured in an automobile accident near Beulah, Wyo.

Dr. Case said yesterday that he plans to bring Mr. Keehn to Chicago by airplane Sunday if the present improvement continues until that time. At first it was feared it would be necessary to amputate Mr. Keehn's arm to halt the spread of infection.

Dr. Case said yesterday that the infection in the fractured area is under control and that no further danger is expected from that source.

SUITS FOR BACK PERSONAL TAXES NAME 50 MORE

Fifty more corporations and individuals yesterday in suits filed in the Circuit court to collect delinquent 1932 and 1933 personal property taxes. The suits were filed by Assistant State's Attorney Frank Kastigar.

John Bain, 8844 Pleasant avenue, head of the defunct chain of 12 Bain banks, was sued for $1,001 on 1932 taxes and a suit for $1,490 was filed against Mrs. H. Leslie Atlas, 2440 Lake View avenue.

Among those sued for 1933 taxes are: Drake hotel, Whitestone company, $7,801; National Jockey club, 3301 South 52d avenue, Cicero, $620; Meadowmoor Dairies, Inc., 1334 South Peoria street, $5,454; Acme Steel company, Riverdale, $10,767; Rosalie S. Cahn, executrix, 20 Cedar street, $1,398, and Hayden S. Harris, 20 Cedar street, $3,160.

Angry Bull Chases Hat While Farmer Climbs Fence

COUNCIL TO PASS 4½ MILLION EXTRA BUDGET MONDAY

$1,677,000 Provided to Raise City Pay.

The city council yesterday ordered published its supplemental budget appropriating $4,563,000 for pay restoration, added police and fire protection, and other additional services payable from the corporate [operating] fund during the last half of the year. On Monday the council is scheduled to adopt the budget, which will bring the total corporate fund expenditures to $49,681,065 for the year.

The council is to pass on Aug. 2 an ordinance instructing the county clerk to spread a tax levy to provide the revenues for the appropriations authorized in the original and supplemental budgets for the second half of 1935. Since the general assembly recently pegged the city's corporate tax levy at $36,000,000, the passage of the tax ordinance will be just a formality

New Firemen and Police.

The budget as it now stands—and changes are not anticipated—provides $1,677,760 for canceling one-half of the pay cuts imposed on city employés for the last six months of this year, $442,300 for 500 added police, $174,070 for 200 added firemen, $225,000 for Navy pier and Lake Calumet improvements, and $200,000 for a new fireboat.

The council makes a lump sum appropriation of $2,000,000 from its unexpended bond funds for the construction of fire and police stations and bridges. This appropriation is to be drawn on to provide the city's share of the cost public works projects to which the federal government allots grants and loans.

From special funds the council is appropriating the following amounts to provide added services and to include employes in the pay restoration program: water fund, $214,099; vehicle tax, $37,250; Chicago public library, $361,408; city tuberculosis sanitarium, $821,643.

Approves Weiland Appointment.

The council approved Mayor Kelly's appointment of Dr. Henry J. Weiland, former alderman, to the board of local improvements, succeeding Ald. P. J. Cullerton, who replaced Dr. Weiland as representative of the 38th ward last spring.

The council agreed that at its next meeting it would grant the Sanitary district the right to cross city streets in the proposed construction of an intercepting sewer from Racine avenue and Pershing road to a proposed new treatment works at Stickney. The project will cost $1,300,000 and will employ 1,000 men. Funds for it have been provided in the government's $42,000,000 loan to the district.

Burned When Sweeper Sparks, Igniting Gasoline

After cleaning a vacuum sweeper with gasoline yesterday afternoon, William Forrest, 21, of 2834 North Mobile avenue, turned on the motor and a spark caused a small explosion within the motor which set fire to a milk bottle filled with gasoline. Forrest was burned severely about the face and hands.

ATTORNEYS NEAR BATTLE IN TRIAL OF 3 POLICEMEN

CRIMINAL COURT.

Edward Wiegert, bigamy, sentenced to one to five years in the penitentiary by Judge Rudolph F. Desort.

A near fist fight between Prosecutor Donald Thompson and three defense attorneys marked the conclusion of testimony yesterday in the trial of three suspended policemen in Judge E. I. Frankhauser's Criminal court on charges of taking a bribe. The defendants are William Masterson, Michael E. Murphy, brother of "Big Tim" Murphy, slain labor racketeer, and Marshall Dubach.

They are alleged to have accepted $200 in return for persuading Cecil Treadway and his wife to withdraw their identification of Bert Pearson as one of two bandits who robbed the Treadways in their cleaning establishment at 8533 South State street in April, 1934. Prosecutor Thompson was shouting questions at Murphy, who was on the stand, when the fracas started.

Defense Attorney Harold Levy rushed to the bench to voice an objection and brushed against the prosecutor. Thompson shouted a threat at Levy and Defense Attorneys James M. Burke and George Crane joined in the combat of words and threats.

Judge Frankhauser called a recess of ten minutes until peace was restored. The case is expected to go to the jury today.

GETS PROBATION OF YEAR.

Paul Edward, 32 years old, found guilty of breaking into a gasoline station at 3001 North Cicero avenue last Saturday, was placed on probation for one year yesterday by Judge Matthew D. Hartigan in the felony court.

R. L. PEARCE & CO. BEGINS AUDIT OF COUNTY OFFICES

R. L. Pearce & Co., public accountants at 20 West Jackson boulevard, was selected yesterday by Clayton F. Smith, president of the county board, to make a complete audit of the books of thirteen county fee offices. Auditors were put to work immediately in the coroner's office, where fees are collected for conducting inquests.

At the same time President Smith dispelled reports that the audit would be halted by lack of funds because the county contingent fund now shows a deficit of $15,000. President Smith said State's Attorney Courtney had ruled that the $5,000 necessary for the audit might be spent and appropriated in next year's budget.

The audit of county fee offices is being made on the recommendation of the county board audit advisory committee, which was appointed after discovery of the $414,000 shortage in the books of Robert L. Sweitzer, deposed county treasurer, during his 24 years as county clerk.

166 Postoffice Mural Sketches Put on View

One hundred and sixty-six sketches submitted by artists for murals in nine Illinois postoffices were placed on exhibition yesterday on the ninth floor of Mandel Brothers store. Eight Chicago artists were announced as winners for eight of the postoffices in the competition, which was carried on by the federal government. The ninth winner is being selected in Washington by the procurement division of the treasury department.

TWO CHAIN STORES ROBBED.

The Atlantic and Pacific Tea company stores at 1638 Montrose avenue and 2300 Belmont avenue were robbed yesterday by two gunmen who obtained a total of $77.

600,000 VOTE FOR ALL-STARS! SET NEW MARK

More Ballots Arrive in Every Mail.

BY ARCH WARD.

Football's All American team is almost ready to leap out of news print onto the gridiron.

When it comes forth there can be no question about its all-star caliber. More than 600,000 fans will have spoken. Never before have so many persons had a hand in the selection of an athletic team.

The coast to coast poll being conducted by THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE and 105 associated newspapers for the purpose of picking a squad of 1934 college seniors to battle the Bears at Soldiers' field the night of Aug. 29 already has produced 355,000 votes. The balloting will continue until midnight Sunday, with every part of the country trying to rally sufficient last minute support to elect its favorite candidates.

When the poll for players ends the balloting for coaches to lead the college team will begin. Three will be chosen, a head coach and two assistants. The man receiving the greatest number of votes naturally will be named head coach and will have complete charge of training, exactly as he has at his own school. The coaches' poll will last two weeks.

Vote Counters Behind.

Officials in charge of counting and tabulating votes received in this office are 24 hours behind in their work. It will be at least next Tuesday morning before the final standings in the player poll can be published. More than twice as many ballots already have been received as were counted last year.

Don Hutson, Alabama end, continues to be the most popular player. He has 68,592 votes, 3,000 more than were received by Ed Krause of Notre Dame, leader in the 1934 poll. Hutson has no runaway, however, for Frank Larson of Minnesota is at his heels with 67,918. One of the surprising developments among the candidates for end has been the steady rise of Raymond Fuqua of Southern Methodist. The south has given him a huge vote and he has run fairly well in most of the coast and midwest centers. Fuqua ranks fourth this morning, only a few hundred votes behind Lester Borden of Fordham.

Jack Robinson of Notre Dame is pulling away from George Shotwell of Pittsburgh for first place among the centers and Cotton Warburton is widening his margin at quarter back. Stanley Kostka of Minnesota has a comfortable lead at full back, but the other positions find two or more evenly matched for top honors.

Louisville Backs Borries.

Duane Purvis of Purdue, who leads the half backs, is running behind in the Decatur, Ill., returns, which include his old home at Sullivan and his present home in Mattoon. Warburton of Southern California leads Jack Beynon of Illinois in the same territory. The Trojan newlywed trails Salatino of Santa Clara, 2 to 1, however, in the San Francisco bay district. Houston, Tex., is rolling up a big vote for Hilliard and Howell at half backs, but fans there have not overlooked Purvis and Kostka.

Louisville, home town of Fred Borries, Navy half back, gives him a lead of 8 to 1 over Howell, who is running second among the backs. Weinstock of Pittsburgh leads Kostka, 2 to 1, in that area. Louisville picks Robinson as an overwhelming choice at center. He is running 42 to 1 ahead of Shotwell. Robinson leads his nearest rival 3 to 1 in Charlotte, N. C., where Warburton swamps Munjas of Pittsburgh, 14 to 1. George Barclay, North Carolina guard, trails Bevan of Minnesota in his home state.

Schiralli Gary Leader.

Yesterday's returns from Gary, Ind., included more than 14,000 votes. Rocco Schiralli, Notre Dame guard, is the leader. His total yesterday was 8,051 as compared to 294 for Monahan of Ohio State. Yards of Ohio State, Busbee of Indiana, both Gary boys, and Vairo of Notre Dame also received a heavy vote.

Schiralli is running behind Bevan and Barclay in the returns for guard at South Bend. George Melinkovich, Dan Hanley, and Robinson, all of Notre Dame, are being backed heavily.

Hold On, Mr. Vacationist!

Before you pack your tackle and hit the highway, mail that application for tickets to football's greatest spectacle—the College All-Americans vs. the Chicago Bears at Soldiers' field Aug. 29.

It may be too late when you return. Don't ruin that vacation with worry over whether you'll get under the wire. Mail a money order or check payable to The Chicago Tribune to the Football Ticket Manager, Chicago Tribune. The prices are $1.10, $1.65, and $2.20.

Everything Will Be Different in All-Star Game, Says Halas

(This is the third of a series of articles by George Halas, president and head coach of the Chicago Bears.)

BY GEORGE HALAS.

When the opening kickoff sends the ball tumbling end over end, down the field in a course resembling a giant fish hook, the lineup of the Bears against the All-Americans will differ considerably from that of 1934.

Beattie Feathers will be at left half back. And now is as good a time as any for the collegians to start worrying about stopping the lad from Tennessee. His injured shoulder has completely healed.

Last year when we wanted to launch a football thunderbolt we inserted Feathers into the lineup. So far as I am concerned, he is the greatest ball carrier football has known since Red Grange was at his peak.

Sets Record for Yards Gained.

Feathers literally ran the National league dizzy in 1934. In ten league games this brilliant runner gained 1,004 yards, averaging ten yards each time he carried the ball. His total exceeded the former league record, held by Cliff Battles of Boston, by more than 300 yards.

Feathers and Bronko Nagurski go together like bacon and eggs. The tremendous line punches of the catapulting Nagurski draw the defensive wall together, setting the stage for Feathers' brilliant cutbacks outside or inside the tackle.

The pair operate much the same as did Jack Dempsey in his championship days, when he pounded his opponent's body until the latter was forced to lower his hands and expose his chin. In football, Nagurski is the body puncher, preparing openings for the knifelike slashes of Feathers at the flanks.

New Tackle in Lyman's Place.

Another change in the Bears' lineup will be at left tackle. Link Lyman, who took the bumps and jolts of football for almost a quarter of a century, won't be in there, and there's no denying that the big Nebraskan will be missed. For all 'round tackle play no one, in my judgment, ever held the edge over Link. He was also a great line leader. Lyman will coach the line at his alma mater, the University of Nebraska, this fall.

The left tackle job may fall to Buss of Michigan State, who has had one year of seasoning in the national circuit. Five new men will compete with him for Lyman's position. They are Trost of Marquette, Miller of Nebraska State Normal, Bailey of Tennessee, and Crawford of Duke.

There is also a strong possibility that Dr. Joe Kopcha, our veteran right guard, now serving his internship in a Detroit hospital, will not be available. Nor will we likely be able to use Mucha of Washington State, who will play with us during the 1935 league season. Mucha will probably be voted a place on the All-American squad.

As a matter of fact, a number of the men who will be with the Bears during the regular season will probably be elected to the All-American squad. I refer to such stars as Cotton Warburton of Southern California and Buzz Wetzel of Ohio State.

CLASSIC STARS GALLOP IN FINAL WORKOUTS TODAY

Omaha and Black Helen to Be Sent Full Route.

BY FRENCH LANE.

Alarm clocks all along the north shore will begin to clang at an early hour this morning and sleepy eyed gold coasters will roll out of their beds long before the roosters begin to crow.

The word got out at Arlington Park yesterday afternoon that the two great rivals for the 3 year old championship—Omaha and Black Helen—will engage in their final workouts for the Arlington Park Classic stakes to be run on Saturday early today.

Why not get the low down on the Classic by watching the final drills? the folks from along the shores of Lake Michigan asked one another.

Railbirds to Attend.

So when they learned Col. Edward R. Bradley's trainer, Bill Hurley, planned to work Black Helen the mile and a quarter Classic route just as soon as the sun comes up and that Trainer Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons would send Omaha over the same route a short time later, they made plans to line the rails with the rest of the railbirds.

Unless the stable kitchens last night put in an extra supply of coffee and rolls they'll be missing a lot of business at the break of dawn this morning.

Trainer Hurley doesn't want Black Helen to work extra fast this morning and he will instruct Jocky Don Meade, when the latter climbs into the saddle, to not rush her at any stage of the drill.

Black Helen Likes to Run.

Trainer Hurley wasn't at all certain that Black Helen will be content to gallop an easy mile and a quarter. If she does break away from Jocky Meade the Bradley conditioner is afraid she may shatter some track records.

"Black Helen has never been so full of run as she is these days," Trainer Hurley told his cronies.

Trainer Fitzsimmons may wait until 8 or 9 o'clock to send Omaha through his final hard drill. Should there be a threat of rain Omaha will work earlier.

St. Bernard to Work Also.

When all these plans were announced Alex Gordon passed out the word to young Dale Shaffer, owner of the speedy St. Bernard, that the colt will work at fifteen minutes after 5 o'clock this morning regardless of weather conditions.

That means Shaffer and the big party he will take to the track for the final workouts must arrive earlier than any of the others.

Other Classic candidates paraded before the railbirds during the early morning hours yesterday. Mrs. John Hertz's Count Arthur won many new backers when he reeled off a mile and a quarter in 2:06. He finished with much in reserve and this rapidly improving son of Reigh Count is looming stronger than ever as the real dark horse in the race.

Trainer Frank Hackett yesterday engaged A. Robertson to ride Count

In the WAKE of the NEWS

DANNO O'MAHONEY.

THE WAKE was curious about that name Danno, unfamiliar to us, so we went to Danno O'Mahoney's dressing room at Mills stadium Monday night after he had pinned George Zaharias with a body slam.

"It's a nickname," explained the 23 year old Irishman from County Cork who broke Jim Londos' long tenure of the wrestling championship in a recent match in Boston, "just like Danny, only perhaps it is just a little more familiar. My name is Daniel."

"How do you like American wrestling?" we inquired.

"It isn't wrestling—it's fighting," replied Danno.

"Then how did you learn it so quickly?" we persisted.

"In England. Wrestling is just as dirty there as in this country."

"Suppose you'll wrestle here as long as you are champion, save your money, marry an Irish colleen, and settle down in your home county," we suggested.

"No, I have to go back in four months," replied Danno, a fine looking chap of 220 pounds, well proportioned, but not with the bulging shoulder bound muscles of the one time typical wrestler. "I'm on furlough from the Irish Free State army. The period of enlistment is four years and I have another year to serve. I hope to have my service postponed now that I am champion, but I must go back first anyway.

"Service is not compulsory, but voluntary, like here, but when you enlist you must serve out your time. I learned to box in the army and was champion, but they told me I ought to be a wrestler because I'd get along faster in this country as a wrestler than as a boxer."

O'Mahoney gave spectators an exhibition of his so-called "Irish whip" attack, although his victory was secured by the body slam. It consists in grabbing his opponent by one hand, dragging and pulling him across the mat, then reversing with a sharp tug and attempting to jerk the victim over his head.

We cannot bring ourself to taking our wrestling too seriously, but it was a good show, with interesting acts for those whose sensibilities are not too shocked by the expected moans and groans of the exhibitors. As to its competitive merit we refrain from comment because we seldom pass judgment on such a delicate subject.

Vacation.

I took a week's vacation
To get a needed rest,
For I was, O, so weary
And very much depressed.
I thought I'd take it easy
And catch up on my sleep,
Away from all excitement
And with no dates to keep.
But plans for peace and quiet
Were just an idle jest;
I'm glad that I'm at home again,
The best darn place to rest!

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, July 16.—The White Sox received some first hand information today about the pitching skill of Johnny Allen, the graduate hotel clerk from Greenville, S. C. Allen's fast balling stopped the third place Chicagoans on two hits and elevated the pennant seeking Yankees to a 2 to 0 victory for an even break in the four game series. The triumph was doubly valuable to the league leaders because, linked with the Tiger setback, it stretched the Yankee lead to two and one-half games.

Allen's ninth victory of the year meant defeat No. 8 for Johnny Whitehead, although the prize from the Texas league was by no means a setup for Joe McCarthy's clouters. Between his own pitching skill and classy fielding of his mates he avoided various traps in all except one inning. That was in the fifth, when the first placers did all their scoring, partly because they bunched a couple of hits but mainly because the giant rookie was guilty of one error of commission and one of judgment.

Allen Issues No Passes.

Allen not only restricted the Sox to two hits but refused to give up even one base on balls. The first of the hits was a single to right by Appling. Later on Radcliff knocked one into the same open spot. Neither man went beyond first base, and as there were no errors in the Yankee defense they were the only two to travel that far.

Allen was annoying in another way. He struck out nine Chicagoans. This shower of strikes covered everybody except the two Lukes—Appling and Sewell. The latter also had the satisfaction of producing the only ball that was well hit, but it was caught. Even George Washington, performing as pinch hitter for Whitehead at the finish, bowed himself out on strikes.

Runs Streak to 27 Innings.

By his performance today Allen, who a year ago was a liability because of a supposedly dead arm, reached a total of 27 consecutive innings in which an earned run hasn't been scored against his fast ball.

The Sox had only to wait until the second inning before cracking down on Allen with a base hit, but this hardly compensated for sufferings inflicted by the Yankee expert. He started off by fanning Radcliff and Piet in the first inning, after which Haas bounced to short. In the second inning Bonura popped foul to Jorgens. Simmons fanned and a single then appeared off Appling's bat. Allen promptly struck out Dykes. This made four strikeouts in two innings.

Piet Saves Whitehead Trouble.

Whitehead yielded only one hit in the first two innings, but was nicked for two hits in the third and there would have been trouble if Piet hadn't intervened. Allen singled to right with two out and Combs followed with a single to center. Rolfe hit a grounder that had all the earmarks of a hit until Piet, tearing along on the grass back of first base, scooped it up with his gloved hand and hurried the throw to Bonura. The third out was pro-

TIMELY HITTING SNAPS WINNING STREAK, 7 TO 5

Henshaw Routed in Second Inning.

BY EDWARD BURNS.

Two streaks were busted at Wrigley field yesterday when the Phillies licked the Cubs, 7 to 5. The Cubs' winning spree was ended at eight straight and the Phillies' losing chain was snapped at five straight. Miscellaneous Chicago pitching, most of it wabbly, was the reason for the outcome, from the Chicago point of view, and if you choose to look at the totals through Quaker spectacles credit the victory to timely hitting and an errorless defense. Any way you look at it, the Philadelphias now are leading the Chicagos 6 to 5 in the season series.

Because Joe Bowman, the starting pitcher, lacked two putouts of going the prescribed five innings, Jim Bivin, third Philly pitcher, was awarded the laurel wreath, the first time his brow has been so adorned this year. Snuffy Henshaw, who got bumped out of the panorama in the midst of a four run blast in the second inning, was the losing pitcher.

Mr. O'Dea Suffers, Too.

While the Chicago pitchers did most of the suffering, Ken O'Dea, the other end of the Chicago battery, did some perspiring on his own. Four different Phillies stole second on Kenneth and on one occasion the young catcher's chagrin was increased by a toss into center field.

It may be said that the Cubs kept trying up to the bitter end. After the fifth inning, however, their rallies had a way of plunking right at the crucial moment. In the sixth they had the bases full with none out, but got only one run, it being batted in by a double play.

In the eighth the Chicagoans had runners on first and third with one out and the head of the batting order coming up. But Augie Galan, who had made three hits and walked once in four trips to the plate popped out for the second out and Bill Herman grounded out. In the ninth the first two batsmen reached base. Then Demaree hit into a double play just before Chuck Klein stepped up and smacked out a single for one run. The game ended when Hack forced Klein.

The Debating Boys Convene.

The Cubs duplicated their accomplishment in the series opener by hopping off to a 1 to 0 lead in the first inning. After the Phillies had been retired on three fly balls, Galan opened the Chicago offensive with a single to center and moved up on Herman's infield out. Cavarretta singled to center, scoring Galan. Bowman threw out O'Dea, then Demaree beat out a hit to deep short, after which Moore went to the right field screen to pull down Klein's drive.

The Cubs' advantage was wiped out in a hilarious manner in the second inning. Camilli opened with a single to right and went to third on Vergez's single to center. Haslin walked, filling the bases, and Chiozza singled to right, scoring Camilli and Vergez, and putting Haslin on third. Hack thought he had Haslin at third and started a debate with Umpire Magerkurth. He was joined by Vice President Grimm and other dugout inmates.

While Hack held the ball and orated, Chiozza sneaked to second. A belated play was made to second and Jurges and Herman started a little forum of their own with Umpire Pfirman the target of their sauciness. When the popping off was muted, Kowalik replaced Henshaw. Todd flied to Demaree and Demaree made the mistake of trying to get Haslin at home on an impossible chance. As Haslin scored easily, Chiozza reached third, later to score on Bowman's infield out. Allen singled to left, but Herman threw out Watkins.

One for Cubs.

DAVE GOLDMAN LEADS WESTERN AMATEUR TRIALS

Holds Advantage of Two Strokes with 68.

Colorado Springs, Colo., July 16.—[Special.]—Dave Goldman of Dallas, Tex., who reached the finals in the National and Western amateur tournaments last year, led the field of 155 in the first 18 holes of qualifying play in the 36th Western amateur meet at the Broadmoor Golf club course today.

Goldman, defeated by Lawson Little and Zell Eaton, in the National and Western, respectively, toured the par 70 course in 33—35—68, two strokes better than Tom Dwyer, Leland Stanford university; Jack Gaines, Los Angeles; Larry Trickett Jr., of Kansas City, and Bob Conliff Jr., Oklahoma City.

Four Tied for Third Place.

Three strokes back of Goldman at 71 were Paul Leslie, Jefferson City, Mo.; Charlie Yates, Atlanta, and Walter Emery, Oklahoma City, both former National intercollegiate champions, and Earl Berryhill, Sapulpa, Okla.

In the 72 class were Rodney Bliss, Omaha; Hal Chase, Des Moines, and J. Elmer Malm of Denver. John Goodman, the trans-Mississippi champion, wound up his first eighteen holes in the trials which will be concluded tomorrow with another round at the same distance, with a 73.

Gus Moreland, Peoria; Paul Jones, Oklahoma City, and Jack Malloy, Princeton university golf captain, all of whom are favorites to reach match play starting Thursday in the battle for Zell Eaton's title, had 74s. Eaton is exempt from qualifying.

Two Tied at 76.

The veteran Chick Evans, Edgewater, who says he has played in at least twenty-five western amateur tourneys, winning eight times, posted a 37—39—76 card. R. M. Burtt, another Chicagoan, also had a 76. George Victor, Glen View, marked up 78, followed by John Victor, also of Glen View, with 83 and Steve Williams Jr., Evanston, 84.

Goldman's card follows:

HINES HOSPITAL VETERANS SEE BOXING SHOW

Patients at the Edward Hines Jr. Memorial hospital were entertained last night with a boxing and wrestling show sponsored by the Medill Tribune post of the American Legion. Many sport celebrities, including Joe Louis, Bobby Pacho, Charlie Grimm, Larry French, Charlie Root, and several radio entertainers were present at the invitation of Frank Nessinger, commander of the post.

The boxing program consisted of three round exhibition bouts between Pat Henaghen and Frank Scribor, Tony Michaels and Sam De Pasquale, Clarence Lane and Frank Nelson, and Angelo De Benedetto and Joe De Pasquale.

There was a burlesque wrestling match between Jack Dribbs and Marty Cutler. An exhibition of jiu jitsu was given by John Schriver and E. Nishimoto.

Vyse, Fargo Tie for Lead in Hy Jinks

BY CHARLES BARTLETT.

A field of more than 175 competed in the 25th Hy Jinx, annual invitational tournament of the Edgewater Golf club yesterday and a majority of them celebrated the blessing of one of the best golf days in the season by going the full route of 36 holes.

The marksmen of the day were Tom A. E. Vyse, former University of Michigan player, and Hiram D. Fargo Jr., eight times club champion, both of whom finished with scores of 146, six strokes over par. Vyse held a two stroke lead over Fargo at the end of the morning 18 by shooting a 71, which included four birdies. In the afternoon, however, he slipped on the last four holes, taking a 75, while Fargo pulled up even with him by duplicating a morning round of 73. W. T. Potts, present holder of the club title, took second low gross with 73-78-151.

Capt. Gilbert Shoots 87.

Mayor Kelly was unable to take part in the golfing, appearing in the evening for the dinner, but a number of other civic notables, including State's Attorney Courtney, James M. Whalen, Capt. Dan Gilbert, John P. Harding, Michael L. Igoe, and Judges P. L. Sullivan and Joseph McGarry, competed. Capt. Gilbert led these with a gross card of 87, followed by Harding with a 91 and Whalen with a 96. Courtney hit 100 on the head. The prize list follows:

LOW GROSS, 36 HOLES—Hiram D. Fargo Jr., 73—73—146, and T. A. E. Vyse, 71—75—146, both of Edgewater, tied.

SECOND LOW GROSS, 36 HOLES—W. T. Potts, Edgewater, 73—78—151.

Waukegan Golfer Leads Elks Tourney with 151

Columbus, O., July 16.—(AP)—Jack Maki, Waukegan, Ill., shot his way into the lead in the Elks' national golf tournament today, at the end of 36 holes of play. He carded a 71 over the Wyandot Country club course in the pursuit for the $2,000 Doyle trophy. He had 80 yesterday, which gave him 151, two up on P. C. Houston, Elwood, Ind., who had 76—77.

Sidelights on Mackinac Yacht Race Saturday

By steamer lanes Mackinac Island is 331 miles from Chicago, but it is the minimum distance for sailing craft. It's always stated that the racing fleet will sail 331 land miles, but no boat has ever sailed the race in that short distance. Head winds, calms, gales, and high seas combine to force the craft to cover an average of 450 miles. . . . A yacht club's statistician has figured that the 39 craft entered in the race starting Saturday will sail approximately 18,000 boat miles.

Wartime naval vigilance is observed on racing craft. . . . At night all lights except the running lights are doused. Pipes and cigarets, if allowed by a skipper at all, are lit below decks so that competing yachts will not be able to locate them. . . . A pussyfooter wouldn't last long in the grueling Mackinac classic. . . . Neither would a bully. But there never has been a mutiny.

•

Government recognition of the famous Mackinac race began in 1909, when the cutter Tuscorora was assigned to convoy the fleet. . . . The Escanaba, modern 165 foot coast guard cutter, will go with the fleet next week under the command of Lieutenant Commander L. B. Olson. . . . This coast guard protection is rerequired, say yachtsmen, merely in case a boat is disabled and needs assistance. . . .

After sailing more than 450 miles in the 1904 contest, Vencedor and Vanenna, sister sloops, finished less than 5 minutes apart. . . . So closely were the two sailed that they were not out of sight of each other the whole trip. . . . The smallest corrected time margin, after handicaps had been figured, was 2 minutes and 27 seconds between Virginia and Chaperon in 1921. . . .

While the same factors are found in many other sporting contests the weather, skill, luck, and courage required to get a prize in the Mackinac race are all endurance qualities. . . . Other games concentrate sport into a couple of hours, while this race prolongs the strain on man and boat for two to four days.

TILDEN, VINES WAIT IN VAIN TO HELP CUP TEAM

LONDON, July 16.—(AP)—Big Bill Tilden and Ellsworth Vines sat around their hotel lobby today awaiting a call to action, but the summons never came. America's two foremost professionals had been assured indirectly that their services were desired to help whip the United States Davis cup players into trim for the inter-zone matches with Germany at Wimbledon this week-end.

Capt. Joseph W. Wear, although previously in favor of a series of tune up matches between his protégés and the professionals, changed his mind.

"I decided there would be nothing gained by such practice," Wear said. "Vines and Tilden have entirely different styles from our opponents. Playing against them might only unsettle our players."

The draw, to be made Thursday, is expected to find Wilmer Allison and 19 year old Donald Budge, California sensation, named for the singles assignments. Allison and John Van Ryn appear to be the logical doubles choice. This would leave Sidney B. Wood of New York, the second ranking American, on the sidelines.

COUNCIL LAUDS CATHOLIC BOUTS; WOMEN TO HELP

A resolution recognizing the New York-Chicago C. Y. O. intercity amateur boxing matches at Wrigley field July 31 as an event of civic importance was adopted at the meeting of the city council yesterday. The resolution was introduced by Ald. William A. Rowan, 10th ward.

Mrs. Frank J. Lewis, president of the Illinois Club for Catholic Women, heads the committee of women who have accepted invitations to serve on the intercity boxing bouts women's committee. Ninety prominent women in Chicago and suburbs are on the committee.

One of the functions of the women's committee will be to entertain the wives of distinguished guests. Headquarters of the committee are at the Tower Town club.

Mrs. Rose Long Wins, 4 and 3, in County Golf

Mrs. Rose Long of Jackson park led the favorites into the second round of play for the women's Cook county golf title at Jackson park yesterday when she scored a 4 and 3 victory over Virginia Jensen of Mohawk.

Mrs. Long, winner of the qualifying medal, led at the end of the first nine, 4 up. She gained another hole on the 10th when Miss Jensen's approach was short and her third shot fell into the bushes. Virginia scored a par 4 on the next hole, while Mrs. Long was down in 5. They halved the next three holes, and the match ended on the 15th green when each sank their putts for 6s.

Gwen Mishkin of Mid-City, recent winner of THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE golf school form contest, competing in her first tournament, scored a 40—42—82, one stroke under the medalist's score to defeat Mrs. Elizabeth Yourrell, Euclid Hills, 6 and 4.

Woods, Smead Win in Public Parks Tourney

Matches in the first round over the north course at Lincoln park yesterday for the Midwest Public Parks championship furnished a new record for playing 18 holes, but provided no upsets. Only about six and a half hours were required to get the championship flight around the nine hole course twice.

Jimmie Woods, the medalist, and Charles Smead, the defending champion, both advanced, Woods winning 2 and 1 from Sim De Willo, while Smead defeated Ken Foster, 6 and 4.

Al Andereggen, one of the favorites, posted an 8 and 7 victory over R. S. Haldeman, a Lincoln Park player. Mike Yensick, while considered a good golfer, wasn't expected to beat Sid Smith, but he did, 2 and 1.

The second round will be played today, starting at 9 a. m. Summaries:

Jim Woods Jr., Garfield, defeated Sim De Willo, Calumet, 2 and 1.

Dick Travers, Northwestern, defeated Roy Rasmussen, Northwestern, 5 and 4.

Mike Yamsick, Cog Hill, defeated Sid Smith, Lansing Air Port, 2 and 1.

R. A. Carson, Lincoln, defeated Chester Gross, White Pines, 1 up.

William Kammien, Mohawk, defeated Roy Hoegh, Mohawk, 3 and 1.

Bridges and Treest Meet at White City

Last March Clinton Bridges of Detroit made his first Chicago appearance in THE TRIBUNE Golden Gloves Tournament of Champions. He was an instant hit because of his terrific hitting. Bridges' ability to land knockout punches enabled him to continue on to victories over his New York opponent in the intercity tournament and his Italian foe in the international competition at Chicago Stadium.

It was after his performance in the latter bout that fans started asking themselves, "Who is going to lick this colored terror?"

The query went unanswered after Bridges scored a two round knockout over Big Ray Tucker at White City in his professional debut. Clinton followed this up by defeating Lou Thomas twice and Wilson Dunn. And so the query continued to be heard, though in a milder tone, for Thomas had extended Clinton in each of their encounters and Dunn was doing well until the third round, when he fell out of the ring and thereby lost on a technical knockout.

But yesterday fans began getting excited over Bridges' eight round contest with Bill Treest of Batavia, Ill., 1934 Golden Gloves champion, at White City tomorrow. The majority of fight followers are of the opinion Treest has an edge in experience and so may put a halt to Bridges' victory march. Handlers realize Treest is one of the strongest opponents Bridges has faced. Consequently they are not making any predictions.

Charles [Midget] Fischer tonight will defend his claim to the light heavyweight wrestling championship against Bert Rubi at Marigold Gardens, Broadway and Grace street. The bout will last an hour and a half if neither is able to score a fall. Preliminary matches:

Ivan Rasputin vs. Walter Roxy, one fall, 30 minutes.

Ernie Peterson vs. Al Williams, one fall, 30:00.

Duke Ruppenthal vs. Paul Miller, one fall, 30:00.

Joe Bauer vs. Buck O'Neill, one fall, 30:00.

Contracts for the ten round heavyweight bout between Joe Louis and King Levinsky at Comiskey park on Aug. 7 were filed yesterday at the Illinois Boxing commission. Levinsky's agreement, signed by Promoter Joe Foley, Matchmaker Mickey Farr, and Co-Managers Harold Steinman and Mrs. Lena Levy, called for 20 per cent of the net receipts. A similar percentage will be paid King for moving picture rights. Julian Black, representative of Louis, signed for the 1934 Chicago Golden Gloves king. He will receive 30 per cent of the gate and 30 per cent of the motion picture proceeds.

Louis arrived from Detroit yesterday afternoon and went to Savoy arena for a workout. Handlers announced they had discarded the plan to have Louis train at Grand Beach, Mich., or Aurora, Ill. Louis weighed 203, about six pounds more than he expects to weigh against Levinsky. The latter is due in the city tonight from the woods near Tomahawk, Wis. He will work out at Round Lake, Ill., starting Friday.

The California, Illinois, and New York athletic commission have joined in ruling that Freddy Miller must defend his featherweight title within 60 days after his return from Europe or have it vacated. . . . Lou Halper, Newark, N. J., welterweight, is seeking a match here against Harry Dublinsky. . . . Harry Forbes, former bantamweight champion, intends to offer a series of weekly shows at Northwest stadium soon. . . . The ten day notification for hearings to boxers and wrestlers who violate the rules in this state has been waived. . . . Joe Savoldi yesterday was suspended for one year for failure to go through with his contract to wrestle Danno O'Mahoney at Mills stadium Monday. . . . George Zaharias, who was substituted against O'Mahoney, was banned 30 days for his conduct following the match. . . . Heavyweights, including Johnny Pacek and Gene Thompson, will comprise the card being arranged for presentation at Marigold Gardens Monday.

LAKE GENEVA IS GOOD SPOT FOR BASS FISHERMEN

Large Mouth Fish Abound Near Weed Beds.

BY BOB BECKER.

Illinois fishermen who like to get away for just a day or two in order to fish for black bass should not pass up Lake Geneva, which is only a short ride from Chicago. Judging by our experience at Lake Geneva the other day one can get a nice string of bass up there, and there will be both large mouth and small mouth bass on the stringer, depending on the places that are fished.

A large lake that is not over-fished, plenty of cover and food fish for the bass, constantly stocked by the state—Lake Geneva is just about as good a close in fishing place as one could desire.

Just Know the Spots.

As we have pointed out several times, any fishermen who knows his black bass can go to hard fished lakes like Fox lake, Pistakee or other bodies of water in northern Illinois, work the right weed beds or weed bars and get game fish, especially during the middle of the week when the water isn't churned up as much as it is on week-ends. The same holds true of Lake Geneva to a greater degree, because that is a very large lake which usually is passed up by fishermen hurrying northward.

The other day when we visited Lake Geneva with our casting outfit a northwest wind plus a limited amount of time kept us from fishing some parts of the lake that Frank Mueller, the skipper of our boat, wanted us to fish. This was especially true of spots where one snags the husky small mouth bass.

Too Much Breeze Spoils It.

But we could toss a line around the weed beds where large mouth bass were hanging out and the two of us hung a nice string of bass before we got through. As Frank explained, a southerly windis much better for the boating fisherman on Geneva because such a wind does not sweep the whole length of the lake. With a light wind you can drift over the bars where the fish are. But too much breeze makes this method of fishing almost impossible.

Right now the Lake Geneva fishing is sort of "betwixt and between." From June 20th until about ten days ago the small and large mouth bass were in close to shore. And they were there in numbers, too, judging by the dandy strings of bass taken. Now they are moving out to the deep ledges. Later you will get them down deep.

Little Comes Home with Another Title

New York, July 16.—[Special.]—W. Lawson Little Jr., only American ever to win the British amateur championship two years running, returned on the S. S. Majestic today with no more fanfare than an 18 handicap player might expect. But it was perhaps just the way Little desired it to be, for he is a modest champion.

For one thing he came tourist class, not because he couldn't afford to come first but because he wanted to save something like $22 per day, or a total of $132, which will go a long way toward paying his expenses back to the national amateur at Cleveland later on in the year.

He's Somewhat Thinner.

Looking somewhat thinner than when he left New York in the spring to defend the title he won in 1934, Little announced that he would spend a week or ten days around the Metropolitan section and in the east and then journey out to Chicago for a round of golf with Tommy Armour, his favorite professor.

Was it true he was going to make some drastic changes in his game? No; it wasn't. He was well pleased with his game.

Not So Expensive.

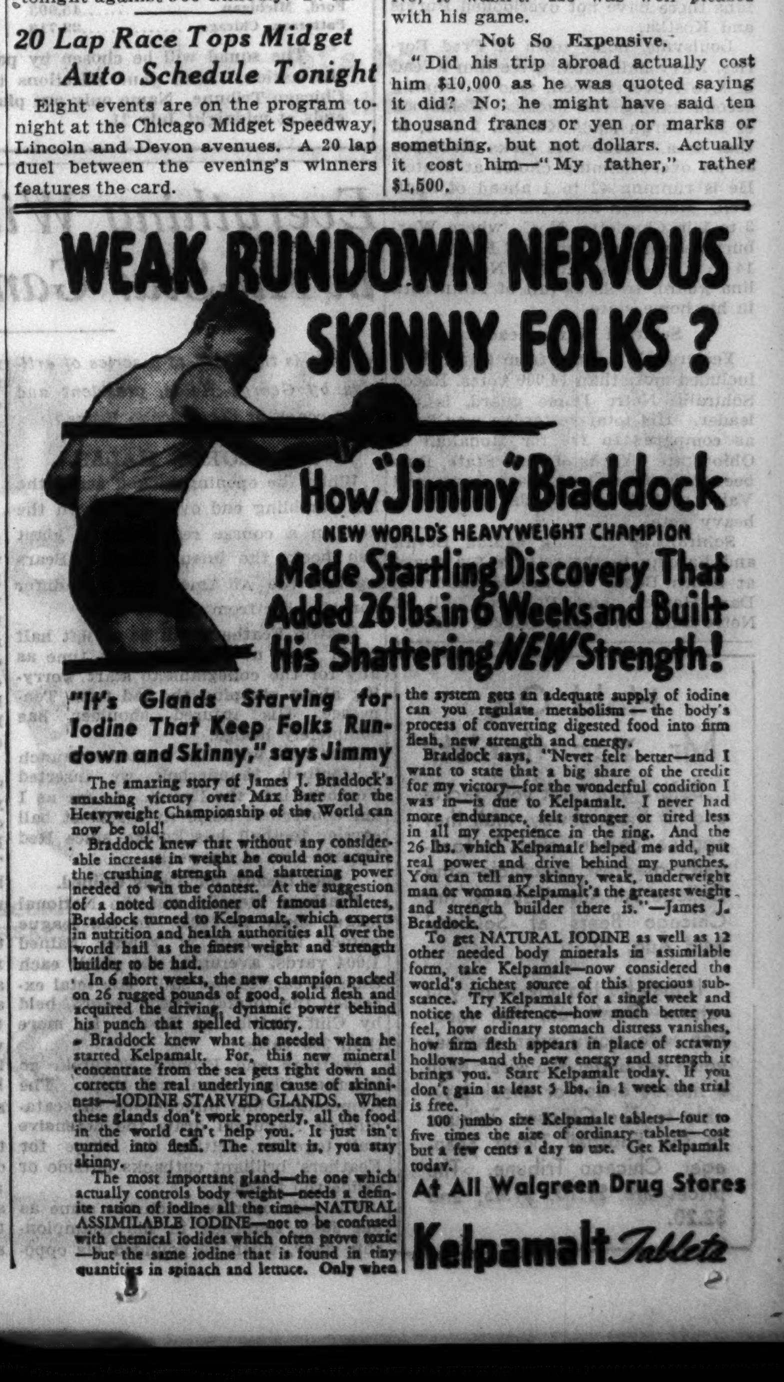
"Did his trip abroad actually cost him $10,000 as he was quoted saying it did? No; he might have said ten thousand francs or yen or marks or something, but not dollars. Actually it cost him—"My father," rather $1,500.



WEAK RUNDOWN NERVOUS SKINNY FOLKS?

How "Jimmy" Braddock NEW WORLD'S HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPION Made Startling Discovery That Added 26 lbs. in 6 Weeks and Built His Shattering NEW Strength!

"It's Glands Starving for Iodine That Keep Folks Rundown and Skinny," says Jimmy

The amazing story of James J. Braddock's smashing victory over Max Baer for the Heavyweight Championship of the World can now be told!

Braddock knew that without any considerable increase in weight he could not acquire the crushing strength and shattering power needed to win the contest. At the suggestion of a noted conditioner of famous athletes, Braddock turned to Kelpamalt, which experts in nutrition and health authorities all over the world hail as the finest weight and strength builder to be had.

In 6 short weeks, the new champion packed on 26 rugged pounds of good, solid flesh and acquired the driving, dynamic power behind his punch that spelled victory.

Braddock knew what he needed when he started Kelpamalt. For, this new mineral concentrate from the sea gets right down and corrects the real underlying cause of skinniness—IODINE STARVED GLANDS. When these glands don't work properly, all the food in the world can't help you. It just isn't turned into flesh. The result is, you stay skinny.

The most important gland—the one which actually controls body weight—needs a definite ration of iodine all the time—NATURAL ASSIMILABLE IODINE—not to be confused with chemical iodides which often prove toxic —but the same iodine that is found in tiny quantities in spinach and lettuce. Only when the system gets an adequate supply of iodine can you regulate metabolism — the body's process of converting digested food into firm flesh, new strength and energy.

Braddock says, "Never felt better—and I want to state that a big share of the credit for my victory—for the wonderful condition I was in—is due to Kelpamalt. I never had more endurance, felt stronger or tired less in all my experience in the ring. And the 26 lbs. which Kelpamalt helped me add, put real power and drive behind my punches. You can tell any skinny, weak, underweight man or woman Kelpamalt's the greatest weight and strength builder there is."—James J. Braddock.

To get NATURAL IODINE as well as 12 other needed body minerals in assimilable form, take Kelpamalt—now considered the world's richest source of this precious substance. Try Kelpamalt for a single week and notice the difference—how much better you feel, how ordinary stomach distress vanishes, how firm flesh appears in place of scrawny hollows—and the new energy and strength it brings you. Start Kelpamalt today. If you don't gain at least 5 lbs. in 1 week the trial is free.

100 jumbo size Kelpamalt tablets—four to five times the size of ordinary tablets—cost but a few cents a day to use. Get Kelpamalt today.

ATHLETICS FORCE TIGERS DEEPER INTO 2D PLACE

Foxx Hits Home Run as Philadelphia Wins, 8-2.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 16.—(AP)—The Athletics jolted the Detroit Tigers farther back into second place in the American league standings today by bombarding Alvin Crowder and Elon Hogsett for an 8 to 2 victory. The defeat put the Tigers to two and a half games behind New York.

Jimmy Foxx's 17th homer of the season, Pinky Higgins' three doubles and a single by Eric McNair, scoring two runs, were the factors that sent the A's off the field in front.

Sox to Play at Washington Tomorrow

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, July 16.—The White Sox will leave here tomorrow afternoon for Washington, where there is plenty of heat and loose talk. Les Tietje will be the Sox pitcher Thursday afternoon when they start a five game series with the Senators.

Yosh Kawano, the tiny Japanese, was back on the job today as bat boy for the Sox. He hopes to perform in a similar capacity for the Cubs when they come to town. He acted as aid to both teams when they were in Los Angeles last spring. Yosh suddenly found himself famous today. Correspondents of Japanese papers interviewed him and spectators sought his autograph. If they wanted his name in Japanese characters he obliged.

Manager Dykes has sent out word to White Sox scouts to keep their eyes sharpened for a left handed pitcher who might measure up to big league attainments.

Two of the Yankee regulars rested today because of injuries. Shortstop Crosetti was on the bench because of a twisted knee and Catcher Dickey was nursing fingers bruised by a foul during Saturday's game.

CARDINALS BEAT BRAVES, 2 TO 1, FOR 12 STRAIGHT

St. Louis, Mo., July 16.—(AP)—Pennant hopes of the world champion Cardinals were boosted today as Jess Haines pitched a 2 to 1 victory over the Boston Braves and the St. Louisans crept to within four games of the league leading Giants. This was the twelfth straight victory for the Cardinals.

The veteran hurler's victory in a pitching duel with Benny Cantwell enabled the Cardinals to cut the Giant's first place lead shorter than it was at the same stage last year. Halfway through their 77-game schedule a year ago the Cardinals were trailing the New Yorkers by five games.

REDS, 7; GIANTS, 5.

Cincinnati, O., July 16.—(AP)—Sam Byrd came up to bat twice with the bases loaded today and each time he delivered to lead the Cincinnati Reds to their second straight victory over the New York Giants. The score was 7 to 5 with Byrd driving in five of the Reds' runs.

The victory, Cincinnati's seventh straight, boosted the Reds within four games of the fourth place Pirates. The defeat ran the league leaders' consecutive losses to three, their longest losing streak of the season.

With the Reds trailing 1 to 0 and Paul Derringer and Leroy Parmelee locked in a pitching duel, Byrd came through with a double to clear the loaded bases in the fourth. The Reds were trailing again in the eighth, 5 to 4, when Byrd faced Allyn Stout with every base occupied. This time he singled to score two runs.

duced on Chapman's grounder to Appling.

Saltzgaver opened the fifth with a single to center. It didn't take long to nurse this into a two run rally. Jorgens bunted, but Whitehead tried to make the play at second and lost his man. Allen also bunted, but Whitehead got this one to Dykes in time to force Saltzgaver at third. Combs sent a single to left to score Jorgens and the Sox defense then twisted itself out of shape to make the next run possible.

Whitehead Makes Mistake.

After fielding Combs' single Radcliff threw to the plate, although there was no occasion for the throw. Sewell was set to get it, but Whitehead decided to grab it. He didn't. The ball rolled to the stand, Allen going to third and Combs to second on the error. Rolfe was purposely passed, filling the bases. Haas picked Chapman's fly off the right field screen and Combs was doubled off second, but in between the outs Allen scored from third. The Yanks raised a fuss with Umpire Owens, claiming Chapman's fly had bounced off the screen before Haas caught it, but the umpire told them they weren't seeing correctly.

After the second inning the Sox suffered some more before getting their second hit. Three of them were retired in order in the third on infield taps. After Piet had been thrown out in the fourth, Haas fanned to make No. 5 for Allen. Bonura concluded the inning with a fly to Combs. This is worthy of mention because it was the first put out by an outfielder. The fifth also was restricted to three batters, one of whom fanned. This was Dykes. After Whitehead had fanned for the second out in the sixth Radcliff singled to right for the second hit. Piet then flied to Selkirk.

Yanks Fill Bases in Eighth.

The Yanks pieced together an unusual eighth inning. Six men stepped to the plate. Only one of the six had a time at bat and none scored. For a starter Rolfe walked and Chapman sacrificed. Gehrig was passed purposely and a moment later Sewell picked him off first base. Lazzeri also walked. Whitehead nicked Selkirk on the foot with a pitched ball, filling the bases. Saltgaver ended the inning by grounding to Bonura.

The last three innings of effort by the Sox netted nothing. Two infield outs and three strikes for Bonura made up the seventh. The eighth brought two more infield outs and one fly to the outfield. This was a fairly respectable drive by Sewell. Then in the ninth, Washington was summoned to bat for Whitehead. Three strikes finished him. Radcliff rolled to Lazzeri and Piet popped to the same fellow to end the battle.

YANKEES GIVE M'CARTHY TWO YEAR CONTRACT

New York, July 16.—(AP)—The answer to any and all conjecture about the future leadership of the New York Yankees, including talk of a comeback by Babe Ruth at the old stand, was furnished today by the reëngagement of Joe McCarthy as manager.

McCarthy, who took charge of the Yankees in 1931, signed a two year extension of his contract, covering 1936 and 1937, following a conference with Col. Jacob Ruppert before today's game. It was understood Joe will continue under the same salary, $35,000 annually.

Ruppert's action was accepted as a vote of confidence in the McCarthy regime. It not only disposed of any lingering idea that the Yankees might take Ruth back, but ended the idea that McCarthy's future in the job depended on winning the pennant this year.

Some of the football players you will be reading about at Notre Dame next fall are Jackowski, Kovalcik, Wojcihovski, Kuharich, Kopczak, and Levicki. . . . Fritz Febel, former Purdue guard, is chairman of one of the committees which will sponsor a dinner-dance on the roof garden of the Lawson Y. M. C. A. for the Purdue Club of Chicago July 31. . . .

Benny Bengough, former catcher for the Yankees, who now manages the Washington team of the Penn State league, is recovering from an attack of mumps. . . . Eddie Ainsmith, Southern association umpire, recently tried to send a batter to first on a balk, but New Orleans players convinced him he was wrong. . . . Art Lasky, heavyweight boxer, is training in the California mountains for a comeback. . . . The University of Wisconsin, which has had one of the best college boxing teams the last two years, is being swamped with inquiries from amateur fighters wanting to know how one gets into the university. . . . Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City, a rabid baseball fan, is interested in purchasing the Brooklyn Dodgers. . . . Purses at Santa Anita race track in California will average $1,000 next winter instead of $800, as in the last year. . . .

Cincinnati is second only to the Giants in home attendance in the National league, due to night games. . . . Primo Carnera has taken up residence in Macdougal alley in Greenwich Village, New York. . . . Illinois alumni in Los Angeles want the Illini band to travel to the coast for the Southern California game next October and only one thing stands in the way. . . . That is $16,000 to cover the expense. . . .

Ten Years Ago Today—Sammy Mandell, the Rockford Flash, pounded out a ten round decision over Solly Seeman at East Chicago. . . . The Pirates took first place in the National league when they defeated the Braves, 7 to 3. . . . Jack Dempsey announced that he would fight Harry Wills first and then take on Gene Tunney. . . . The White Sox lost their fourth straight game to the Athletics, 8 to 1.

CELEBRON BEATS PETEY MIKE IN TEN ROUND BOUT

Billy Celebron, Rockford welterweight, scored an easy ten round decision over Petey Mike of West Palm Beach, Fla., last night in the ten round bout at Western stadium. There were no knockdowns, but Celebron, landing frequently with right crosses to the head, had Mike in distress in the last two rounds.

Nestor Bruiggeman won from Ernie Kulasik in the five round semi-final bout. Einer Hedquest knocked out Bobby Hull in the third round. Hugh Allen beat John Pernie, Virgil Bemi knocked out Art Donovan in the second, and Frank Vogel and John Brown drew in four round bouts.

RIVERVIEW WINS AGAIN.

The Riverview Park softball team last night scored its sixteenth consecutive victory by defeating the Anchor A. C., 23 to 2, at Bossi field. Koz and Kucher led the hitting.

San Francisco, Cal., July 16.—[Special.]—Two American athletic teams left today on the Tatsuta Maru to play in the far east. Fifteen swimmers, headed by Robert Kiphurth, Yale coach, will compete in Japan Aug. 17 to 19, while the Yale baseball squad, composed of fifteen players, will play in Honolulu and Japan.

The Yale team will participate in seven games in Honolulu, while more than ten are scheduled to be played in Japan.

Phillies Snap Cubs' Victory String, 7 to 5

with one out, went to second on Bowman's infield out, and scored on Allen's second single to left. Allen then stole second. Watkins lined to Demaree.

Galan opened the Cub half of the fifth with his third and the Cubs' sixth single, a liner to right. Herman also singled to right, Galan stopping at second. Cavarretta ran the count to three balls and two strikes, then bounced out to Camilli. O'Dea singled to center, scoring Galan and Herman. Demaree lined a single to center, O'Dea stopping at second. Pezzullo replaced Bowman. Chiozza threw out Klein and Haslin made a nice play in deep short to throw out Hack.

Phils Get Another.

Chiozza opened the sixth with a single off Kowalik's glove. On the hit and run play, Todd singled to center, Chiozza reaching third. Pezzullo grounded out to Cavarretta, Chiozza scoring. Galan made a great leaping catch of Allen's drive to deep left center. Todd had reached third, but managed to scamper back to second. Watkins then popped to O'Dea.

Jurges opened the home sixth with a single to center. Stephenson batted for Kowalik and walked on four pitches. Pezzullo also walked Galan on four pitches, filling the bases, then Bivin replaced him. Herman grounded into a double play, Haslin to Chiozza to Camilli, Jurges scoring and Stephenson reaching third. Vergez made a nice catch of Cavarretta's foul.

Theft Brings Run.

Chiozza walked to start the eighth and was forced by Todd. Bivin struck out, then Todd executed the third Philly base theft, and scored on Allen's third single to left. Allen was caught trying to steal second.

Cavarretta opened the Cubs' ninth with a single past Camilli and O'Dea walked. Demaree grounded to Vergez, who stepped on third to force Cavarretta, then threw to Camilli to double Demaree. Klein singled to left, scoring O'Dea. Hack forced Klein, Haslin to Chiozza, to end the game.

BRITON BREAKS 74 AUTO MARKS IN 24 HOUR TEST

Salt Lake City, Utah, July 16.—(AP)—John Cobb, London fur broker, and his British racing crew, T. E. Rose-Richards and C. J. P. Dodson, bettered 74 automobile speed records in a 24 hour test over the salt flats ending today. The average speed for the 24 hour run was 134.85 miles an hour, bettering the mark of 127.22 an hour made recently by Ab Jenkins, Utah driver. They claimed 74 international class A, world's unlimited, and American records.

Cubs Send Lee Against Phillies and Davis Today

Curt Davis will pitch for the Phillies this afternoon in the third game of the Philadelphia-Chicago series at Wrigley field. Bill Lee will go after his tenth victory of the year in behalf of the Cubs.

Vice President Charley Grimm and Larry French have patched up a quarrel which they had after Grimm yanked Larry precipitately with two out in the ninth inning of Monday's game. The combatants described the clash as mere "popping off."

Despite the fact that the Phils and Cubs have staged some of the best games ever played at Wrigley field, patronage continued skimp yesterday.

Philly players claim Monday's loss was the first they have suffered in extra innings since early last season.

VETERAN BEATS FIFTH SEEDED TENNIS PLAYER

Joe Carrigan, fifth seeded player in the Illinois state tennis tournament, was beaten by the gray haired St. Louis veteran, Edward Serrano, in the third round yesterday at Chicago Town and Tennis club. Serrano won 6-4, 5-7, 6-3.

Carrigan was the third seeded player to be eliminated. Max Davidson, seeded second, and Art Kaiser, listed eighth, were earlier victims.

Thane Halsted, defending champion, trounced Joe Goldberg, 6-3, 6-2. Members of the younger group of seeded players were extended. Norman Bickel took a 2-6, 6-3, 6-4 battle from Paul Schneider, and Bobby Harmon, ranked seventh, needed three sets to defeat Elmer Miller.

In the women's competition, Marge Stiel, seeded second to Mrs. Eugenia Kamrath, entered the quarter finals with a straight love set triumph over Mary Pauly. Helen Bartavis also reached the fourth round.

MYRTLE WOOD WINS BY HEAD AT ARLINGTON

Banish Fear Challenges Gamely in Stretch.

The hard boots from Kentucky put another one over on the boys at Arlington Park yesterday afternoon, when Myrtle Wood, bearing the colors of Brownell Combs of Lexington, led throughout to win the Regret purse, one of the best offerings of a fine midweek program. Myrtle Wood, making her first start of the season, ran the seven furlongs in the official time of 1:23 1-5. Unofficial timing caught her in 1:22 2-5, a fifth faster than the track record.

Ridden by George South, Myrtle Wood dashed into a long lead with Toro Nancy, the favorite, in closest pursuit. The latter was put to a drive approaching the stretch turn, but couldn't gain on the Kentucky filly and Banish Fear had to come from behind to challenge the leader. Banish Fear gained fast through the stretch. She just failed to overtake Myrtle Wood losing by a head. Toro Nancy was a half dozen lengths back in third place. Those who had word of Myrtle Wood's intentions collected $15.60 for each $2 straight ticket.

Racing Secretary Charles J. McLennan has arranged a fine program for today's Arlington card, a series of graded handicaps attracting some of the best horses at the track. The grade A event field includes Transmutable, Cloud D'Or, Isaiah, and Some Pomp. Twenty-one horses are in the grade B handicap, including Crout Au Pot, Band Wagon, Chance Line, Red Wagon, Dartle, and other speedsters.

Fiftene horses are in the grade C handicap.

Sun Captor, which ran a mile in 1:36 4-5 last week at Arlington Park, duplicated that performance in the Palatine purse yesterday. Ridden by Don Meade, Jake Lowenstein's speedy gelding led all the way to triumph by two and a half lengths over Sweeping Light, which finished third to him in their last meeting. Gay World was third and Wild Turkey was fourth among the eight starters.

Sun Captor was a strong favorite. He had his many backers in fine humor throughout the race as Meade rated him along with a clear lead. Reaching the stretch he drew out and was not compelled to do his best at the end.

Whistling Bob Smith, trainer of the Brookmeade stable's famous Cavalcade, wired Arlington Park officials yesterday that he would decide early next week whether or not Cavalcade will be sent here to run in the Arlington handicap on July 27. In this mile and a quarter event for a $10,000 added purse, Cavalcade would engage the mighty Discovery, winner of his last four starts in important specials including the Stars and Stripes handicap. Charles J. McLennan will announce his weights for the Arlington handicap next Monday.

Charles Bacharach, prominent New Orleans sportsman and owner of the Southland stable, came to town yesterday to see the running of the Classic stakes.

Charles H. Strube, general manager of Santa Anita Park, will arrive from Los Angeles tomorrow. Clarence Lehr, head of the Detroit track, and Walter O'Hara, owner of Narragansett Park, are other leading race track executives having reservations for Saturday's race.

Michigan Sophomore End to Enter Naval Academy

Ann Arbor, Mich., July 16.—[Special.]—The loss of George Ghesquire, sophomore end from Grosse Pointe, Mich., who was counted on to hold down a regular berth on the University of Michigan football team this fall, was announced today. Ghesquire, it was learned, will enter Annapolis this fall.

Time, :23, :46 2-5, 1:11. Two dollar mutuels paid: Night Jasmine, $8.20 straight, $5.20 place, $4.00 show; Vacillate, $5.40 place, $3.40 show; Stealthy Step, $3.40 show. Winner trained by M. P. Level. Went to post at 3:09. At post one-half minute. Start good from Bahr gate. Won easily; place driving.

NIGHT JASMINE, going in her best form and taking command easily, sustained keen speed throughout, but appeared to have little left. VACILLATE worked his way up on inside in first quarter, came around PETTY TAW in stretch, and outstayed STEALTHY STEP. Latter, away fast but unable to keep up, saved ground on the turn, but came out slightly in stretch and closed with determination.

FOURTH RACE—Seven furlongs [chute]. Purse $1,000. Net value to winner, $700; second, $150; third, $100; fourth, $50.

A. Kindred. Went to post at 3:36. At post one-half minute. Start good from permanent stalls. Won driving; place same.

MYRTLE WOOD, displaying exceptional speed, drew into a long lead before going three-sixteenths, was strongly shaken up soon after reaching stretch, and swerved out when tiring after three-quarters, and just lasted. BANISH FEAR, on inside the first five-eighths, came to outside in stretch and, closing boldly, might have won but for being carried out by winner. TORONANCY was under urging after reaching last three-eighths, readily gave way to BANISH FEAR, and weakened in final eighth.

FIFTH RACE—Hertz course, one mile [chute]. Purse $1,000. Net value to winner, $700; second, $150; third, $100; fourth, $50.

Winner trained by owner. Went to post at 4:06. At post 1½ minutes. Start good from permanent stalls. Won easily; place driving.

SUN CAPTOR, hustled into command and rated under snug restraint after a quarter, came away under mild pressure after reaching stretch, and had something left. SWEEPING LIGHT, a strong factor from the start, saved ground where possible and held on gamely under his impost. GAY WORLD, kept well up in early stages, was in close quarters on stretch turn, and finished well after coming out in last three-sixteenths.

SIXTH RACE—One mile. Purse $1,000. Net value to winner, $700; second, $150; third, $100; fourth, $50.

BRAINS, under a good ride but lucky, was taken off the pace, came through on inside when responding to strong hand riding in stretch, and weakened after taking command, but was not seriously threatened. PRINCE PEST, under a poorly gauged ride and raced very wide the final half mile, came with a rush in last three-sixteenths, and appeared best. MARTIN BARTON responded when called upon after five-eighths, was forced wide by JOE FLORES in stretch, and held on courageously.

CLASSIC STARS WILL TAKE FINAL WORKOUTS TODAY

Omaha and Black Helen to Be Sent Full Route.

Roman Soldier Works Well.

Roman Soldier demonstrated that he has come up to his Classic engagement in fine fettle when he worked a mile and a quarter in 2:06 1-5 in handy fashion. He was held in check all the way, being timed for the half in :49 3-5, three-quarters in 1:13 4-5 and mile in 1:39 2-5.

Robert S. Clark's Malbrouk, a surprise winner at Arlington a few days ago, injected himself into the Classic picture by working a mile and a quarter in 2:07 2-5 handily. His fractions were :49, 1:14 3-5 and 1:40. Tearout, winner of the Latonia derby was given an easier trial than the other Classic candidates, being held well in hand as he breezed a mile and one furlong in 1:57 3-5, going the first mile in 1:43 4-5.

The Classic field will likely include the following:

| Horse— | Owner. |
|---|---|
| Omaha | Belair stud |
| Black Helen | E. R. Bradley |
| Bloodroot | E. R. Bradley |
| Calumet Dick | Calumet farm |
| Skip It | Calumet farm |
| St. Bernard | Dale Shaffer |
| Advantage | J. J. Coughlin |
| Official | J. J. Coughlin |
| Blackbirder | Mrs. Chas. Hainsworth |
| Count Arthur | Mrs. John Hertz |
| Chief Cherokee | L. E. Komorous |
| Tearout | D. B. Midkiff and H. Wells |
| Roman Soldier | Sachsenmaier & Reuter |

Never has a race presented at Arlington attracted so much attention as the Classic stakes this year. Carpenters were at work last night building 100 additional boxes in the club house enclosure section.

Officials of the Arlington Jocky club received word yesterday that one party of 400 is coming from Omaha to cheer for the horse that has added fame to that Nebraska city.

JOCKY M'MANUS IS RULED OFF TURF FOR LIFE

New York, July 16.—(AP)—Jocky Frank McManus is banned from the turf for life under a ruling handed down by the New York state racing commission after an investigation of the sixth race at Belmont Park, May 24, won by Playfole.

The suspensions of G. W. Ogle, an owner, J. Lynch, jocky, and A. Tipton, trainer, were terminated and they were restored to good standing.

WAVE OF BUYING SWALLOWING UP COPPER STOCKS

July Sales Are Far Above Those Under Code.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, July 16.—[Special.]—An old fashioned buying wave is sweeping over the copper market and swallowing up the red metal in astonishing volume. It was reported today that sales Monday totaled 47,564,000 pounds. These large transactions followed sales last Saturday of more than 30,000,000 pounds, while Friday's volume aggregated 14,000,000, a three day total of more than 92,000,000 pounds.

Sales for the month to date, exclusive of what was sold today, amount to more than 110,000,000 pounds, equivalent to 55,000 tons. What such sales mean may be realized when it is recalled that the sales quota under the copper code was 30,500 tons a month and copper men were greatly pleased when the quota was filled.

Price Boost Indicated.

The domestic price of copper was still eight cents a pound today but some selling agencies were said to have withdrawn from the market, a maneuver which usually precedes an advance in price.

The foreign export copper market continued active and strong. For the first time since the NRA code was abandoned foreign copper sold on a parity today with domestic metal when it went to 8 cents.

The rush to buy copper is ascribed to realization on the part of large consumers that the price of copper is not going lower.

Agree on Output Curb.

LONDON, July 16.—(AP)—International copper interests, concluding a two day meeting behind closed doors, announced today the copper restriction agreement would be adhered to. The representatives, from the United States, Rhodesia, Belgium, and Great Britain, announced:

The meeting was arranged in April when the restrictions scheme started, but the collapse in the meantime of the United States NRA code raised fears here that the scheme might be affected.

The present meeting was expected to clarify the situation.

ANALYSIS LAUDS SURFACE LINES SECURITY GROUP

Establishment of a committee representing the various securities of the Chicago Surface Lines to speed reorganization of the city's street car system is the most constructive step since the lines went into receivership, an analysis prepared by David A. Noyes & Co. declares.

"First mortgage bonds will be relieved of the stigma of a security in receivership, and should sell on a parity with bonds of other public utility companies having the same lien position and coverage of interest earnings," the Noyes company said. "In keeping with recent refinancing practices, we believe the first mortgage bondholders will seek a sinking fund for their bonds of approximately $1,000,000."

Discussing the junior obligations, the Noyes company says that with the receivership out of the way the new company would be in a position to make payment on these various new issues in exchange for the juniors as earnings are available. Interest accumulations on the junior obligations amount to $425 per bond as of Aug. 1 this year.

HOME FURNISHING SHOW ATTRACTS 100% MORE BUYERS

Attendance at the Merchandise Mart's summer home furnishings markets reached a total of 5,[illegible]49, T. J. Reed, general manager of the mart, announced yesterday, a 100 per cent increase over the summer markets of 1934 and a 30 per cent gain over last January. Reed said buying continues strong in the furniture, floor covering, lamp, and curtain draperies groups.

Problems of the furniture business were discussed yesterday at a meeting of the National Retail Furniture association, which is being held in conjunction with the summer market at the American Furniture Mart.

Roscoe R. Rau, executive vice president of the association, pointed out that furniture stores are the second largest users of advertising space. He said that from 75 to 80 per cent of all furniture advertising budgets go to newspapers as the most effective medium. Executives and furniture advertising men from every section of the country are attending the meeting of the association.

ILLINOIS TRAFIC ON WATERWAYS DOUBLE YEAR AGO

Washington, D. C., July 16.—(AP)—Guy Bartley, secretary-treasurer of the Inland Waterway corporation, said today freight trafic on the Illinois waterway has doubled during the first six months of 1935.

The trafic has followed a pace set with the opening of the Inland Waterway's operation up that channel, he said. Each year has seen trafic approximately twice that of the year before. This year's growth, Bartley said, has resulted despite a marked decrease in the barge transportation of corn and other grain.

The report showed [illegible]7,767 tons received by Illinois port towns in the three months of 1934, as against 32,005 tons in the same months of 1935. At the same time port towns discharged 43,174 tons in 1934, as against 84,017 tons in 1935.

Bartley said it had been necessary to double the number of barges used on the Illinois river.

Schenley Distillers Quarter Income Rises

Schenley Distillers corporation and subsidiaries report for the second quarter of 1935 net income of $1,443,030, after all charges, equal to $1.38 a common share, compared with a 1934 second quarter income of $1,058,229, or $1.01 a common share.

STOCKS EDGE HIGHER; PRICE CHANGES SMALL

Specialty, Preferred Shares Active.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, July 16.—Specialties and preferred stocks contributed the chief price changes today as stocks edged slightly higher. Some of the food shares, notably biscuit issues, gestured their appreciation of the Boston Federal Circuit Court of Appeals decision holding the AAA processing tax unconstitutional. Rails and utilities were about steady. Trading at the inactive post was the heaviest for any single session in years, but transactions in the market as a whole amounted to only 913,850 shares.

Ouside of the AAA tax ruling the news provided little incentive. Advices bearing on the Washington legislative situation were studied with the usual keen interest but they told of no great change in the picture, although the prospect of an earlier adjournment of the lawmaking body than had been anticipated brought some cheer to perspiring traders.

Most Changes Fractional.

In general, share price changes were fractional. Profit taking had a depressing effect on the steel and motor groups and to a lesser extent on the so-called blue chip industrials in the earlier dealings but most of the victims showed an inclination to firm up in the afternoon with the result that the "averages" finished little changed from yesterday.

Packard was a bright spot in the automobile division, rising a major fraction on heavy turnover. The rest of the motors failed to follow suit. General Motors closed fractionally lower. The old line leader of the group could work up no enthusiasm at all over a report from Detroit that the corporation is placing large orders for tools, dies, and other equipment. Chrysler advanced a fraction.

Among the railroad equipments which braced up in such promising style last week, American Car and Foundry preferred, gave up more than 2 points of its new gains on a few sales.

Preferred Shares Advance.

Preferreds to rise 2 to 4 points included Barker Brothers, Household Finance, International Silver, National Supply, Otis Steel, Ward Baking, and Youngstown. Franklin Simon preferred extended its gain of the past two sessions to more than 5 points.

Individual favorites to bid for the spotlight were Connecticut railway, Houdaille Hershey, and Mack Truck.

An outstanding weak spot was American Ice preferred which fell more than 2 points to within a fraction of the lowest price on record to show a yield of nearly 24 per cent on the last dividend rate. The common duplicated its all time low.

Utilities and oils were inclined to softness most of the time.

With the increase in demand for copper the copper shares have been showing some strength in the last few day.

SENATE INQUIRY INTO PARAMOUNT FEES FORECAST

Washington, D. C., July 16.—(AP)—A senate investigation of the Paramount-Publix receivership proceedings in the United States District court in New York City was forecast today by Senator McAdoo [Dem., Cal.], as a possibility. He said it had been brought to his attention that $3,000,000 in counsel fees was involved in the case and that the special committee for investigating bankruptcy and receivership proceedings, which he heads, likely will consider it at an early meeting.

Company May Contest Fees.

New York, July 16.—[Special.]—Directors of Paramount Pictures, Inc., have retained Attorney Thomas D. Thatcher to represent the company at the hearing to be held Thursday before Federal Judge Alfred C. Coxe in the United States District court on the fees and allowances totaling $3,222,315 claimed by lawyers, accountants, receivers, and others from the Paramount-Publix corporation, predecessor of Paramount Pictures. Thacher, it is expected, will contest any claims which the directors regard as excessive.

HOUDAILLE SIX MONTH PROFIT RISES 200 PCT.

Consolidated net profits of the Houdaille-Hershey corporation and subsidiaries for the six months ended June 30, amounted to $1,773,626 after all charges, it was announced yesterday. After dividend requirements on the class A stock, this is equal to $1.98 a share on the 783,986 shares of class B stock outstanding, compared with $725,808 or 64 cents a share in 1934.

The company said income does not include profit which might eventually be realized from the sale of property known as the Durant plant.

Net working capital, including cash of $3,284,135, increased during the first six months by $1,189,101 to $5,064,185 on June 30, compared with $3,875,084 on Dec. 31, 1934, and $3,658,762 June 30, 1934.

Ignore PWA Threats, Home Owners Told

BY AL CHASE.

Sit tight and ignore any offers or threats by federal housing officials, was the advice offered by speakers at a mass meeting of property owners last night to protest alleged unfair prices submitted by the PWA for acquirement of a site for the contemplated $12,500,000 north side slum clearance project.

Several hundred men and women packed the assembly hall of the Olivet institute and applauded speakers who told them that with the recent ruling by a Cincinnati federal court that the government could not condemn private property for a housing project, local property owners no longer need fear confiscation of their homes.

Await Reasonable Prices; Plea.

Henry Rech, chairman of a committee of property owners in the district selected by the PWA for its north side housing units, advised everyone to ignore any further offers for their property until it is known whether the government would appeal the Ohio ruling. Another speaker urged his listeners to "wait for rasonable price offers by the goverment before you do anything."

According to Rech the government has moved so slowly in seeking options on the north side that not half of the property owners have yet been approached. Options have been secured on only about 17 per cent of the 98 acres contemplated, he said.

Several property owners told of threats made by federal officials that if options were not signed steam shovels would clear the ground anyway.

Tells of Small Offer By U. S.

B. D. Luder, of 4042 Greenview avenue, said he held title to property at 1308 Sedgwick street for which he refused an offer of $16,000 two years ago and which pays him more than $2,000 annually in rentals. He said he was offered $4,400 by the government.

Another property owner told of being offered $1,800 for a home in which he had invested $10,000.

Mike Walsh, of 1351 Mohawk street, said that he had been offered $1,300 for a home which represented an investment of $8,000.

"Here is the case of Leo Lumbardo, of 1355 Mohawk street," said Rech. "He paid $5,000 for his property in 1922. He, since then, raised the building and installed a cement block basement and foundation, costing $2,000. A new enclosed rear porch cost him $500.

Asked to Take $6,400.

New front stairs, windows, slidings, and other carpenter work amounted to $900 and new plumbing $600. This shows an investment of $9,000 for which the goverment agent offered him $2,600. Lumbardo is asked to take a loss of $6,400 and say nothing."

The proposed north side site for federal housing is bounded by Blackhawk, Ogden, Division, Sedgwick, Segel, and Hudson streets. The $12,500,000 allocated for this project was to erect apartments to care for 2,500 families.

Efforts to locate Chester A. Inman, acting director for the housing division in Chicago, and in charge of all PWA housing projects, were unavailing yesterday. So far, no local officials have commented on the Ohio decision which local attorneys predict may force the shelving of federal housing plans throughout the country.

FRANCS RALLY ON PROMISE TO REDUCE BUDGET

New York, July 16.—[Special.]—French francs were strong against the dollar today as Premier Laval proposed that the French budget will be cut by 10 billion francs, causing shorts to cover commitments. The other two members of the gold bloc and the pound sterling were slightly lower.

After improving in the Paris market to close at 6.631 cents, compared with the overnight quotation of 6.63 cents, the franc jumped in the New York market to above parity at one time, reaching 6.63¾ cents, but eased later to close at 6.63¼ cents, up ½ point.

This reduced the value of the dollar to $1.0001, compared with $1.0009 yesterday. Based upon the old parity of the franc the dollar dropped to 59.07 cents, against 59.11 cents Monday.

The pound dropped ⅛ cent to $4.96¼, pulling the Scandinavian currencies 1 to 2 points lower. Belgas lost 1 point at 16.92 cents, but Italian lire were up ½ point at 8.24 cents.

Despite steadiness of silver prices today, Hongkong and Shanghai dollars eased slightly, the former dipping 15 points and the latter 5 points. In New York imported bar silver was unchanged at 67¾ cents, while in London the price remained at 30 3-16 pence a fine ounce, equivalent to 67.49 cents.

Bar gold in London advanced 2 pence an ounce to 140 shillings 11½ pence, equivalent to $34.98. At this price an amount valued at £511,000 changed hands.

The Federal Reserve Bank of New York reported the receipt of $149,700 gold from Ecuador and $12,300 from Costa Rica. There were no other gold transactions.

Gen. Motors Directors Paid Over 2 Million

Washington, D. C., July 16.—[Special.]—Compensation of $2,020,034 was paid by General Motors corporation in its last fiscal year to directors, some of whom are officers either of the parent company or of subsidiaries, according to an amendment filed with the SEC to the corporation's application for permanent registration on the stock exchanges.

Of this total, the three highest paid officers of the corporation received $553,367 but the corporation filed the names and amounts separately as confidential information, asking that it be withheld.

The amendment also showed that 89 employés of the corporations, each with compensation exceeding $20,000, received an aggregate of $2,869,511, this group not including the officers already specified.

Pay in Salaries and Bonuses.

Remuneration was in the form of salaries, bonus awards and General Motors corporation contract accruals, and the statement described the bonus arrangements.

The registration statement included the following information concerning the bonus plan:

"General Motors corporation distributes bonuses to its executives under a bonus plan which provides that an amount not to exceed 10 per cent of its net earnings, after deducting 7 per cent on the capital employed, shall be set aside for this purpose. No bonus is distributed, therefore, until approximately $54,500,000 or $1.05 per share of General Motors common stock, has been earned, which is the present equivalent of 7 per cent on the capital employed.

"Moreover, in no year may the amount of bonus exceed the amount of dividends paid to General Motors common stockholders. One-half of the fund is distributed in the form of General Motors common stock and the balance is participated in, as explained below, by a group of senior executives who own common stock of General Motors management corporation."

250 Executives Own Stock.

Generals Motors management corporation was organized in 1930, the majority of its 50,000 shares of outstanding common stock being offered to approximately 250 General Motors executives who subscribed to 38,880 shares at $100 per share. The balance of the management common stock was held by General Motors corporation for additional participation, if the necessity should arise.

General Motors Management corporation, it was asserted, has a contract with General Motors corporation, under which General Motors is to pay to the management corporation yearly, for seven years from Jan. 1, 1930, and ending Dec. 31, 1936, a sum equivalent to 5 per cent of the net earnings of General Motors corporation during the preceding calendar year after deducting 7 per cent on its capital employed.

Treasury Still Studying Sales Tax Token Legality

Washington, D. C., July 16.—(AP)—The treasury said today no decision had yet been made on whether states may issue tokens, coupons or stamps to provide less than one cent sales tax payments on small purchases. The matter, it was said, still is being studied, along with proposals to issue smaller than one cent currency and coins.

NEWSPAPERS REPORT GAIN IN ADVERTISING OVER JUNE, LAST YEAR

Newspaper advertising last month increased 6,452,000 lines, or 4.4 per cent, from June, 1934, according to an analysis of 84 cities by Advertising Age.

Classified advertising accounted for practically the entire improvement, however, with a 22 per cent gain from 19,487,000 lines in June, last year, to 25,178,000 lines last month. The gain was attributed to a more active employment situation and to growing confidence of smaller business men who use this medium for sales promotion purposes.

General advertising slumped to 27,114,000 lines for a loss of 8 per cent. Retail advertising declined only slightly, 75,000 lines, to a 80,467,000 line total. Automotive advertising was down 1,736,000 lines from its June, 1934, figure of 13,726,000. Financial advertising reversed the trend for a small gain of 32,000 lines to a 2,490,000 line total for the month.

Magazine advertising, as shown by figures for 93 national periodicals, is 3.2 per cent less this month than in July, 1934, with an aggregate of 957,000 as against 989,000 lines.

FORD HAS VAST WAGE BILL AS OUTPUT EXPANDS

Detroit, Mich., July 16.—[Special.]—During the first six months of this year the Ford Motor company paid out in wages $88,727,568 and spent $374,368,873 for raw materials, a large part of which resulted in wage distribution in other industries, the company reported today.

Sales of passenger cars and trucks in the United States, it was reported, totaled 634,961 units during the half year. This is nearly two-thirds of the million cars and trucks which the Ford company is building this year. The total compares with 383,683 units sold in the corresponding period last year and represents an increase of 65.4 per cent.

Production of Ford cars and trucks in the United States and Canada during the six months was reported at 810,700 units. Foreign production in this period was put at 37,804 units, bringing the total world output up to 848,504 during the half year.

June sales were 100,882, the largest for that month since 1930, and the fourth consecutive month in which Ford sales have exceeded 100,000 units. June sales compare with 82,196 last year, an increase of 43.4 per cent.

CANADIAN WHEAT BOARD MAY DELAY START TO SEPT. 1

OTTAWA, July 16.—[Special.]—The new Canadian wheat board will probably not begin operations until Sept. 1, according to reports here today. It was also indicated that no announcement will be made until that time of the methods by which the carryover of wheat will be marketed.

The visible supply of Canadian wheat is now somewhat under 200,000,000 bushels. New crop wheat will begin to move into market about Sept. 1.

It is expected the personnel of the new board will be made public soon. One of the first problems of the board will be to set a minimum price to be paid farmers on the new crop.

Insull Firms' Collateral Up for Sale Today

New York, July 16.—[Special.]—Seven separate sales of Insull collateral held by New York banks to guarantee loans made to Insull Utility Investments and Corporation Securities company of Chicago, are scheduled to be held tomorrow with the probability that all except three recently advertised offerings of collateral will be postponed until early next week.

The sales that are likely to be consummated tomorrow are those of the National City bank, which is selling its Corporation Securities company collateral in Jersey City; of the Central Hanover Bank and Trust company, which is selling most of its Insull Utility investments collateral here; and of the Guaranty Trust company, which is offering virtually all its Insull Utility Investments collateral here.

Other Auctions Postponed.

Auctions expected to go over are the Chase, Guaranty and Central Hanover offerings of their Corporation Securities company collateral, while the Commercial National Bank and Trust company indicates it will defer indefinitly the sale of its Insull Utility Investments collateral.

In addition to these institutions, which originally announced the auction of their various holdings of collateral in May, 1932, the sales having been adjourned 57 times until tomorrow, and the National City company, which did not announce its sale until July 11, 1935, the Bankers Trust company and Irving Trust company, both creditors of Insull Utility Investments, have thus far never announced a public sale of the collateral securing their loans to that company, and have not given any indication as to when they will proceed with the sale.

Banks May Bid In Collateral.

All of the banks are expected to bid in the collateral they offer, the process being known as "reducing to possession" the securities pledged against defaulted loans. Decisions to hold some of the sales tomorrow resulted from the decree rendered by Federal Judge Julian W. Mack last week dismissing a suit brought by 23,000 investors in Insull Utility Investments. The situation with respect to bank loans to Corporation Securities company is virtually the same as in the Insull Utility Investment case.

In addition to the New York banks, leading Chicago institutions made even greater aggregate loans to the two former Insull finance companies, but they have not thus far undertaken any proceedings to sell their collateral or to reduce it to possession. The Chicago banks also have not disclosed their intentions with respect to the collateral they hold.

WHEAT CANCELS EARLY UPTURN; CORN ADVANCES

Further Reports on Rust Received.

BY THOMAS FURLONG.

Wheat closed in the Chicago market yesterday at approximately the same level as on the preceding day after an advance of a cent a bushel had been followed by a reaction of equal amount. The market action alternately reflected the influence of conflicting price factors.

The premium prices which cash wheat is commanding in the southwestern states, coupled with the threat of serious damage to spring wheat by development of black rust, is the basis of the current buying. The market yesterday, however, met the impact of hedging sales, which offset what speculative buying of futures appeared. The result was a near stand-off. September wheat, the principal future, closed an eighth of a cent lower at 82⅝ cents a bushel.

More Reports of Black Rust.

Reports on black rust condiions were received yesterday from a dozen or more localities in the spring wheat region of the United States and Canada. These reports again emphasized the potential injury which may result rather than actual damage suffered by the crop so far. The progress of the next two weeks is certain to be a dominant market influence.

In the corn market yesterday prices climbed ⅜ to 1⅝ cents a bushel. The greatest strength was shown by the July contract, which indicated the demand came principally from shorts. The contract expires at the end of the month and stocks of corn in this market and elsewhere are small.

Closing prices on the September futures, with comparative quotations, were:

| | Yesterday. | Monday. | Wk. ago. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Wheat | $0.82⅝ | $0.82⅝ | $0.85 |
| Corn | .76 | .74⅝ | .76⅛ |
| Oats | .31½ | .31⅝ | .32¼ |
| Rye | .44½ | .44½ | .45½ |

Decree Against AAA Ignored.

The decision of the United States Appeals court in Massachusetts declaring the AAA processing taxes illegal had no perceptible effect on wheat prices here. For some time, however, it has been known that millers, bakers, and big consuming interests have been following a cautious buying policy because of the highly uncertain future of the processing taxes. Until the situation has become fully clarified it is expected this hand-to-mouth buying will continue.

The market appeared to exhibit some nervousness yesterday over the Canadian situation. Announcement of a meeting of members of the Winnipeg exchange yesterday after the close of trading gave rise to a variety of rumors. Apprehension was caused lest the 80 cent peg in the Canadian market be immediately abandoned.

GEN. ELECTRIC'S RESULTS BETTER THAN YEAR AGO

Profits, sales, and orders of General Electric company were substantially greater in the first six months of 1935 than during the same period last year, President Gerard Swope announced yesterday.

Net earnings available for dividends were $11,541,428, or 40 cents a share, compared with $8,175,557, or 28 cents on the common stock, in the first half of 1934. The 28,845,927 common shares benefited this year by $1,287,534, or approximately 4 cents a share, through elimination of dividends on the special stock, which was retired last year.

Sales billed during the first six months of 1935 amounted to $94,546,273, an increase of 17 per cent over the $80,983,093 billed in the same period last year. Income from sales, after deducting costs and various charges, was $7,339,372, compared with $6,164,558. Other income was up from $3,298,533 to $4,202,056.

Orders received in the first half of the year aggregated $104,542,946, a gain of 13 per cent over the $92,154,642 up to July 1, 1934.

NEW DEAL HANGS UP RECORD FOR COURT DEFEATS

BY HOWARD WOOD.

Yesterday's setback for the Agricultural Adjustment administration in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals in Boston left the New Dealers with a score of no runs, few hits, and a lot of errors in their attempt to run through the courts a new system of planned economy.

During the last few weeks the score has been piling up against them in a series of court decisions all over the country. Practically the only major victory won to date by the New Dealers was contained in the Supreme court's decision in the "gold clause" cases, but that was pretty much a draw, because although the court decided that the doors to collection of damages by citizens holding "gold clause" bonds were locked the government exceeded its constitutional powers in repudiating its solemn agreements to redeem its bonds in gold or the equivalent thereof in lawful money.

Record of Court Defeats.

The record of the New Deal's court reverses is a long and imposing one. No other administration in the history of the country has lost so many major court battles. Not only has the Supreme court delivered a series of adverse decisions but lower courts as well have been finding legal flaws in the legislation designed by brain trusters and hurriedly shoved through congress by the administration on the plea of emergency.

In jury trials, too, the record of failure has been consistent. In order to lend plausibility to their contentions that business should be strictly controled by politicians in Washington the New Dealers have brought to trial numerous former "big shots" of business and finance only to have juries decide that the sins of these men, if any, were the result of bad judgment rather than deliberate fraud.

AAA Ruling One of Many.

The decision yesterday by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals in Boston that the federal government lacked the authority to regulate production of crops and that the giving to Secretary Wallace of the power to levy taxes on consumers was an improper delegation of power follows on the heels of a number of lower court decisions brought against the AAA processing tax in various cities throughout the country.

It follows, also, the blow given Secretary Ickes' Public Works administration Monday by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati, which held that the PWA lacked authority to condemn private property for so-called "slum clearance" projects.

List of Adverse Decisions.

Here are some other important cases that the New Dealers have lost:

In the famous "chicken coop" case the Supreme court killed the National Recovery administration by ruling that the NIRA was an unconstitutional interference with powers rightly belonging to the individual states.

On the same day the Supreme court held that President Roosevelt's arbitrary dismissal of a member of the federal trade commission was an executive invasion of legislative and judicial fields.

Also on the same day the court decided that the Frazier-Lemke farm mortgage act was unconstitutional in that it confiscated private property without due process of law.

A few weeks earlier the court had knocked out the railroad pension act similarly on the ground that it took private property without heeding the "due process" provision of the constitution.

Supreme Court Hits NRA.

On Jan. 7 the Supreme court began to find the legal flaws in the recovery legislation when it held that the President's prohibition of interstate transportation of oil exceeding state production restrictions was an unconstitutional delegation of legislative authority. This was the famous "hot oil" case which marked the beginning of the end for the NRA.

Another blow at the NRA came in February when Judge John P. Nields in the United States District court in Wilmington, Del., held against the government in its suit against the Weirton Steel company. Government attorneys had asked a permanent injunction against the company from violating section 7A of the NIRA. The

RAILS WIN STEP TO MEET RATES OF OCEAN LINES

Bill Approved to End Long-Short Haul.

Washington, D. C., July 16.—[Special.]—Efforts of the railroads to meet truck and water competition through adjustments in freight rates gained a point today when the house interstate commerce committee approved the Pettengill long and short haul bill with an important amendment. The Pettengill measure would repeal the fourth section of the interstate commerce act to permit the railroads to charge less for long hauls than for shorter hauls over the same route.

However, the amendment to the Pettengill measure put the burden of proof on the railroads seeking rate reductions under it providing that reductions sought must be justified.

I. C. C. Bars Auto Rate Cut.

At the same time the important transcontinental railroads received a setback from the interstate commerce commission today when their request was denied for a reduction in rates on passenger automobiles and parts moving from the manufacturing centers of the middle west to California.

The roads had sought relief from the long and short haul clause to meet competition of combination rail-water routes. Automobile manufacturers have been shipping automobiles and parts in increasing amounts from their plants to the eastern seaboard, whence the shipments were continued by ships using the Panama canal.

The transcontinental railroads had proposed a reduction of 75 cents per 100 pounds from the average rate of $4.65 per 100 pounds for automobile and parts shipments from Detroit, Chicago, Kenosha, Racine, South Bend, Flint, Cleveland, Buffalo, Pittsburgh and Cincinnati to points in California.

Roads Formerly Held Trafic.

Prior to 1932 the movement of this type of freight had been almost entirely by railroad. In denying the request of the transcontinental lines, the interstate commerce commission pointed out that rate reductions do not necessarily mean that they would get more revenues. The commission held there would have to be a 30.12 per cent increase in business to compensate the roads for the lower rates. It added this does not take into account the loss which the eastern carriers would sustain by losing business to the eastern ports.

The fight on the long and short haul clause has received support from the middle west, where manufacturers and business men assert the present rate structure gives cities on the seaboard an advantage because they are able to transport freight by ships charging much lower rates than those of the railroads.

Hot Debate Over Bill.

Hearings before the house subcommittee were marked by acrimonious debate. Advocates of the Petengill amendment asserted it would enable the roads to meet highway and waterway competition on a more even footing. The waterway interests insisted the Pettengill measure would put them out of business by bringing about cutthroat competition. Pettengill said he believed the amendment to his measure would remove much of this opposition.

The amendment provides "that in any case before the commission where there is brought in issue a lower rate or charge for the transportation of like kind of property, for a longer than for a shorter distance over the same line or route in the same direction, the shorter being included within the longer distance, the burden of proof shall be upon the carrier to justify the rate or charge for the longer distance against any claim of a violation of sections 1, 2, and 3 of this act."

The Pettengill bill faces opposition in the senate. Pettengill himself, while predicting house passage without difficulty, would not go so far as to forecast favorable senate action this session.

BANKS PROPOSE COMPROMISE ON FEDERAL BILL

Want to Underwrite, Not Originate, Issues.

New York, July 16.—[Special.]—An effort is being made today to salvage the underwriting section of the banking bill of 1935 now on the senate calendar. Bankers are agreed the section placed in the proposed act by the senate subcommittee on banking and currency is doomed, but a strenuous attempt is being made to compromise the dispute which the provision has aroused.

The compromise would allow banks of deposit to underwrite but not to originate security issues. Under the section proposed by Senator Carter Glass the banks of deposit would again be accorded both privileges, although being barred from the merchandising of securities. The ban proposed against origination of securities would permit investment bankers to maintain their present dominance in security flotation and thus temper their disapproval of the Glass provision.

Bankers Suggest Compromise.

The American Bankers' association suggested such a compromise when it made public a report on the underwriting question. At that time it was stated the association was neither opposing nor proposing any changes, but that no objections were held against the underwriting section "providing that neither originating nor merchandising is permitted."

Partners of private banks of deposit have been somewhat scornful of this distinction, pointing out that if an industrial client has banked with them for many years they are the best qualified to arrange the details of the client's financing. They state that to turn over the activity or origination to investment banks would be to make a gift of their services. On the other hand, investment bankers reply that since the banks of deposit are now barred from any phase of underwriting by the law, they must expect to pay some price for a removal of the bars.

Hope Act Will Be Relaxed.

Some investment bankers would like to see a relaxation of the act in order to make the reopening of the capital market more secure, but they would like to continue to reap the profits of underwriting, origination, and selling. This contradiction in their position has stimulated the present controversy.

Rather than see themselves kept for another year from any underwriting at all, the banks of deposit would agree to a confinement of their activities to "pure" underwriting. Consequently, their representatives may make an attempt to amend the bill from the floor of the senate when it comes up for debate. In its present form the underwriting section is condemned, apparently irrevocably, by President Roosevelt.

SEC EXTENDS TIME LIMIT ON CANADIAN ISSUES

New York, July 16.—[Special.]—Extension by the Securities and Exchange commission of a 60 day exemption from permanent registration to securities of Canadian companies prevented the suspension of trading on the New York Curb exchange today in stocks of three unregistered companies. The exchange suspended dealings, however, in the securities of nineteen companies which had failed to obtain permanent registration.

At the same time the New York Stock exchange delisted eighteen issues. They were:

Havana Electric Railway preferred, R. H. Mallison, common, no par and preferred; Mexican Petroleum, common; Mobile & Birmingham, preferred; Moto-Meter Guage, common; Southern Dairies, class A, no par and class B; United Piece Dye Works, common, no par and preferred; Utah Copper, capital stock; Western Dairy Products, class A and no par, and Trico Products, common and no par.

Requirements of the SEC were responsible for the admission to full listing privileges on the curb of securities for four large corporations which heretofore had been traded on an unlisted basis. Termination by the commission of unlisted privileges induced the change. The companies and their issues listed were:

Standard Oil company of Nebraska, 185,-803 $25 par common shares; Standard Oil company of Ohio, 120,000 shares of cumulative preferred and 768,373 shares of $25 par common stock; Consolidated Gas, Electric Light & Power company of Baltimore, 1,167,397 no par common shares, $7,327,000 first mortgage sinking fund bonds, series H, 4½s, due July 1, 1970, and $22,455,000 first mortgage sinking fund bonds, 4 per cent series, due June 1, 1981, and Consolidated Gas company of Baltimore City, $3,400,000 consolidated first mortgage 5 per cent bonds, due July 1, 1939, and $6,100,000 general mortgage 4½ per cent bonds, due April 1, 1954.

HAY MARKET

Offerings of hay are limited as the new crop has not started to move in volume and supplies of old are practically exhausted. The latter is in good demand and new hay would sell if of top quality and in carlots. There is no demand for new clover. Fancy new alfalfa was quoted yesterday at $13@14. Prairie hay in Kansas City market declined 50c to $1 per ton Monday due to increased receipts and indifferent demand. The price ranged from $5 to $8.50 per ton. Local arrivals were 2 trucks. Prices per ton follow:

New York, July 16.—[Special.]—Modest advances in carrier and industrial bonds featured an advance in bonds on the New York Stock exchange today, although some irregularity was in evidence in the rail list late in the session.

U. S. government bonds enjoyed the most active trading in a week or longer, but there were enough offerings overhanging the market to keep advances within small fractions among the treasuries. Several issues of indirect loans ended unchanged.

Activity Unexplained.

There was nothing in the day's news to account for the sudden burst of activity in the government division which reversed a trend of more than a week. Transfers in this department accounted for $2,380,000 of the total day's turnover of $10,316,000, par value. Closing prices were 1-32 to 3-32ds higher. Treasury 2⅞s of 1955 were the most active issue, ending 1-32d higher at 101.21.

Railroad issues continued the upward movement developed yesterday and, aided by short covering, succeeded in showing gains of more than a point in some instances. Corporate issues moved to higher levels.

Utility List Firm.

While the utility group was less active than other departments, the list held steady, and some issues scored modest gains. Losses in most cases were confined to fractions.

Renewed pressure against Italian government and municipal obligations featured an otherwise quiet and steady market for European bonds. Latest developments in the Italo-African situation undoubtedly contribute to the weakness in the Italian dollar loans and further losses of 1½ to 4 points were sustained in today's dealings. The government 7s were down 1¾ points, while City of Rome 6½s yielded over 4 points. Some uneasiness was also displayed in the bonds of Latin-American countries.

Park & Tilford, Inc.

Investors' Guide: Would like some information in respect to Park & Tilford 6 per cent bonds.—W. E.

Answer: Park & Tilford, Inc., is controled by David A. Schulte and affiliated interests. Prior to repeal of prohibition it manufactured and sold dyes ["Tintex"], and sold cigars, candies, groceries, and cosmetics.

With legalization of the sale of alcoholic liquors, the company again entered its pre-prohibition business—sale of liquor. It is exclusive distributor for some widely known foreign brands. It also distills liquor, having an annual production capacity of 450,000 gallons.

The candy and cigar business is gradually being discontinued, due to unfavorable operating results.

The year 1934 should not be regarded as normal because of the large nonrecurring expenditures and income. For the first quarter of 1935 a profit of $21,000 was reported, against profit of $156,000 for the first quarter of 1934.

Sales for 1934 were $9,546,000, against $3,554,000 for 1933 and $3,512,000 for 1932. Net income for 1934 was $211,000 and bond interest was earned 4.53 times. In 1933 net income was $280,000 and interest was earned 1.13 times.

Losses in 1932 and 1931 were $400,000 and $288,000.

Working capital at the close of 1934 was $2,319,000, against $2,468,000 the year before.

On June 1, 1936, $1,050,000 of unsecured debentures will mature. The bonds are somewhat speculative at present.

Standard Cap and Seal.

Investors' Guide: Am contemplating purchase of a small amount of Standard Cap and Seal company common stock. Would therefore thank you very much for an analysis of this company, especially as to the nature of its products.—J. J.

Answer: Standard Cap and Seal corporation is a Chicago manufacturer of bottle tops. Its products are milk bottle caps, discs and hood seals for medicinal, chemical and commercial bottle packages and automatic machinery used in the capping processes.

Earnings have held stable over a long period of time. The company earned the equivalent of 72 cents a share during the first quarter of 1935, against 69 cents a share in the corresponding 1934 period.

Net income in 1934 was $575,000, or $2.75 a share, against net of $535,000 or $2.60 a share in 1933. Net income in 1932 was $577,000, $648,000 in 1931, $709,000 in 1930 and $666,000 in 1929.

Current position at the close of 1934 was satisfactory. Capitalization consists solely of 209,405 shares of $5 par stock on which dividends of 60 cents a quarter are currently being paid. Dividends in 1934 totaled $2.80 a share. The stock deserves a fairly good rating.

32 MILLION PURE OIL NOTE ISSUE OFFERED TODAY

Boston Edison Awards Large Block of Bonds.

An offering of $32,000,000 Pure Oil company fifteen year 4¼ per cent sinking fund notes, carrying nondetachable common stock purchase warrants, is being made today at 100 and accured interest by a banking group comprising Edward B. Smith & Co., First Boston corporation, Halsey, Stuart & Co., Inc.; Lehman Brothers; Field, Glore & Co.; Kidder, Peabody & Co., and the Central Republic company.

Underwriting discounts or commissions amount to 3 per cent, making net proceeds to the company from this financing $31,040,000 and accrued interest. The company has agreed to make application for listing the notes and common stock to be issued on the exercise of warants on the New York Stock exchange.

Notes Carry Stock Warants.

Each note will carry a nondetachable warant exercisable for the purchase of 30 shares of common stock, unless the note is previously redeemed, at the following prices: $15 per share to and including July 1, 1938, and at prices increasing $2.50 per share for each subsequent three year period thereafter up to maturity on July 1, 1950. The prices are to be adjusted under certain specified contingencies.

Of the net proceeds from this financing $12,593,750 will be used to redeem or pay off bank loans obtained for the redemption of the entire issue of 5½ per cent notes due 1937 not redeemed through sinking fund moneys; $15,187,500 to redeem on or about Sept. 1 the entire issue of 5½ per cent notes due 1940, and about $3,135,744 will be used to increase working capital. In addition the company has made arrangements with a group of commercial banks for unsecured loans aggregating $5,000,000 and maturing from 1937 to 1940 inclusive for the purpose of liquidating outstanding bank loans of the company.

Award 53 Million Issue.

The Edison Electric Illuminating Company of Boston yesterday awarded an issue of $53,000,000 first mortgage bonds to a syndicate headed by the First Boston corporation at a bid of 101.913 for 3½ per cent coupons. Proceeds from the sale of the bonds, maturing in 1965, will be used to redeem $55,000,000 in notes due 1937. Public offering of the issue, the second largest filled under the securities act of 1933, is expected shortly.

A registration statement by the Cudahy Packing company of Chicago for the issuance of $20,000,000 first mortgage sinking fund bonds, series A 3¾ per cent, due Sept. 1, 1955, and $5,000,000 convertible sinking fund 4 per cent debentures, due Sept. 1, 1950, has been filed with the SEC. Both issues will be dated Sept. 1, 1935.

New York City Sells Bonds.

New York City held its most successful bond sale in more than thirty years yesterday, selling a $38,000,000 issue of long term serial bonds and corporate stock to a syndicate headed by the National City bank on an interest cost basis of 3.47 per cent.

The only comparable sale, from the point of benefit to the city, was in 1905, when an issue of $22,000,000 3½ per cent corporate stock was sold at a premium which placed the interest cost to the city at 3.48 per cent.

Citizens of Elgin, Ill., yesterday approved a plan to issue $352,000 in 4 per cent bonds, maturing in twenty years, to refinance outstanding public benefit indebtedness bearing 6 per cent interest.

GOODRICH PROXY FIGHT ADJOURNED UNTIL THURSDAY

New York, July 16.—(AP)—The special meeting of stockholders of the B. F. Goodrich company, held today to act on a proposal to authorize flotation of $28,000,000 of new first mortgage bonds, adjourned without taking action until Thursday morning. The recess was taken to permit the counting and checking of proxies, of which more than 16,000 were in the hands of the tellers. Approval of three-fourths of each class of stockholders is required.

The meeting today, at which David Goodrich, chairman of the board of directors of the company, presided, had been widely heralded as "the showdown" in a proxy battle and court fight between the management, which proposed the new bond issue, and an opposition, led by Otis & Co., Cleveland investment banking concern.

Exchanges between the two factions, however, were relatively mild.

EXTRA DIVIDENDS ARE DECLARED BY TWO CONCERNS

New York, July 16.—[Special.]—Goebel Brewing today increased its common dividend by declaring a quarterly payment of 5 cents a share, compared with 2½ cents paid July 1. An extra dividend of 5 cents also was voted.

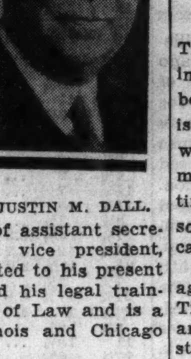
San Carlos Milling approved an extra of 50 cents on common and the regular monthly disbursement of 20 cents a share. Jackson & Curtiss Securities declared an accumulation dividend of $1 a share on the $6 preferred, leaving overdue payments of $10 a share.

Mississippi Power and Light voted a dividend of 50 cents a share on arrears on the $6 first preferred, which will reduce arrears to $7 a share. Pacific Public Service declared a payment of 20 cents a share on account of accumulations on the $1.30 first preferred. This will leave past due dividends of $4.02½ a share.

Retail Food Price Index Drops One Cent to $1.218

Washington, D. C., July 16.—(AP)—A one cent drop in retail food prices in the two weeks ended July 2 was reported today by the labor department. The same amount of food which cost $1.23 the previous two weeks cost $1.218 in the two weeks ended July 2. A 2.1 per cent drop in meat prices was the most striking change.

JUSTIN M. DALL STARTS SECOND HALF CENTURY WITH TITLE AND TRUST



JUSTIN M. DALL.

Justin M. Dall, vice chairman of the Chicago Title and Trust company, will begin his second half century with that firm today. It was just 50 years ago today, July 17, 1885, that he started his business career with the old Cook County Abstract company, which later consolidated with other abstract concerns to become the Chicago Title and Trust company.

Dall first was employed as a clerk and then as an abstract examiner. He moved up to the positions of assistant secretary, secretary, and vice president, and in 1931 was elected to his present position. He received his legal training at Kent College of Law and is a member of the Illinois and Chicago Bar associations.

In addition to his directorship in the Title and Trust, Dall is a director of the Lake County Title company of Crown Point, Ind., and the Illinois Title company of Waukegan. He is a member of the Chicago Real Estate board, Union League club, and the Oak Park Country club. He lives at 836 Lathrop avenue, River Forest.

NEW DEAL HANGS UP RECORD FOR COURT DEFEATS

AAA Decision Latest of Long List.

dispute involved a company union as opposed to the A. F. of L.

In May Attorney General Cummings suffered a defeat in his attempt to block the proposed merger of Republic Steel corporation and Corrigan, McKinney Steel company on the ground that it would violate the Clayton anti-trust act. Federal Judge Fred M. Raymond found against the department of justice on all counts.

The Tennessee Valley authority has an almost unbroken record of failure in litigation in federal courts in its territory. Federal Judge W. I. Grubb at Birmingham in March signed a restraining order in which he held the contract for purchase of northern Alabama properties of Alabama Power company by the TVA to be "in furtherance of illegal proprietary operations of the Tennessee Valley authority."

The failure of the "G men" in jury trials has likewise been consistent. Samuel Insull and his associates were tried twice in federal courts and twice were freed by juries. John Ballantyne, Herbert L. Chittenden, and John H. Hart, highest officials of the First National bank, Detroit, were tried and found not guilty of "window dressing" bank reports. Charles E. Mitchell, former chairman of the National City bank of New York, on June 23, 1933, was acquitted by a jury in the federal court of having evaded income tax payments of $850,000 on an estimated net income of $4,000,000 for 1929 and 1930.

REPORT BANKERS STUDYING LOAN FOR SO. PACIFIC

New York, July 16.—[Special.]—A banking group headed by the Guaranty Trust company of New York is reported to be discussing a collateral loan to the Southern Pacific company of about $30,000,000 for refunding the road's notes to the Reconstruction Finance corporation and improving working capital position. It is understood the loan would carry an interest coupon of 4 per cent annually.

Southern Pacific owes the RFC approximately $22,000,000. The contract includes agreements to restrict dividends paid by a subsidiary, Pacific Fruit Express, and stringent limitations on compensation of all executives.

Collateral for the present loan includes $12,000,000 par value of Pacific Fruit stock, $12,800,000 Arizona Eastern first and refunding 5s of 1950, $4,737,000 El Paso and Southwestern 5s of 1965, and $9,000,000 Galveston, Harrisburg, and San Antonio first 6s, 1940. It is said this collateral would be used to secure the bank loan.

Banks discussing the refunding loan contemplate the possibility of a reoffering to the public when conditions are favorable.

EXPECT HARAHAN TO BE HEAD OF CHESAPEAKE RD.

New York, July 16.—(AP)—The new president of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad is expected to be W. J. Harahan, now senior vice president, it was learned in reliable financial quarters today.

Harahan, succeeding the late J. J. Bernet, it is understood, will be chosen at a meeting of directors of the road at Cleveland next Tuesday. He will also occupy the office of president of the Nickel Plate and the Pere Marquette, other groups of the Van Sweringen railroad group.

Prior to his connection with the Chesapeake and Ohio, which began 15 years ago, Harahan was president of the Seaboard Air Line. He also served a previous term as president of the C. & O., which ended in 1930, when he relinquished his post to Bernet to take the senior vice presidency. He will be 67 years old next December.

TIRE PRICES FALL AS WAR FLARES ON WIDE FRONT

Discounts Range as High as 50 Per Cent.

New York, July 16.—[Special.]—Tire prices are being slashed widely in a price war which has broken out between leading manufacturers and is spreading over a wide area as far west as Chicago. Discounts of as much as 50 per cent on commercial tires are being granted to dealers, with somewhat less in the case of passenger car equipment.

The trouble started several weeks ago in Pittsburgh when the General Tire and Rubber company published an advertisment of a sale of Firestone and Goodyear tires at sharp discounts from list prices. Recently the two companies mentioned retaliated by advertising a sale of General tires at heavy discounts.

Conditions Now Unstable.

Since that incident prices of tires have been unstable. Price cutting has become general in eastern territory and all manufacturers have met cuts of competitors. The situation today is about as grave as has existed at any time in the last two years. Two and in some cases three discounts of 10 per cent each have been made from list prices on tires for passenger cars. In some instances it is said that company owned tire stores are selling tires at less than cost to dealers.

Fourth of July "sales" were held by leading manufacturers. The original plan was to limit them to a few days, but it is learned that some of the holiday sales are still going on. That situation adds to the general confusion existing in the tire trade.

Substitutions Start Trouble.

The situation which enabled the General Tire and Rubber company to offer Firestone and Goodyear tires for sale at cut prices was created by the fact that General Tire manufacturers for dealers, doing little or no original equipment business. It makes arrangements with some dealers to substitute General tires for others on new cars by taking the original equipment tires off the hands of the dealers. Those are the tires recently offered for resale at cut prices. The tires, of course, are new.

The outbreak of a tire price war seems to eliminate all hope of an advance in tire prices in the near future despite the fact that some rubber executives have announced that prices should be raised.

N. Y. TO PURCHASE 150 SUBWAY CARS FROM PULLMAN

The purchase of 150 cars and 10 extra trucks from the Pullman Standard Car Manufacturing company for $5,704,189 was authorized yesterday by the New York City board of estimate for the independent city subway system.

Company officials, not having a formal order, were unable to say when or where the cars will be built on reading the New York dispatches. It was believed generally, however, that the cars will be built here.

The New York board of estimate authorized purchase of 500 new subway cars in all at a cost of $19,288,026. The other two major contracts, aside from Pullman, were announced as going to Pressed Steel Car Company of New Jersey for 100 cars costing $3,767,745 and to the American Car and Foundry company for 250 cars and 10 extra trucks at $9,471,934.

REORGANIZATION OF SIX REALTY ISSUES REPORTED

Reorganization of six real estate bond issues totaling $2,320,500, all under section 77B of the amended bankruptcy act, and their confirmation by court, was reported yesterday by Edgar N. Greenebaum, president of the Greenebaum Sons Investment company. New securities, he said, will be delivered shortly to bondholders.

The issues involved are: $585,000 secured by the Milwaukee-Diversey building at the southeast corner of Milwaukee avenue and Diversey boulevard; Portage Park business block, on Milwaukee avenue between Cuyler and Belle Plaine avenue, $535,000; Waveland apartments at 626 Waveland avenue, $455,000; stores and shops building at 862 72 East 63d street, $369,500; Highland block, northwest corner of 22d street and Highland avenue, Berwyn, $220,000; and the Auburn block, northwest corner of 76th and Halsted streets, $160,000.

Depositors Oppose Sale of Harvey Bank Building

A meeting of depositors seeking to block the sale of the building and fixtures of the closed First National bank of Harvey for $25,000 is to be held tonight in the Whittier school. The offer was the best obtained, and the sale has been approved by Federal Judge Charles E. Woodward. Receiver H. E. Hallenbeck presented a statement to the court signed by the ten largest stockholders and ten largest depositors that this was a fair price for the building. The depositors' committee, headed by C. R. Craig Jr., contends that more could be obtained in time. The building cost $121,000 to erect.

LARGE DEALINGS SEND HOUDAILLE "B" TO NEW PEAK

Tone of Chicago Stocks Is Steady to Strong.

A flood of trading in Houdaille-Hershey B shares swept the Chicago Stock exchange yesterday. A total of 10,250 shares, the largest amount for a single issue in a day here for many months, were traded as the price rose to a new 1935 high of 17¼ and closed at 17⅛, up 1¼ points for the session.

The exceptional push was attributed to reports of highly satisfactory earnings by the big motor accessory firm. Activity began more than a month ago on earlier reports but at no time has approached yesterday's pace. Almost half as many Houdaille B shares were traded here as in New York. The stock sold at 12¾ on June 1 and was at 14¾ a month ago.

More than one-fourth of the entire trading volume of 36,000 here yesterday was accounted for by Houdaille. Interest otherwise was distributed among a score of issues in which volume was 500 shares or more.

Market Steady to Strong.

The market generally was steady to strong, with only a little selling to knock fractions off of new highs scored in the last week or two. Eleven issues beside Houdaille sold at new top prices for the year, and four others equaled their best previous quotations. Among these was Associates Investment, which jumped up 5 points more to 149. Even more sharp was A. M. Castle's rise from Monday's 36, then a 1935 high, to yesterday's high and close of 39.

Heileman Brewing and Noblitt Sparks, two most active issues next to Houdaille, edged through their recently established ceilings. Others at new tops yesterday were Altorfer, Brown Fence A, Chicago Rivet, Independent Pneumatic Tool, Iron Fireman, Public Service 6s, and Sutherland Paper.

Other Equal Peak Prices.

Equaling previous high marks were Goldblatt, Lawbeck, McWilliams Dredging, and National Battery. Continental, Keystone, and Ryerson steels were strong but at no new high marks.

Three new stocks made their bow on the board, while 37 comparatively inactive issues were missing because of failure to register with the Securities and Exchange commission. Horders was among the most active issues with 850 shares traded during its first day. It opened at 10½ and sold up to 11, where it closed. Trading was negligible in the other two new stocks—Kentucky Utilities 6 per cent preferred and Merchants and Manufacturers Securities participating no par preferred.

REORGANIZATION OF UNION LEAGUE CLUB APPROVED

Reorganization of the Union League club under section 77B of the amended bankruptcy act was approved yesterday by Federal Judge William H. Holly. Edwin C. Austin, president of the club, said the plan has been approved by 76 per cent of the bondholders and he is confident it will work out to the satisfaction of every one.

The plan provides that defaulted interest on both the first and general mortgage is to be waived. The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company, holder of the $2,350,000 first mortgage, has agreed to give up its claim of approximately $340,000 defaulted interest and has also agreed to a reduction in interest rate from 6 to 3½ per cent, which will be increased from time to time to a maximum of 5½ per cent.

Revenues above reasonable operating expenses and provision for working capital will be used for the reduction of the first mortgage until it has been cut to $1,000,000. After this has been accomplished one-half the net income will be used for the payment of interest on the general mortgage at 6 per cent. General creditors with claims amounting to around $60,000 will be paid in full.

NEW STEWART-WARNER PLAN TO FINANCE SALES

The Stewart-Warner corporation yesterday announced a contract with the First Bancredit corporation of St. Paul, Minn., whereby the latter will handle the financing of sales of Stewart-Warner refrigerators through dealers and distributors.

Two advantages in the plan, Stewart-Warner officials said, are that total financing costs to purchasers will be only approximately 50 per cent of the amount through present financing channels and that refrigerators can be sold without down payments and with payments extending over three years. Either tenants or owners of property may use the plan.

An amendment to the Federal Housing administration act, under which FHA insures 20 per cent of the face value of such accounts to the finance corporation handling them, is credited with making the plan possible.

UNITED AIR LINES CLAIMS RECORD IN JUNE TRAFIC

United Air Lines yesterday claimed a world's record for passenger trafic on any air line by carrying 18,557 revenue passengers during June. At the same time W. A. Patterson, president, told of plans to trim another hour from the present 17 hour coast to coast schedule by the addition of 1935 model speedier Boeings on the route west of Chicago. The company recently stepped up its schedule by inaugurating overnight service from the east to Pacific coast cities.

June passenger volume was 2,000 persons greater than in May and 3,467 more than June, 1934, a gain of 23 per cent. The previous high total of revenue passengers on domestic and foreign air lines, said Patterson, was United's 17,538 in August, 1933.

FRUIT PRICES.

COTTON DROPS ON DECISION VOIDING PROCESSING TAXES

Cotton markets developed a weaker undertone yesterday as the result of favorable weather, decline in the stock market and the court decision holding the processing tax unconstitutional. A rush of selling followed the latter announcement and prices dropped nearly $1.00 per bale from Monday's finish before support developed. Closing trades, while somewhat above the inside level, showed net losses of 10 to 18 points in Chicago and 5 to 14 points in other markets.

As a result of the decision on the processing tax it is expected buyers of textiles will buy only on a hand to mouth basis until the question is finally decided by the Supreme court. Hedging sales against the 1935 crop are reported as increasing despite the relatively low level as compared with the government loan basis. Spot cotton closed 10 to 15 cents lower, with New Orleans 12.15 cents; Houston 11.95 cents, Galveston 12.10 cents, and New York 12.25 cents per pound. Prices in cents per pound follow:

LARD FUTURES ADVANCE ON REDUCTION IN STOCKS

The decision of the Boston Federal court in holding the processing tax unconstitutional had little effect on provisions yesterday, although a tax of $2.47 per 100 pounds is levied on lard and $2.62 on bellies. Scattered selling on the adverse ruling to the government was more than offset by the unexpected reduction of around 4,500,000 pounds of lard in local stocks during the first half of the current month and strength in hogs. The close was 2½ to 7½ cents higher with July lard at a new high for the season. Bellies were unchanged to 2½ cents higher.

Domestic demand for cash lard was reported as fair, with the product being distributed over a wide area via truck to the retail trade. Owing to the relatively low price of butter as compared with lard in England, there has been a material increase in consumption in the former which has replaced lard to some extent. Cash lard closed at $14.05; loose, $14; leaf, $14.25, and bellies at $17.52 per 100 pounds. Prices in dollars per 100 pounds follow:

HOG PRICES RISE TO 8 YEAR HIGH; TOP HITS $12.55

AAA Policies and Drouth Bring Acute Shortage.

Hog prices yesterday rose to a new 8 year high and to the best July level in nine years. Advances of 5 to 15 cents carried the top to $12.55, processing tax included, an advance of 80 cents in three weeks. Since the close of June the market has been creeping upward daily, with few reactions.

Decisions of some of the lower courts against the AAA processing tax are partly responsible for the stronger position of the hog market, but it is believed better buying orders can be attributed more to the acute supply situation created by the 1934 drouth and federal control of production.

Stocks Extremely Small.

Packers now have less pork and lard on hand than at any time in recent history for this season. Stocks in store are falling rapidly at all points. As a result of the recent sharp advances in pork, demand in the wholesale trade slowed down and prices of loins weakened 50 cents at some points. However, this had little effect on the hog trade, which averaged 10 cents higher than Monday. The average of $11.65, tax included, was 40 cents higher than early last week.

Selected 196 to 200 pound new crop hogs topped the list at $12.55, which is 5 cents over the previous 1935 high.

Further marked decreases were shown in hog receipts at all points the first two days of this week. Eleven leading markets handled only 82,000 head Monday and Tuesday, compared with 95,000 the first two days of last week and 181,000 a year ago. Since the first of January these markets have received only 6,583,000 hogs, a decrease of 6,057,000 head or 47 per cent from 1934.

Beef Prices Decline.

Wholesale beef quotations took a sharp turn downward, falling 50 cents to $1 in the east. This seriously affected demand for cattle here. Trading was slow and prices weak to 25 cents lower, with the exception of desirable yearling hefers, which held firm. Few steers sold above $11, with bulk of the beef steers going at $8.50 to $11.

Only small lots of selected vealers reached the $8 top.

Lamb prices were steady to 10 cents higher. City butchers bought selected natives up to $8.60 and packers paid $8.50, while most of the western range stock sold at $8.40 to $8.50.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK

The following figures on hog prices include $2.25 per hundredweight collected by the federal government as processing tax. There is no processing tax on cattle or sheep. The price quotations given below are for 100 lbs of live animal:

BUTTER STOCKS INCREASE; MILK PRODUCTION IS HEAVY

Accumulation of butter stocks at leading points continues to run well ahead of the corresponding period of last year, the increase at the thirty-five cities during the last week being 3,800,000 pounds in excess of 1934. Owning to the excellent condition of pasturage, milk production has remained heavy, while at this season a year ago pastures had already dried up over a large area due to heat and drouth.

Despite the bearish statistics November butter was little affected on the Chicago Mercantile exchange yesterday, closing unchanged at 24⅝ cents per pound, while the July delivery was ⅛ cent lower.

Liquidation developed in egg futures, storage stocks at the thirty-five points showing 62,000 cases in excess of the inward movement last year. The October delivery dropped ¼ cent and closed at 25¼ cents per dozen. Trade was fairly heavy, aggregating 87 cars butter and 108 cars eggs. Prices folow:

SUGAR

NEW YORK, July 16.—(AP)—SUGAR—Raw was quiet today and, with no sales reported, prices were unchanged at 3.29c per lb for spots and 3.30c for forward. The decision of the Circuit Court of Appeals declaring the agricultural act unconstitutional had an unsettling effect.

There was a sharp reaction in futures but, after showing declines of 7 to 9 points, there was a partial recovery, with the market's closing 5 to 7 points net lower for No. 3 contracts and 3 to 6 points lower for No. 1. Sales were 19,700 tons in the No. 3 contract and about 3,800 tons in the No. 1.

| May | 2.09 | 2.10 | 2.09 | 2.10 | 2.15 |

The refined market was unchanged, with refiners listing at 5.25c per lb and second hands available at around 5c.

[Note—The above raw sugar prices exclude processing tax of ½c per lb. Refined sugar prices include the tax.]

DRY GOODS.

New York, July 16.—(AP)—Cotton goods were steadier today, but the demand continued moderate. Wholesale buyers are becoming more active in the markets this week. The wool goods markets were unsettled by demands made of mills for substantial wage increases, unions giving until July 21 for acceptance or rejection of the demands. Silk and rayon markets were quieted by threats of an imposition of compensatory taxes in bill before congress. Burlaps were quiet

BURNHAM'S
(for 64 years the world's largest beauty school)

ACT NOW!

It is to your particular advantage to register now even if you cannot start your course until later. Call, phone, or write at once.

The easy-to-learn Burnham System quickly enables you to become a skilled beauty operator. Plenty of living models. You learn by doing rather than by studying. Each teacher a specialist. Fewer pupils per teacher. 64 years' knowing how to teach gives you a flying start.

SEE FOR YOURSELF WHY MORE GIRLS ENROLL IN BURNHAM'S THAN IN ANY OTHER BEAUTY SCHOOL.

BURNHAM'S AWARDS TRIP TO PARIS TO STUDENT. Geneve Huffman, 1601 Thome-av., winner of semi-annual Burnham scholarship for efficiency while in training, sailed June 19 on S. S. Manhattan with all expenses paid. Burnham's offers opportunities not found elsewhere.
